

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

LAWS

One Hundred and Twenty-eighth Legislature.

CHAPTER I.

A Supplement to an act entitled "An act for the assessment and collection of taxes," approved April eighth, one thousand nine hundred and three.

WHEREAS, By a revision of the laws of this state relating to the assessment and collection of taxes entitled "An act for the assessment and collection of taxes," approved April eighth, one thousand nine hundred and three, which act took effect as therein provided on the twentieth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and three, it was, among other things, provided as follows: "There shall be established a board for the equalization, revision and enforcement of taxation, to be called the state board of taxation, which shall consist of four citizens of this state, who shall be appointed by the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate; their term of office shall commence on the first Monday of April and shall be for a period of five years; no more than two persons of the same political party shall be appointed members;" and setting forth therein the powers and duties of the said board, as by reference thereto will more fully appear; and Preamble.

WHEREAS, Doubts exist as to whether the terms of office of the members of the state board of taxation holding office at the time the said act went into effect, and prior thereto, did not end and terminate when the said act went into effect, except for the purpose of concluding business pending before the said board relating to the assessment and collection of taxes assessed prior to the year one thousand nine hundred and three; and.

WHEREAS, It was the intention of the legislature in passing the said act simply to revise the laws theretofore passed relating to the powers and duties of the said board, and not to deprive them of the powers theretofore given the said board; therefore,

BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

Term extended—when ceases.

1. The members of the state board of taxation holding office immediately prior to the date when the said act entitled "An act for the assessment and collection of taxes," approved April eighth, one thousand nine hundred and three, took effect, be and the same are hereby each continued in office until the third Monday in February, one thousand nine hundred and four, when the terms of all the said members shall cease, end and terminate, and they shall have all the powers, privileges, rights, salary, compensation and authority, conferred by the laws of this state, upon the state board of taxation until the third Monday of February, one thousand nine hundred and four.

Regulations
proceedings.

2. In all matters and proceedings had and taken by or before the said state board of taxation, or which may be had or taken relating to the assessment and collection of taxes assessed or collected prior to the twentieth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and three, the proceedings had and taken, or to be had and taken by or before the said board in relation thereto, and the action of the board thereon, and all powers, privileges and duties of the said board in regard thereto shall be regulated and controlled by the provisions of the laws of this state in force prior to the twentieth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and three, and that in all matters and proceedings had or taken, or which may be had and taken, relating to the assessment and collection of taxes assessed or collected after the said twentieth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and three, the proceedings had or taken, or to be had or taken before the said board, and the action of the said board thereon, and the powers and duties of the said board in relation thereto, shall be regulated and controlled by the provisions of the laws of this state applicable thereto in force on and after the said twentieth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and three.

3. All proceedings had and taken by the said board since the twentieth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and three, in accordance with the provisions of the said act of April eighth, one thousand nine hundred and three, and in accordance with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby validated and confirmed.

Proceedings

have power to make rules, orders and directions, as they may deem necessary to a faithful discharge of their own duties, the duties of their assistants and also to secure the equalization, revision and enforcement of taxation in this state; they shall have the power to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books and papers, and may examine witnesses under oath, which either of them may administer, and they may delegate such powers to any member of their board authorized by them to investigate and report; and they may ex parte apply for and obtain from any justice of the supreme court an order compelling any person to submit to examination in reference to such matters, and said justice may punish any person as for contempt who shall disobey any order made by such justice in the premises.

proceedings.

5. All proceedings had and taken by or before the state board of taxation prior to or after the twentieth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and three, and then pending and undetermined, shall be continued and determined by the board appointed under the authority of the said act approved April eighth, one thousand nine hundred and three, and this amendment thereto; and the board hereafter appointed under the authority of the said act of April eighth, one thousand nine hundred and three, and this amendment thereto, shall, for this purpose, have all the power and authority conferred upon the state board of taxation at the time such proceedings were instituted, and shall proceed to conclude and determine the same, under such power and authority.

6. This act shall take effect immediately.

EDMUND W. WAKELEE,

President of the Senate.

JOHN BOYD AVIS,

Speaker of the House of Assembly.

Approved February 1, 1904.

FRANKLIN MURPHY,

Governor.

CHAPTER 2.

An Act to authorize any village to separate itself from the township in which it is contained, and giving to such village complete autonomy of local government.

BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

1. The governing body of any village in this state may, by the votes of a majority of such governing body, pass a resolution for the holding of a special election in such village for the purpose of deciding whether such village shall be separated from the township in which it is contained and given complete autonomy of local government under the provisions hereof, which resolution shall prescribe the time and place or places of holding such election, and such other regulations respecting the same as may be deemed by said governing body necessary and proper.

from township.

2. Notice of such election shall be given by advertisement, published in one or more newspapers published in such village (or if there be no newspaper published in such village, then in two newspapers published at the county seat of the county in which said village is situate), at least one week next before such election, and by printed notices posted in at least ten conspicuous places in such village at least ten days next preceding the time appointed therefor, which advertisements and notices shall specify the time, place or places, and the object and purpose of such election.

Notice of election.

3. Such election shall be by ballot and conducted under the laws respecting elections; the governing body of such village shall provide separate ballots for the use of voters at such election, one whereof shall contain the words "For separation from the township," and the other shall contain the words "Against separation from the township;" if a majority of the votes cast at such

An Act to amend an act entitled "An act to prescribe the mode of filling vacancies in municipal offices in cities of this state when such vacancies have heretofore occurred or shall hereafter occur by reason of the failure of municipal officers to take and subscribe the oath of office within the time prescribed," approved May ninth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four.

I. An act entitled "An act to prescribe the mode of filling vacancies in municipal offices in cities in this state when such vacancies have heretofore occurred or shall hereafter occur by reason of the failure of municipal officers to take and subscribe the oath of office within the time prescribed," approved May ninth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section
amended.

I. Whenever any vacancy has heretofore occurred, or shall hereafter occur, in any municipal office in any city of this state, by reason of the failure of the person elected or appointed to fill such office to take and subscribe the oath of office required by law, within the time prescribed, such vacancy shall cease, and such office shall be filled, by the person so failing to qualify, upon his taking and subscribing the oath required by law, before any officer of this state authorized to administer oaths; provided, that such person so failing to qualify as aforesaid had presented himself to an officer of this state authorized to administer oaths before or at the time prescribed by law for the commencement of the term of such office, for the purpose of taking and subscribing such oath, or was qualified by law to participate in the organization of the board or body at the time when such vacancy occurred.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 1, 1904.

CHAPTER 9.

AN ACT to amend an act entitled "An act to enable the owners of the tide swamps and marshes to improve the same, and the owners of meadows already banked in and held by different persons, to keep the same in good repair," passed November twenty-ninth, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-eight.

BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

Section
amended.

I. Section sixteen of said act be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows, to wit:

Preamble.

AND WHEREAS, Many owners of meadows, already banked from the tide, suffer great loss and damage by the conduct of others who own meadow lying within the same bank and neglect or refuse to keep their part or parts of the bank, works and water-courses in good repair; therefore be it enacted, that in all cases where several persons own meadow ground within one and the same bank, dam or other inclosure, and liable to be overflowed or damaged by a breach in any part of such bank, dam or other works, and any of the owners or occupiers of any part thereof, shall neglect or refuse to keep his, her or their part or parts of said banks or works in repair, to the damage or danger of the other owner or owners, any owner or owners so damaged, or in danger of being damaged by such neglect, may, upon six days' notice being given to the other owners or occupiers, apply to the judges of the inferior court of common pleas of the county where such meadow may be, who shall appoint, by a certifi-

An Act to establish the office of register of deeds and mortgages in certain counties of this state.

BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

1. In every county of this state having a population of over ninety-nine thousand there shall be a register of deeds and mortgages in and for such county, who shall be elected by the people of the county, and shall hold his office for five years; he shall be commissioned by the governor of this state, and his commission shall be issued and bear date on the Tuesday next after the annual election at which he may be elected.

deeds; election and commission.

2. The first election for such register of deeds and mortgages in any county wherein a register of deeds and mortgages has not been heretofore elected shall be held at the next annual election for members of the general assembly, at which a clerk of the court of common pleas of such county shall be elected, and the same notice of such election shall be given as is now by law required to be given of the election of the clerk of such county, and from time to time thereafter a register shall be elected in such county in the same manner as the clerk of said county is by law now elected.

When elected.

3. It shall be the duty of the said register of deeds and mortgages to record all deeds, mortgages, assignments of mortgages, letters of attorney to convey lands and all instruments of writing relating to the title to real estate, which now or hereafter are or may be required or permitted by law to be recorded; and to do and perform all the duties now by law required of the clerk of the court of common pleas of such county pertaining to the recording, registering and indexing of all such deeds, mortgages, assignments of mortgages, letters of attorney to convey lands and instruments of writing, relating to the title to real estate in and for the county in which he is elected.

Duties.

Oath and fees.

4. The said register of deeds and mortgages shall take and subscribe the same oaths, give the same bonds, enjoy the same rights and privileges, receive the same fees and be subject to the same penalties as now are provided by law in the case of the clerk of the court of common pleas of such county, with reference to the discharge of the duties herein devolved upon the said register of deeds and mortgages.

Laws applicable.

5. All the laws of this state now in force in the case of the clerk of the common pleas, in and for such county, shall apply to the said register of deeds and mortgages so far forth as the same may be applicable to the business and duties of his said office of register of deeds and mortgages, and the record and transcripts therefrom shall have the same force and effect as they now have when made by the clerk of the court of common pleas of such county.

Records, etc., given into custody of register.

6 All the records of deeds, mortgages, assignments of mortgages, letters of attorney to convey lands, and other instruments of writing relating to the title to real estate, books, papers, indexes and other things pertaining to the business and duties herein devolved upon the said register of deeds and mortgages, which may be in the custody of the clerk of the court of common pleas of any such county, at the close of his present term of office, shall be by him at that time placed in the custody of the said register of deeds and mortgages, who shall sign a receipt therefor according to law.

Suitable accommodations provided.

7. It shall be the duty of the board of chosen freeholders of such county, without unnecessary delay, to provide a fit and suitable fire-proof place, separate and distinct from the office of the clerk of the court of common pleas of such county, in which the said register of deeds and mortgages may keep the records and papers of his office, and to furnish the same with proper book-cases and furniture.

Books and stationery.

8. All the necessary books and stationery for the business of said office shall be furnished by such county, and shall be the property of the county and be public records, to which all persons shall have access at all reasonable hours.

9. In case a vacancy shall occur in said office, it shall be filled in the same manner as is now provided for by law in the case of the clerk of such county. Vacancy.

Approved March 7, 1904.

CHAPTER 24.

Supplement to an act entitled "An act concerning building and loan associations," approved April eighth, one thousand nine hundred and three.

• BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

Movement for dissolution.

1. Whenever in the judgment of the board of directors or managers of any building and loan association organized under the laws of this state, it shall be deemed advisable and for the interest of the shareholders of such association, that the same shall be dissolved, and its business liquidated, said board of directors or managers, after the adoption of a resolution to that effect, shall cause notice of the adoption of said resolution, to be mailed to each shareholder, whose post-office address appears upon the books of such association, and at the same time, and in and by said resolution, said board of directors or managers shall fix a time and place for a meeting of said shareholders, to take action upon said resolution, which meeting may, on the day so appointed, be adjourned from time to time, and if at any such meeting two-thirds in interest of the shareholders present shall vote that a dissolution and liquidation of said association shall take place, then a copy of the said resolution to dissolve and liquidate, shall be filed by the secretary, treasurer, president or other officer of such association, in the office of the commissioner of banking and insurance of this state, who, upon being satisfied that said notice has been given and said resolution adopted, shall issue a certificate to the trustees hereinafter provided for, that said resolution has been filed, and thereupon said association shall be dissolved, and its business liquidated by said trustees, as hereinafter set forth.

Notice to commissioner.

Certificate of dissolution.

2. Upon the adoption of said resolution by said shareholders at said shareholders' meeting, or at any adjourned meeting, said shareholders shall appoint three or more trustees to wind up and liquidate the affairs of said association, and the trustees so appointed, shall have full power to demand, sue for, collect and receive, and take into their possession, all the goods, chattels, rights and credits, moneys and effects, lands and tenements, books, papers, choses in action, bills, notes, bonds and mortgages, and any other property of any and every description, belonging to said association, and to sell, convey or assign all the said real or personal estate, and to compromise and settle, with the borrowers of said association, and do any and all other things or acts that they shall think necessary, for winding up the affairs of said association, and after paying all allowances, expenses, costs and satisfying all debts presented to said trustees, shall divide the moneys and other property among the shareholders, as far as such money and property shall enable them, proportionately, and according to their respective claims, interests or demands; said trustees shall, before entering upon their duties, each give a bond to said association, in such sum as said shareholders shall fix, which bond shall be conditioned for the faithful performance of their duties as such trustees and be filed in the office of said commissioner of banking and insurance, and said trustees shall further have power to meet and act under the by-laws of said association to the same extent as the said board of directors or managers of any said building and loan association could, and under regulations to be made by a majority of said trustees; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall divest the said commissioner of

An Act to amend an act entitled "An act to establish a thorough and efficient system of free public schools, and to provide for the maintenance, support and management thereof," approved October nineteenth, one thousand nine hundred and three.

BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

1. Section seventy-eight of the act to which this is an amendment is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section
amended.

78. If the board of education in any school district created under the provisions of this Article shall deem it for the best interests of the schools that the number of members constituting said board shall be reduced, the district clerk, when directed by said board, shall insert in the call for the next annual school meeting a notice that it will be determined at said meeting whether the number of members of the board of education shall be reduced to five or three. If it shall be determined at said meeting to reduce the number of members of said board to either five or three, the members of said board then in office shall continue in office for the terms for which they were severally elected, and their successors shall be elected in the manner following:

be reduced.

If number to be five.

I. If it shall be determined at said meeting that the number of members of the board of education shall be reduced to five, no election for members of said board shall be held at said meeting. At the next annual school meeting two members of said board shall be elected for the term of three years, and at the second annual school meeting held after the meeting at which it was determined to reduce the number of members of the board of education to five, two members of said board shall be elected for the term of three years and one for the term of one year, and thereafter there shall be elected at each annual school meeting a member or members of said board, in the place of those whose terms shall have expired, who shall hold office for the term of three years.

be three.

II. If it shall be determined at said meeting that the number of members of the board of education shall be reduced to three, no election for members of said board shall be held until the second annual school meeting held after the meeting at which it was determined to reduce the number of members of the board to three. At such second annual school meeting there shall be elected three members of said board to serve for one, two and three years respectively, and thereafter one member of said board shall be elected at each annual school meeting, in the place of the member whose term shall have expired, who shall hold office for the term of three years.

trustees in new township,
etc.

Whenever a new township, incorporated town or borough school district shall be created, there shall be held, at the ensuing annual school meeting, an election for members of the board of education. Before proceeding to ballot for such members of the board of education the legal voters present shall determine whether the board of education shall consist of three, five or nine members. If it shall be determined that the board shall consist of three members, then said legal voters shall elect one member to serve for the term of one year, one for the term of two years, and one for the term of three years. If it shall be determined that the said board shall consist of five members, the said legal voters shall elect one member to serve for the term of one year, two for the term of two years, and two for the term of three years. If it shall be determined that said board shall consist of nine members, said legal voters shall elect three members to serve for the term of one year, three for the term of two years, and three for the term of three years. Annually thereafter there shall be elected a person or persons for the term of three years in the place of the member or members whose terms shall have expired.

Approved March 14, 1904.

propriate moneys to repair, improve and maintain that portion of the public road passing through and abutting as aforesaid.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 16, 1904.

CHAPTER 37.

A Supplement to an act entitled "An act providing for the formation, establishment and government of towns," approved March seventh, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five.

BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

1. In all towns formed or established under the act to which this act is a supplement, or governed under the provisions thereof, the council shall have power to acquire, maintain and make available to the public, parks and open places for public resort and recreation, and shall have power to locate within the limits of said town such public parks and places, and for such purpose shall have power to take in fee, or otherwise, by purchase, gift or devise, lands and rights in land within said town; and may lay out, embellish and maintain the same, and pass ordinances providing for the proper and convenient use thereof by the public.

Places for recreation.

2. The council shall have power to issue bonds of such town for the purpose of acquiring lands for such public park or parks, and for laying out, constructing and embellishing the same; such bonds shall be designated as "park bonds," shall be of such denomination as the council may determine, and shall bear interest at a rate not to exceed five per centum per annum; the council shall also have power to assess and raise each year a sum of money for the care and maintenance of such park or parks, said amount to be assessed and collected at the same time and in the same manner as other taxes are assessed and collected.

Park commission.

Expenditure of moneys.

Council's function.

Commission; how composed.

3. In any town as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the council, in its discretion, to provide for and establish, by ordinance, a board of park commissioners, which said board, when so established, is hereby vested with full power and authority to lay out, construct and embellish such park or parks after the lands therefor shall have been acquired by the council as above provided, and to adopt proper rules and regulations for the use thereof by the public, and to provide for the care and maintenance of the same; the said board, when established, shall have the power, exclusive of the council, to expend the moneys raised for park purposes, other than for the acquirement of the land, either from the issue and sale of bonds or by taxation, and all moneys so raised for the purposes aforesaid, except as aforesaid, shall be paid out by the town treasurer upon the warrant of the said board of park commissioners, signed by its president and attested by its secretary, and not otherwise; the said board shall determine what sums may be necessary, in the first instance for the laying out, construction and embellishment of such park or parks, and thereafter, annually, for the care and maintenance of the same, and shall recommend to council, in writing, the amount so to be raised; in all towns where such board of park commissioners shall have been established as aforesaid the council shall be without power to raise any money for park purposes, either by issue and sale of bonds or by taxation, except upon the recommendation of said board; the sum so raised by the council shall not in any case exceed the sum recommended by the board, but the council shall not be obliged to raise the entire amount so recommended, but may raise a less amount.

4. Such board of park commissioners to be created in pursuance of the foregoing section shall be composed of three members of the council and four freeholders residing in the town not members of the council, all to be appointed by the council upon the nomination of the councilman-at-large; the three members from the council shall hold office for one year, two freeholders shall hold office for one year and two shall hold office for two years, and no more than two of said freeholders shall be appointed from any one ward; the members of any such board of park commissioners shall serve without compensation, and shall select annually from among their own members a president and secretary of the board.

5. This act shall be deemed a public act and shall take effect immediately; provided, however, that this act shall not repeal or affect any other legislation or proceedings for park purposes and for maintaining such parks, and this act is hereby declared to be additional legislation for such purposes. Proviso.

Approved March 16, 1904.

CHAPTER 38.

CHAPTER 39.

A Supplement to an act entitled "An act to enable boards having control of the water supply in the cities of this state to construct reservoirs for the storage of water," aproved February twenty-fifth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

Section
amended.

1. Section four of the above-recited act is hereby amended so that the same shall read as follows:

Ascertain
total cost.

4. When such reservoir or reservoirs so constructed as aforesaid shall have been fully completed, it shall be the duty of the board or body having charge of the construction of the same, and the control of the water supply in such city, to make and file with the clerk of such city a statement of the entire cost and expense of construction, including the cost of the lands acquired, and all other expenses, and the said city shall thereupon issue permanent bonds, negotiable in form, to run for a period of not less than twenty nor more than fifty years, sufficient in amount to pay the entire expense connected with the construction of the said reservoir or reservoirs, and to take up and redeem the temporary loan bonds or certificates from time to time issued for the purpose of raising the money necessary to carry on such work; such bonds shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding five per centum per annum, and shall be of such form as such common council or other governing body or board having control of the finances may determine; the interest thereon shall be paid semi-annually, and they shall not be disposed of at less than par; the proceeds thereof shall be used exclusively for the purposes hereinbefore set forth.

to take up temporary indebtedness.

Section
amended.

2. Section five of the above-recited act, is, also, hereby amended so that the the same shall read as follows:

5. For the purpose of providing a fund to pay the interest on said bonds while outstanding, and the principal when due, there shall be set apart from the net revenue received from water rents and water rates in the said city not otherwise pledged, such sum as shall be sufficient to pay the interest as it falls due and the principal of the said bonds at maturity; provided, however, that if it shall be found that the receipts thus pledged are insufficient to furnish a fund from which to pay the annual interest on the said bonds and to provide a sinking fund of not less than one per centum of the principal of the said bonds per annum, then it shall be the duty of the common council or other governing body or board having control of the finances of such city to raise a sum sufficient for this purpose in the annual tax levy of such city, and to apply the sum raised for interest to the payment of the annual interest on the said bonds, and to pay over the sum raised as a sinking fund to the sinking fund commissioners of such city for the redemption of said bonds when due.

Meet principal and interest.

Proviso.

3. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed, and this act shall take effect immediately.

Repealer.

Approved March 16, 1904.

76. Whenever a city board of education shall decide that it is necessary to raise money for the purchase of lands for school purposes, or for erecting, enlarging, repairing or furnishing a school-house or school-houses, it shall prepare and deliver to each member of the board of school estimate of such school district a statement of the amount of money estimated to be necessary for such purpose or purposes; said board of school estimate shall fix and determine the amount necessary for such purpose or purposes, and shall make two certificates of such amount, one of which certificates shall be delivered to said board of education, and the other to the common council, board of finance or other body in the city having the power to make appropriations of money raised by tax in such city; said common council, board of finance or other body may appropriate such sum or sums for such purpose or purposes in the same manner as other appropriations are made by it, and said sum or sums shall be raised, assessed, levied and collected at the same time and in the same manner as moneys appropriated for other purposes in such city are raised, assessed, levied and collected; or said common council, board of finance or other body may appropriate and borrow such sum or sums for the purpose or purposes aforesaid, and may secure the repayment of the sum or sums so borrowed, together with interest thereon at a rate not to exceed five per centum per annum, by the issue of bonds in the corporate name of such city; bonds so issued shall be designated "school bonds;" may be registered or coupon or both, of such denominations as the common council, board of finance or other board may determine, and shall be made payable in not more than fifty years from the date thereof; they shall be sold at public or private sale and not for less than par and accrued interest, and such city shall in its annual tax levy raise money sufficient to pay the interest on said bonds, together with at least one per centum per annum of the principal thereof, to provide a sinking fund for the retirement of said bonds at maturity; or in lieu of providing for a sinking fund for the retirement of said bonds at maturity, the bonds may be so issued that a stated equitable amount of them (in value), having regard to other school bonds already issued, shall become payable in each year beginning not more than ten years from date of the earliest issue and ending in not less than forty years from such date, and in such case there shall be raised by tax in each year such sum of money as may be necessary to pay the interest on all outstanding bonds and the principal of such bonds as may mature during that year; the proceeds of the sale of such bonds shall be deposited with the custodian of school moneys of such school district and shall be paid out only on the warrants or orders of the board of education; provided, that the total amount of bonds for the purposes named in this section, including bonds theretofore issued for such purposes, and not redeemed, shall not exceed at any one time a sum equal to three per centum of the taxable valuation of the real and personal property in such city; provided further,

 Proviso.
 Proviso.
 that if the charter of the city shall limit the amount of indebtedness in such city, or shall by its terms prevent the carrying out of the provisions of this section, said charter provisions shall be hereafter held not to apply to the issuing of bonds under the provisions of this section.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 16, 1904.

An Act authorizing incorporated camp meeting associations to require the construction of sidewalks and curbing and the payment of the cost thereof.

BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

Require sidewalks and curbing done by lessee, etc.

1. The board of trustees or other corporate authorities of any incorporated camp meeting association shall have the right and power, by ordinance, to require the construction, relaying, repairing and keeping in repair of sidewalks and curbing on any and all streets, roads or public places in the limits of said camp meeting association, at the cost and expense of any lessee or lessees, his or their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, whose lease shall be for the term of ninety-nine years from the date of the same, renewable for a like term of years forever, of the lands in front of which the said sidewalks and curbing may be so constructed, relaid or repaired.

proposed ordinance.

2. Written notice of the proposed adoption of said ordinance shall be given said lessee, lessees, his or their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns at least ten days before the adoption thereof, which notice shall be given to said lessee, lessees, his or their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns by mail, if their post-office address be known; if not known, then by posting such notice on the premises affected thereby, or by personal service if said lessee, lessees, his or their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, be resident within the limits of the said association.

Time allowed for work.

3. Any ordinance providing for the construction of, relaying, repairing and keeping in repair the sidewalks and curbing on any streets, roads or public places within the limits of the said association, shall provide for allowing the lessee or lessees, his or their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns as aforesaid of the lands in front of which said sidewalks and curbing may be so constructed, relaid or repaired, at least thirty days' time in which to perform the work required thereby, and that written notice of the required work be sent to such lessee or lessees, his or their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns as aforesaid, and be mailed, if their post-office address be known; if not known then by posting such notice on the premises affected thereby, or leaving the same with any occupant thereof, or by personal service if said lessee or lessees, his or their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns be resident within the limits of the said association.

4. In case the lessee or lessees, his or their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns as aforesaid shall fail to construct, repair or keep in repair such sidewalks and curbing according to the requirements of any such ordinance, and after notice given as aforesaid, the said board of trustees or other governing body of said association shall cause the work to be done and said sidewalks and curbing constructed, and the entire cost thereof, with interest, shall be, by resolution of the said board of trustees or other governing body of said association, assessed upon the interest and estate of said lessee or lessees, his or their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, in the lot or lots of land in front of which such sidewalks and curbing shall have been so constructed or repaired; said resolution shall set forth the name of the lessee or lessees, his or their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, a description of the lot leased, and the amount assessed thereon, and be entered at length on the minutes of said association, and within thirty days thereafter it shall be lawful for the said association to file in the clerk's office of the county wherein said association is situate a copy of said resolution certified by the secretary or clerk of said association, and thereupon such assessment shall become a paramount lien upon the estate in said lot or lease of the tenant possessing the same.

5. If the said assessment or assessments shall remain unpaid to the said association for thirty days after the filing of said resolution in the county clerk's office as aforesaid, it shall thereupon be lawful for the said association in its corporate name to cause the leasehold estate of the said lessee or lessees, his or their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, in said lot or lots in front of which said sidewalks and curbing shall have been constructed or repaired, to be advertised at public sale and sold to such person as will purchase the same for the shortest term and pay the said assessment with interest and costs; provided, however, that in making said sale the said association shall first cause notice of the same to be advertised in a newspaper published or circulating within the limits of said association, two successive weeks, once in each week prior to said sale, and shall cause copies of said notice to be set up in five public places within the limits of said association, for the same period.

purchaser.

6. Upon making said sale the said association is hereby authorized to execute and deliver to any purchaser of said estate a conveyance for the term purchased of all the former right, title and interest of the said lessee or lessees, his or their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, against whom said assessment was made, and thereupon said purchaser shall become entitled to the possession of said former estate in all respects as possessed and owned by the said person against whom said assessment was made for the term purchased, and said purchaser shall be entitled after said conveyance, both in law and equity, to the possession of said premises and estate, and to maintain an action of ejectment therefor.

sold for assessment.

7. Any lessee or lessees, his or their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, mortgagee or other person having an interest in said leasehold estate, may redeem said premises and leasehold interest from said sale and assessment at any time within six months after said sale upon payment of said assessment, interest and costs to said purchaser, who shall, upon such payment, within said six months, surrender possession of said premises to said lessee or lessees, or his or their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, thereby said lessee, lessees, his or their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, shall be entitled to receive from said purchaser at said sale, a reconveyance of all the right, title and interest of said purchaser acquired at and by virtue of said sale.

8. This act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 22, 1904.

CHAPTER 50.

An Act to amend an act entitled "An act for the relief of executors, administrators and assignees," approved March twenty-fourth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine.

BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

1. Section one of an act entitled "An act for the relief of executors, administrators and assignees," approved March twenty-fourth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, be and the same hereby is amended so that said section shall read as follows:

Section
amended.

1. Whenever any executor, administrator or assignee shall have stated, or shall hereafter state, his final account of the estate in his hands in the prerogative court or in any of the orphans' courts of this state, and there shall be remaining in his hands any balance, legacy, residuary share, dividend sum or sums of money to be paid to any legatee, distributee, creditor or other person or persons, and the said legatee, distributee, creditor or other person or persons, or any guardian of any such person in case he or she shall be an infant or under any disability, shall not appear and claim or have appeared and claimed the moneys so due to him, her or them respectively within three months from the time of the passing of the said final account by the said court in which the same was stated and allowed, the said executor, administrator or assignee may pay the said share, legacy or sum of money into the court in which said account was stated, taking therefor the receipt of the

there shall be assessed annually in such city the necessary taxes to pay into such sinking fund annually the necessary amount for that purpose and also to pay the annual interest on said bonds; and no provision of the charter of such city or of the general laws of this state applicable to such city limiting the amount of indebtedness of such city shall be operative to prevent the incurring of the indebtedness and issuance of the bonds provided for in this act.

Existing
taken away.

5. This act shall not in any way take away or repeal any existing rights or powers of any city either in making such extensions of water systems or providing for the payment of the cost thereof.

6. This act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 22, 1904.

CHAPTER 54.

An Act to authorize any city of this state to raise money, either by temporary loans or by the issue or issues of bonds for any sum not exceeding fifteen per centum of the taxable value of the real and personal property rated for assessment in such city, and to use the same for the purpose of retiring the floating or matured bonded indebtedness, for the enlargement and improvement of the public buildings, water works, sewerage system and for other lawful purposes of such city.

Amount to which bonds
may be issued.

1. Hereafter it shall be lawful for any city of this state, and it shall have power and authority to raise money, either by temporary loans or by the issue or issues of bonds, for any sum not exceeding fifteen per centum of the taxable value of the real and personal property rated for assessment in such city, and to issue proper evidence of indebtedness or bonds therefor in the name and under the corporate seal of such city, to be signed by the mayor and attested by the city clerk and countersigned by the city treasurer; which bonds shall have coupons attached for every half year's interest due, which coupons shall be signed by the said treasurer and numbered to correspond with the bonds to which they shall be respectively attached; and all bonds issued under this act shall be numbered and a register of such numbers, the date of issuing, to whom issued and the time of payment shall be made by the city clerk of such city in a book to be provided for such purpose; they shall be of such denomination and bear interest at such rate, not exceeding five per centum per annum, and be payable at such times and places, not exceeding thirty-five years from the date of issue, as the city council or other governing body shall determine; they shall be disposed of at not less than their par value; and the proceeds of such evidence of indebtedness or bonds shall be used to retire any floating or matured bonded indebtedness, for the enlargement and improvement of the public buildings, water works, sewerage system or for other lawful purposes of such city; provided, that the issue of said bonds shall be duly authorized by ordinance.

2. It shall be the duty of the city council or other governing body to provide by taxation in the annual tax levy of such city such sum as will be sufficient in every case to provide for the annual interest of the bonds so issued and a sinking fund for the redemption thereof, which shall not be less than two per centum of the amount so issued.

3. This act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 22, 1904.

CHAPTER 55.

An Act concerning the extension of sewers and sewer systems in cities of this state.

Extension
system.

1. It shall be lawful for any city in this state which desires to extend any existing system of sewerage, owned by the city, by laying additional mains or lateral connections, to make such extensions and raise the necessary money for that purpose in the manner and under the conditions hereinafter set forth; but this act shall not apply to any such extensions, or be in any way held to enlarge or modify the existing powers and rights of cities relative to such extensions unless the petition referred to in the next succeeding section be presented to the common council or other governing body of such city in manner as is in said next succeeding section set forth; nor shall this act in any way take away or repeal any existing rights or powers of any city either in making such extensions or providing for the payment of the cost thereof.

sewer.

2. Before any proceedings may be taken under the provisions of this act, a petition shall be presented to the common council or other governing body of such city, signed by at least three-fifths in value of the property owners on the street or streets, alley or alleys, along which said sewers are to be laid, said values to be ascertained from the last duplicate of assessment of such city, which petition shall request such city to lay said sewer or sewers along the street or streets, alley or alleys in said petition specified and request the construction of the same under and pursuant to the provisions of this act, and in said petition it shall set forth that said petitioners each bind themselves to pay to such city, of the cost of such construction, such assessment as shall be made by such city in accordance with the provisions of the charter or general laws governing assessments for sewer construction in such city.

3. Upon the petition referred to in the preceding section being filed in manner and substance as set forth in the section, the common council or other governing body of such city may, by ordinance, order constructed all or any part of the work contemplated by said petition, and in said ordinance may make all necessary provisions for the accomplishment thereof, including provisions for the letting of said work to the lowest responsible bidder or bidders, and the borrowing of the necessary funds for the accomplishment of said work and the securities to be issued therefor, and all other matters and things necessary and appropriate for the complete performance of said work petitioned for or such part thereof as such governing body may determine to order performed; but the provisions for the borrowing of the necessary money and for issuing the necessary securities therefor, and such other provisions as may be deemed proper or expedient may be omitted from said ordinance and provided for by subsequent ordinance of such city; but no such ordinance ordering the construction of such work shall be passed until notice is given by the clerk, recorder or secretary of such common council or other governing body to all property owners along the line of said proposed sewers who have not signed such petition, of the time and place when said ordinance will be placed on its final passage, and that said property owners may appear at said time and place and be heard as to any objections they may have to the passage of said ordinance; said notice shall be given by mailing the same to the last known post-office address of such property owners at least ten days prior to the date named therein for said hearing, and at said time and place all persons desiring to be heard shall be accorded the privilege before such governing body.

Provisions for money.

Notice to property owners.

4. Upon the completion of the work ordered under the provisions of this act, the costs thereof shall be assessed to the adjacent properties to the amount of the benefits conferred upon said properties respectively, in accordance with the provisions of the charter of such city and existing laws governing such city as to assessments; but not more than two-thirds of the costs shall Assessment of cost.

Proviso.

be assessed to adjacent properties; and such assessments shall be enforced and collected in the manner provided by the charter and existing laws governing such city as to such assessments; provided, however, that said assessments shall be made immediately upon the completion of such work and shall become payable in three months from the date of such assessments, and if not paid when payable, proceedings for their collection shall at once be taken.

May issue bonds.

5. To raise the necessary money to defray the cost of such work such city may borrow the same and issue its bonds therefor, said bonds to draw interest at not more than five per centum per annum, and said bonds shall not be sold at less than their par value or face value; one-third in amount of said bonds shall be made payable at not less than twenty or more than thirty years from their date and shall be known as long term sewer bonds, and two-thirds in amount of said bonds shall be payable at not more than two years from their date and shall be known as short term sewer bonds; and all moneys received from the assessments on the adjacent properties shall be paid into a fund and preserved intact to discharge said short term sewer bonds at their maturity; in the event of said fund being insufficient to fully discharge said short term sewer bonds at their maturity, such deficiency, as there may be, shall be supplied from the general treasury of such city, and such city may, if deemed advisable, borrow such deficiency and pledge said unpaid assessments as security for the loan, or such city may issue such new bonds of like term and rate of interest as may be deemed advisable to secure all or a portion of the amount necessary to meet such deficiency, and at their maturity any such new bonds, so issued, shall be paid from the general treasury of the city.

Sinking fund to meet long term bonds.

6. A sinking fund shall be created sufficient to meet such long term sewer bonds at their maturity, and there shall be assessed annually in such city the necessary taxes to pay into said sinking fund annually, the necessary amount, and also to pay the annual interest on said long and short term sewer bonds; the aggregate amount of long term sewer bonds outstanding, issued under the provisions of this act shall not at any time exceed three

CHAPTER 61.

An Act to improve the condition of tenement-houses in this state and to establish a state board of tenement-house supervision.

BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

ARTICLE I.

Section 1.

Definitions.

1. Certain words used in this act are defined, for the purposes thereof, as follows:

Tenement-house.

2. A tenement-house is any house or building or portion thereof which is rented, leased, let or hired out to be occupied or is occupied as the home or residence of three families or more, living independently of each other and doing their cooking upon the premises, or by more than two families upon any floor so living and cooking, but having a common right in the halls, stairways, yards, water-closets or privies or some of them.

3. A yard is an open, unoccupied space on the same lot with a tenement-house, between the extreme rear line of the house and the rear line of the lot.

Yard.

4. A court is an open, unoccupied space other than a yard, on the same lot with a tenement-house; a court not extending to the street or yard is an inner court; a court extending to the street or yard is an outer court; if it extends to the street it is a street court; if it extends to the yard it is a yard court.

Court.

5. A shaft includes exterior and interior shafts, whether for air, light, elevator, dumb-waiter or any other purpose; a vent shaft is one used solely to ventilate or light a water-closet compartment or bath-room.

Shaft; vent shaft.

6. A public hall is a hall, corridor or passageway not within an apartment.

Public hall.

7. A stair hall includes the stairs, stair landings and those portions of the public halls through which it is necessary to pass in going between the entrance floor and the roof.

Stair hall.

8. An entrance hall shall be taken to mean that portion of the public hall, from the entrance leading to and including the stair enclosure.

Entrance hall.

9. A basement is a story partly, but not more than one-half below the level of the grade and for the purposes of this act shall be counted as a story, if more than five feet above the grade, unless otherwise specifically stated.

Basement.

10. A cellar is a story more than one-half below the level of the curb and for the purposes of this act shall not be counted as a story, unless otherwise specifically stated.

Cellar.

11. A fireproof tenement-house is one of the walls of which are constructed of brick, stone, iron or hard, incombustible material, and in which there are no wood beams or lintels, and in which the floors, roofs, stair halls and public halls are built entirely of brick, stone,

Fireproof tenement-house.

iron or other hard, incombustible material and in which no wood work or other inflammable material is used in any of the partitions, furrings or ceilings; but this definition shall not be construed as prohibiting elsewhere than in the stair halls or entrance halls the use of wooden flooring on top of the fireproof floors, or the use of wooden sleepers, nor as prohibiting wooden handrails and treads, if made of hard wood not less than two inches thick.

Fireproof door.

12. A fireproof door shall be a doorway in which both the frame and the door are constructed of approved fireproof material, or they may be constructed of pine or other soft wood, of two thicknesses of matched boards at right angles with each other and securely covered with metal on both sides and edges, with folded, lapped joints, the nails for fastening the same being driven inside the lap; the hinges, or bolts or latches, shall be secured or fastened to the door and frame after the same has been covered with metal; and if any glass is used in any such door it shall be of good quality wire glass.

Fireproof bulkhead.

13. A fireproof bulkhead shall be taken to mean a bulkhead constructed of approved fireproof materials or constructed of wood, covered with metal, in a manner similar to the construction of a fireproof door.

Height of building.

14. The height of a tenement-house is the perpendicular distance measured in a straight line from the curb level to the highest point of the roof beams, the measurements in all cases to be taken through the center of the facade of the house; where a building is on a corner lot and there is more than one grade or level, the measurements shall be taken through the center of the facade on the street having the greatest grade.

"Shall."

15. The word "shall" is always mandatory and not directory, and denotes that the house shall be maintained in all respects according to the mandate, as long as it continues to be a tenement-house.

"Board."

16. The word "board" shall be construed as if followed by the words "charged with the enforcement of this act."

"Curb."

17. The word "curb" for the measurements of heights shall be taken to mean the level of the established curb-line, where the same exists, taken at the center of the street frontage; where the walls of a building do not adjoin the street or building line, then the average level of the ground on which the building stands may be taken as the curb, at the direction of the board.

18. The word "approved" shall be construed as if followed by the words "by the board charged with the enforcement of this act." "Approved."

19. The words "local ordinance" and "fire limits" shall be construed as if followed by the words "of the municipality in which the tenement-house is situated." "Local ordinance," "fire limits."

20. A frame building shall be taken to mean a building of which the exterior walls, or a portion thereof, shall be constructed of wood; buildings sheathed with boards and partially or entirely covered with four inches or less of masonry or with metal sheets, shall be deemed frame buildings. Frame building.

21. The term "house sewer" is applied to that part of the main drain or sewer extending from a point two feet outside of the outer wall of the building, vault or area, to its connection with the main sewer or cesspool. "House sewer."

22. The term "house drain" is applied to that part of the main horizontal drain and its branches inside the walls of the building, vault or area, and extending to and connecting with the house sewer. "House drain."

23. The term "soil-pipe" is applied to any vertical line of pipe extending through the roof, receiving the discharge or one or more water-closets, with or without other fixtures. "Soil-pipe."

24. The term "waste-pipe" is applied to any pipe extending through the roof, receiving the discharge from any fixtures except water-closets. "Waste-pipe."

25. The term "vent-pipe" is applied to any special pipe provided to ventilate the system of piping, to prevent back pressure and to stop siphonage. "Vent-pipe."

Section 2.

26. A building not erected for use as a tenement-house, if hereafter converted or altered to such use, shall Converted buildings as tenements.

Alterations
in height.

27. No existing tenement-house shall be altered so as to increase the number of stories without being made to conform to all the requirements for buildings hereafter erected for that height or number of stories.

Alterations
as to rooms.

28. No existing tenement-house shall be altered so as to increase the number of rooms, nor its hallways changed unless such new rooms or hallways shall be made to conform with the requirements of this act for buildings hereafter constructed.

No decrease in light and air.

29. No alteration or addition shall be made to any tenement-house so as to decrease the light and ventilation of any other part of said tenement-house.

Relative size of lot.

30. No tenement-house shall hereafter be enlarged or its lot be diminished so that a greater percentage of the lot shall be occupied by buildings or structures than is required for tenement-houses hereafter erected.

Minimum
depth preserved.

31. No tenement-house shall hereafter be enlarged or its lot be diminished so that its lot shall be less in depth than the minimum depth required for tenement-houses hereafter erected.

When unlawful structure.

32. If any tenement-house or any part thereof is occupied by more families than provided in this act, or is erected, altered, maintained or occupied contrary to this act, such tenement-house shall be deemed an unlawful structure and the board may cause such building to be vacated; and such building shall not be again occupied until it or its occupation, as the case may be, shall have been made to conform to this act.

Law applicable to tenements
under way.

33. A tenement-house not now completed, but the excavation for which shall have been commenced in good faith on or before the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and four, and after approval of all the plans therefor by the local authorities having such jurisdiction, and the first tier of beams of which shall have been set on or before the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and four, shall be subject only to the provisions of this act affecting now existing tenement-houses.

ARTICLE II.

Section I.

34. Every non-fireproof tenement-house hereafter erected, more than three stories high, unless provided with outside fireproof stairways directly accessible to each apartment, shall have fire-escapes located and constructed as hereafter described.

Fire-escapes.

35. Every now existing non-fireproof tenement-house, more than three stories high, unless provided with outside fireproof stairways directly accessible to each apartment, shall have fire-escapes located and constructed as hereafter described; but a fire-escape now erected upon such house shall be deemed sufficient, except as provided in the next two succeeding paragraphs of this act.

Location of fire-escapes.

36. In every now existing non-fireproof tenement-house more than three stories in height, there shall be a separate fire-escape directly accessible to each apartment, exclusive of fire-escapes in air-shafts and courts; and a party wall fire-escape balcony on the rear of the building connecting with the window of an adjoining building shall be deemed a sufficient fire-escape only when the two buildings are completely separated by an unpierced fire wall throughout their entire height and length; and all wooden floor slats and floors of fire-escape balconies shall be replaced by proper iron slats or floors; and no wooden balcony or wooden outside stairs shall be deemed part of a lawful fire-escape.

Separate fire-escapes.

37. Whenever a now existing non-fireproof tenement-house is not provided with sufficient means of escape in case of fire, the board may order such additional fire-escapes or other means of egress as, in its judgment, may be necessary.

Additional fire-escapes may be ordered.

38. All fire-escapes hereafter erected on any tenement-house shall open directly from at least one room in each apartment at each story above the ground floor, other than a bath-room or water-closet compartment, and shall not include the window of a stair hall, and no fire-escape shall be placed in a court except as provided in paragraph ninety-five of this act; fire-escapes may project into the public highway to a distance not greater than four feet beyond the building line; no person shall at any time place any incumbrance of any kind before, or upon, such fire-escape, under a penalty of a fine of ten dollars or the confiscation of articles so placed.

Kept clear.

Notice on fire-escape
balconies.

39. All fire-escape balconies now existing or hereafter erected on any tenement-house shall have a plate firmly fastened to the standard or filling-in bars, near the top railing in front of and facing at least one window in each apartment, such plate to contain in plain, large prominent, raised letters, each letter to be not less than one-half inch in height, the following words: "anyone placing any incumbrance on this balcony or stairway will be fined ten dollars or the objects forming such incumbrance will be confiscated;" the lettering on such plate shall be painted a contrasting color.

painted.

40. All fire-escapes hereafter erected on any tenement-house shall have one coat of approved paint before leaving the shop, and at least one coat after erection, and all such fire-escapes now existing or hereafter erected shall be kept well painted and in good condition by the owner.

Description of fire-escapes.

41. Fire-escapes hereafter placed on tenement-houses shall consist of outside open iron balconies and stairways; the balcony on the top floor, except in case of a front fire-escape, shall be provided with a goose-neck ladder leading from said balcony to and extending not less than thirty inches (30") above the roof; such goose-neck ladder shall be securely fastened to the wall of the building and to the roof, and there shall be a space of not less than eighteen inches (18") between the outside line of such ladder and the outer rail of the top fire-escape balcony; such ladder shall be constructed as provided for drop ladders in paragraph forty-eight (48) of this act; the strings shall be in one (1) piece and shall not be connected in parts by rivets or bolts; such ladders shall be arranged to rest at the bottom on brackets, and not on the slats forming the floor of the balcony.

42. The fire-escape balconies hereafter placed on all tenement-houses shall not be less than three feet (3' 0") in width, taking in at least one (1) window of each apartment at each story above the ground floor; they shall be below, and not more than one foot (1' 0'') below, the window-sills and extend in front of and not less than nine inches (9'') beyond each window; there shall be a landing not less than twenty-four inches (24'') square at the head and foot of each stairway; in every case there shall be a passageway between the string of the stairway and the wall of the building or the outer rail of the balcony, as the case may be, such passageway not to be less than fourteen inches (14'') wide in every part; the stairway opening on such platform shall not be less than twenty-one inches (21'') wide and forty-two inches (42'') long, and such opening shall have no covers of any kind.

43. The floors of all fire-escape balconies on all tenement-houses shall be of wrought-iron or steel slats, not less than one and one-half inches by three-eighths of an inch ($1\frac{1}{2}'' \times \frac{3}{8}''$), placed not more than one and one-quarter inches ($1\frac{1}{4}''$) apart and well secured and riveted to iron battens, one and one-half inches by three-eighths of an inch ($1\frac{1}{2}'' \times \frac{3}{8}''$), not over two feet (2' 0'') apart; the ends of such floor slats shall rest upon the platform frame, but shall not be riveted or bolted to same; the battens shall also rest upon and be riveted or bolted to frame of balcony; said frame to consist of angle-iron not less than two and one-half inches by two and one-half inches by three-sixteenths of an inch ($2\frac{1}{2}'' \times 2\frac{1}{2}'' \times \frac{3}{16}''$) thick and to extend around the four (4) sides of the balcony floor; to rest upon brackets and be secured to same by rivets or bolts and be riveted at corners; the platforms of balconies shall be constructed and erected to safely sustain in all their parts a safe load of not less than eighty pounds (80 lbs.) per square foot, utilizing a ratio of four (4) to one (1) between the safe working load and the ultimate strength of all parts.

Floors.

44. The outside top rail of all fire-escape balconies hereafter placed on all tenement-houses shall entirely enclose the platform and in all cases shall go through the wall at each end and be properly secured by nuts and washers, at least four inches (4'') square and threeeighths of an inch ($\frac{3}{8}$ ") thick, or if set while the walls are being built they may go through the walls and be turned down three inches (3"); and no top rail shall be connected at angles by cast-iron; the top rail of balconies shall be one and three-quarter inches by one-half inch ($1\frac{3}{4}$ " x $\frac{1}{2}$ ") of wrought-iron or one and one-half inch ($1\frac{1}{2}$ ") angle-iron, at least three-sixteenths of an inch ($\frac{3}{16}$ ") thick; the bottom rails shall in no case be more than eight inches (8") above floor of balcony and shall be of one and one-half inches by three-eighths of an inch ($1\frac{1}{2}$ " x $\frac{3}{8}$ ") wrought-iron, or of one and one-half inch ($1\frac{1}{2}$ ") angle-iron at least three-sixteenths of an inch ($\frac{3}{16}$ ") thick, and instead of going through may be well leaded or cemented into the wall; the ends of all rails not turned down shall be worked out to not less than three-quarter inch ($\frac{3}{4}$ ") bolt size for top rails or one-half inch ($\frac{1}{2}$ ") bolt size for bottom rails, if the same go through the wall; the standard or filling-in bars shall not be less than one-half inch ($\frac{1}{2}$ ") round or square wrought-iron, well riveted to the top and bottom rails and front of platform frame where immediately adjacent to brackets and shall be so spaced as to form a secure and safe railing; the height of railings shall in no case be less than two feet and nine inches (2' 9").

Stairways.

45. The stairways of fire-escape balconies hereafter erected on tenement-houses shall be constructed and erected to fully sustain in all their parts a safe load of not less than one hundred pounds (100 lbs.) per step, utilizing a ratio of four (4) to (1) between the safe working load and the ultimate strength of all parts, with the exception of the tread, which must safely sustain at any point at said ratio a concentrated load of two hundred pounds (200 lbs.); the treads shall be not less than seven inches (7") wide and the rise of each step not more than nine inches (9"); the treads shall be flat open treads of cast-iron not less than five-eighths of an inch ($\frac{5}{8}$ ") thick, or of flat bars not over one and one-quarter inches ($1\frac{1}{4}$ ") wide or less than three-eighths of an inch ($\frac{3}{8}$ ") thick, with spaces between not more than one inch (1") or less than one-half of an inch ($\frac{1}{2}$ "); such bars to be riveted to angle-irons of not less than one and one-half inches ($1\frac{1}{2}$ ") in size, secured to strings, with double rivets or bolts; the stairs shall be not less than twenty inches (20 ") wide between inside of strings; the strings shall be not less than three-inch (3 ") channels of iron or steel, or other shape equally strong, and shall, at both top and bottom, rest upon and be fastened to a bracket, which shall be fastened through the wall as hereinafter provided; the stairs shall have a hand rail of not less than three-quarter inch ($\frac{3}{4}$ ") round wrought-iron rod or pipe, on each side not less than thirty inches (30 ") or more than forty-two inches (42 ") above steps at any point, and same shall be secured and well braced.

46. The brackets of all fire-escape balconies on tenement-houses shall be placed not more than four feet ($4' 0$ ") apart and be not less than three-quarters of an inch by one and one-half inches ($\frac{3}{4}$ " x $1\frac{1}{2}$ ") wrought-iron placed edgewise, or one and three-quarter inch ($1\frac{3}{4}$ ") angle-iron, one-quarter inch ($\frac{1}{4}$ ") thick, to extend across full width of balcony and be well braced at a point not less than two-thirds ($2\text{-}3$) of the distance from wall to end of bracket, by means of not less than three-quarters of an inch ($\frac{3}{4}$ ") square wrought-iron or one and three-quarters inch ($1\frac{3}{4}$ ") angle-iron; the ends of brackets and braces shall go through the wall and be turned down three inches (3 "), or be properly secured by nuts and washers four inches (4 ") square and at least three-eighths of an inch ($\frac{3}{8}$ ") thick; on new buildings the brackets shall be set as the walls are being built; when brackets are put on tenement-houses already erected, the part going through the wall shall not be less than one inch (1 ") in diameter, with screw nuts and washers not less than five inches (5 ") square and one-half inch ($\frac{1}{2}$ ") thick.

and braces.

47. A proper drop ladder to reach to a safe landing place below shall be required from the lower balcony of any fire-escape on any tenement-house; and when the floor of such balcony is more than sixteen feet ($16' 0$ ") above the sidewalk or ground, a suitable landing platform shall be provided; such platform shall be located not more than ten feet ($10' 0$ ") above the ground and shall be connected with the balcony above by means of a stairway constructed as this act requires for stairways between balconies; such platform shall not be less than three feet (3' 0'') in width and four feet (4' 0'') long and provided with proper railings; the drop ladder to ground shall be not less than fifteen inches (15'') in width, with strings not less than one-half inch by two-inch ($\frac{1}{2}$ " x 2'') iron, and rungs not less than five-eighths of an inch ($\frac{5}{8}$ ") in diameter, placed not more than twelve inches (12'') apart and securely riveted through the strings; strings to be made of one (1) piece and not connected in parts by rivets or bolts; the upper end of each string to be formed into a hook by which the ladder may be secured to the frame of the balcony when in use.

Specifications
escapes on modern tenements.

48. All fire-escapes hereafter constructed on wooden tenement-houses shall conform in all particulars to the provisions of this act, except as hereinafter mentioned; the rise of the steps of the stairways shall be not more than eleven inches (11''); the strings shall be not less than three-inch (3'') channel bars or other shape equally strong, properly constructed, as described in paragraph forty-six (46) of this act; the brackets and top rails shall be secured by bolts through the wall; in no case shall said bolts pass through the studs of said wall, but shall be properly fastened with washers and screw-nuts, through a wrought-iron or steel plate, such plate to be not less than three inches wide by one-quarter inch ($3'' \times \frac{1}{4}''$) in thickness, and to pass across and to bear upon the entire inner faces of at least two (2) studs; the said plate shall be backed and reinforced by solid blocking as thick as the studding, firmly secured to the studs across which the plate passes; the bottom rail shall be secured in a similar manner, or by means of lag screws not less than five-eighths of an inch ($\frac{5}{8}$ '') in diameter and four inches (4'') long, properly screwed into bored holes in the studs or blocking secured between same, said holes to be not more than seven-sixteenths of an inch ($\frac{7}{16}$ '') in diameter and the centre of such holes not to be within one and one-quarter inches ($1\frac{1}{4}$ '') of the sides of the studs or blocking.

49. Every tenement-house hereafter erected over three stories in height, shall have in the roof a fireproof bulkhead with a fireproof door to the same, and the stairs leading to it shall be the same as required or installed throughout the building and such stairs shall be kept free from incumbrance at all times and so placed as to be readily accessible to all tenants at all times.

bulkhead.

50. Every tenement-house now existing or hereafter erected not over three stories in height may have, in lieu of such bulkhead, a fireproof scuttle and the stairs leading to the same shall be the same as required or installed throughout the building; but in now existing tenement-houses, where such stairs are not practicable, a fixed iron ladder may be used in lieu thereof.

When scuttle may be used.

51. No bulkhead or scuttle in any tenement-house shall at any time be locked with a key, but it may be kept fastened on the inside by movable bolts or hooks; and said door or scuttle shall not be obstructed in any way and shall be so constructed, hung or balanced as to be easily opened, and of such size as to provide an easy exit for a grown person.

Bulkhead
or scuttle
opened.

52. Every tenement-house hereafter erected three or more stories in height, shall have at least one flight of stairs extending from the entrance floor to the roof, and the stairs and public halls therein shall each be at least three feet wide in the clear, and every entrance hall shall be at least three feet six inches wide in the clear; but if such entrance hall is the only entrance to more than one flight of stairs, that portion of said hall between the entrance and the first flight of stairs shall be increased one-half in width in every part for each such additional flight of stairs.

roof.

53. Every non-fireproof tenement-house hereafter erected containing over twenty-six apartments or suites of rooms above the entrance story, shall have an additional flight of stairs for every additional twenty-six apartments or fraction thereof; if said house contains not more than thirty-six apartments above the entrance story in lieu of an additional stairway, the stairs, stair halls and entrance halls throughout the entire building may each be at least one-half wider than is specified in paragraph fifty-two of this act.

When additional stairway.

Additional stairways and entrances.

54. Every fireproof tenement-house hereafter erected containing over thirty-six apartments or suites of rooms above the entrance story, shall also have an additional flight of stairs for every additional thirty-six apartments or fraction thereof; but if said house contains not more than forty-eight apartments above the entrance story, in lieu of an additional stairway, the stairs, stair halls and entrance halls throughout the entire building may each be at least one-half wider than is specified in paragraph fifty-two of this act; and if said house contains not more than eighty-four apartments above the entrance story, in lieu of three stairways there may be but two stairways; provided, that one of such stairways and the stair halls and the entrance halls connected therewith are at least one-half wider than is specified in paragraph fifty-two of this act.

Proviso.

Street and court entrances.

55. Each flight of stairs mentioned in the last three paragraphs shall have an entrance on the entrance floor from the street or street court, or from an inner court which connects directly with the street; all stairs shall be constructed with a rise of not more than seven and one-half inches and with treads not less than ten inches wide and not less than three feet long in the clear; where winders are used all treads at a point eighteen inches from the strings on the well side shall be at least ten inches wide.

Risers and treads.

Stairs from
cellar.

56. In non-fireproof tenement-houses hereafter erected exceeding two stories in height, there shall be no inside stairs communicating between the lowest cellar or other lowest story and the floor next above, but such stairs shall be located outside the building and if enclosed shall be constructed entirely fireproof and be enclosed in a fireproof enclosure with fireproof self-closing doors at all openings; this provision, however, shall not apply to the stairs leading from the entrance story to the upper stories in tenement-houses hereafter erected, where there is no cellar or other lowest story below the said entrance story.

in fireproof
tenements.

57. In every fireproof tenement-house hereafter erected the stairs communicating between the lowest cellar or other lowest story and the next floor above, if not located underneath the stairs leading to the upper stories may be placed inside of the said building; provided, that the portion of the cellar or other lowest story into which said stairs lead is entirely shut off by fireproof walls from those portions thereof which are used for the storage of fuels, or in which heating appliances, boilers or machinery are located; all openings in such walls shall be provided with self-closing fireproof doors.

Proviso.

58. All stairs in tenement-houses shall be provided and maintained with proper banisters and railings and kept in good order.

Stairs kept in order.

59. In non-fireproof tenement-houses hereafter erected no closet of any kind shall be constructed under any staircase leading from the first story, exclusive of the cellar, to the upper stories, but such space shall be left entirely open and kept clear and free from incumbrances.

No closet under first-story stairs.

60. Every tenement-house hereafter erected six stories or more in height shall be made fireproof throughout.

Six-story tenements fireproof.

61. Every non-fireproof tenement-house hereafter erected may have stud partitions above the cellar or basement; provided, said stud partitions enclosing public halls on the first floor and all stair halls throughout the building shall be lathed on both sides with metal lath or approved plaster board and plastered with two coats of brown mortar of good material, and the ceiling of the cellar or other lowest story lathed and plastered in a similar manner; and when any part of the entrance floor, cellar or basement is used as a store or workshop or for the storage of combustible materials other than the fuel supply of the house, then the entire ceiling of the floor so used shall be lathed and plastered in the same manner; and the stairs shall be constructed of iron or stone, or some other approved fireproof material, or may be constructed of wood, provided that the carriages are not less than three (3) inches thick and the treads not less than one and one-quarter inches in thickness and the soffits throughout are covered with metal laths or approved plaster board and plastered with two coats of brown mortar of approved material.

Stud partitions.

Proviso.

In case combustibles are stored.

62. In every tenement-house hereafter erected there shall be an entrance to the cellar or other lowest story from the outside of said building; and direct access shall also be had from the street to the yard.

External access to cellar.

When wooden furring is used.

63. In tenement-houses hereafter erected, in all walls where wooden furring is used, all the courses of brick, from the underside of the floor beams to the top of the same, shall project a distance of at least two inches beyond the inside face of the wall so as to provide an effective fire stop; and wherever floor beams run parallel to a wall and wooden furring is used, such beams shall always be kept at least two and one-half inches away from the inside line of the wall, and the space between the beams and the wall shall be built up solidly with brick work from the under side of the floor beams to the top of the same so as to provide an effective fire stop.

studdings.

64. In all non-fireproof tenement-houses hereafter erected fore and aft stud partitions which rest directly over each other, shall run through the wooden floor beams and rest upon the plate of the partition below and shall have the space between the studding filled in solid to the full depth of the floor beams and to a point eight inches above said beams with approved incombustible materials; in all fireproof tenement houses hereafter erected all partitions shall rest directly upon the fireproof floor construction and extend to the fireproof beam filling above.

within and without fire limits.

65. Within the fire limits no wooden tenement-houses shall hereafter be erected and no wooden buildings so situated and not now used as a tenement-house shall hereafter be altered or converted to such use; but outside of the fire limits frame tenement-houses not exceeding three stories in height nor more than forty feet in height, may be erected of wood; but if three stories in height they shall not provide accommodations for, or be occupied by, more than six families in all or more than two families on any floor; and if built within three feet (3' 0'') of any division or party line, the side walls shall have the spaces between the studding filled in solid with brick laid in cement mortar, or other approved fireproof material, and in no case shall any such side wall if built partially or entirely of frame be used as a party wall.

building on tenementhouse lot.

66. No wooden building of any kind whatsoever, except such as are used for water-closet compartments, shall hereafter be placed or built upon the same lot with a tenement-house, within the fire limits.

67. No wooden party fence shall be used as a part of the enclosure of an outbuilding of any kind upon the same lot with a tenement-house.

Nor wooden party fence.

68. No tenement-house, nor any part thereof, nor of the lot upon which it is situated, shall be used as a place of storage, keeping or handling of any combustible article, except where permitted by local ordinance and then only in the manner thereby prescribed.

No storage of combustibles.

69. No tenement-house or any part thereof, nor of the lot upon which it is situated, shall be used as a place for the keeping or handling of any article dangerous or detrimental to life or health, nor for the storage, keeping or handling of feed, hay, straw, excelsior, cotton, paper stock, feathers or rags.

Storage of dangerous articles or hay, etc., forbidden.

70. When the floor forming the ceiling of the cellar or other lowest floor is not constructed fireproof, then the ceiling of the cellar or other lowest floor of all tenement-houses hereafter erected and of all now existing tenement-houses over three stories high shall be lathed and plastered two coats of brown mortar of good materials, and where any tenement-house now existing or hereafter erected is over three stories in height the plastering shall be on metal lath or approved plaster board.

As to ceilings.

71. No bakery or place of business in which fat is boiled shall be maintained in any tenement-house which is not fireproof throughout, unless the ceilings and side walls of such bakery or of the said place where fat boiling is done are made safe by fireproof materials around the same; and there shall be no openings either by door or by window, dumbwaiter, shafts or otherwise between said bakery or said place where fat is boiled in any tenement-house and any other part of the said building.

Bakeries.

72. All doors, transoms and windows opening into public halls from any portion of a tenement-house where paint, oil, spirituous liquors or drugs are stored for the purposes of sale or otherwise, shall be removed and closed up as solidly as the rest of the wall.

When doors, windows, etc., walled up.

Shafts.

73. All shafts hereafter constructed in tenement-houses shall be constructed fireproof throughout, with fireproof self-closing doors at all openings, at each story, except window openings in vent shafts; and if they extend to the cellar shall also be enclosed in the cellar with fireproof walls and fireproof self-closing doors at all openings; in no case shall any shaft be constructed of materials in which any inflammable material or substance enters into any of the component parts; but nothing in this paragraph contained shall be so construed as to require such enclosures about elevators or dumbwaiters in the well hole of stairs, where the stairs themselves are enclosed in brick or stone walls and are entirely constructed of fireproof materials.

Wainscoting.

74. When wainscoting is hereafter placed in any tenement-house or any building in process of alteration into a tenement-house, the surface of the wall or partition behind such wainscoting shall be plastered down to the floor line, and any intervening space between said plastering and said wainscot shall be filled in solid with incombustible material.

Timber in party walls separate.

75. All wood beams and other timbers in the party walls of any tenement-house hereafter erected shall be separated from the beams or timbers entering from the opposite side of the wall by at least four inches.

Beams about flues and chimneys.

76. In all tenement-houses hereafter erected all wood beams shall be framed away from all flues and chimneys, whether the same be for smoke, air or any other purpose; the trimmer beams shall not be less than eight inches from the inside face of a flue and four inches from the outside of a chimney breast and the header beams not less than two inches from the outside face of the brick or stone work of the same; except that for smoke flues of boilers and furnaces, where the brick work is required to be eight inches in thickness, the trimmer beam shall not be less than twelve inches from the inside of the flue.

Kitchen hearth.

77. In all tenement-houses hereafter erected every kitchen in every apartment shall have a hearth not less than four feet by three feet in size, and, where possible, said hearth shall be supported by a brick trimmer arch and may be finished in cement, concrete or stone, but where such construction is not possible, then the hearth may be constructed in the following manner: beams shall be framed around the location for such hearth and shall have cleats not less than four inches in depth, well spiked to them and the space floored over with not less than one and one-half inch matched plank; two inches above such planking, one-half inch iron rods shall be placed not over eight inches on centers and shall be carried across the opening and through the enclosing beams and securely fastened with nuts and washers; the space thus left shall be filled with not less than four inches of concrete and surfaced one inch thick.

78. In all tenement-houses now existing or hereafter erected no kitchen range shall be placed against a furred wall or stud partition; or if placed within ten inches of said wall or partition, then the wall or partition must be protected by the owner with metal, from the floor to a point one foot above the top of said range and said kitchen range shall rest entirely upon the hearth, or upon metal legs if there is no hearth, and shall be provided with a metal shield extending under and at least twelve inches in front of the ashpan.

kitchen range.

79. All stoves for heating purposes in tenement-houses shall be properly supported on iron legs, resting on the floor at least two feet from any lath and plaster or wood work other than said floor; a metal shield shall be placed under and twelve inches in front of the ashpan of all such stoves that are placed on wooden floors.

Stoves.

80. In every tenement-house there shall be adequate chimneys running to every floor with an open fireplace or grate, or place for stoves, properly connected with one of said chimneys for every apartment, but no chimney shall be started or built upon any floor or beam of wood and in no case shall a chimney be corbeiled out more than eight inches from the wall; and in all cases corbeiling shall consist of at least five courses of brick; but no corbeiling more than four inches shall be allowed in eight-inch brick walls; all chimneys shall be carried not less than four feet above the roof.

Chimneys.

Corbeiling.

81. In all tenement-houses hereafter erected all smoke-flues shall be lined on the inside with well burned clay or terra-cotta pipe, made smooth on the inside, carried from the bottom of the flue or from the throat of the fireplace, if the flue starts from the latter, and carried up continuously to the full height of the flue; the ends of all such lining pipes shall be made to fit close together and the pipes shall be built in as the flue or flues are carried up; each smoke-flue shall be enclosed on all sides with not less than four inches of brick work and shall have an area of not less than thirty-six square inches.

Flues liable to high temperature.

82. In all tenement-houses hereafter erected all flues which, for any reason, are liable to be heated to high temperatures or to become dangerous in any way, shall be surrounded on all exposed sides by not less than eight inches of brick work and such other precautions as the board may determine.

Flues passing through lath and plaster protected.

83. In every tenement-house now existing or hereafter erected where smoke-pipes pass through a lath and plaster or other partition, they shall be guarded by galvanized iron ventilated thimbles at least twelve inches larger in diameter than the pipe; no smoke-pipe will be permitted to pass through any roof.

Firebacks.

84. In all tenement-houses hereafter erected the firebacks of all fireplaces shall be of solid masonry not less than eight inches in thickness.

Party walls to extend above roof.

85. In all tenement-houses hereafter erected all division or party line walls over fifteen feet high, shall be carried up to form parapet walls not less than eight inches in thickness and to a point not less than two feet above the roof; all such walls shall be coped with stone, terra-cotta or cast-iron.

Doors open outward.

86. In all tenement-houses hereafter erected all doors placed across public halls, except entrance doors, shall be hung so as to open outward.

Stud partitions plastered.

87. All stud partitions hereafter constructed in any tenement-house shall be plastered from the floor to the ceiling.

ARTICLE III.

Section I.

Portion of lot occupied.

88. No tenement-house hereafter erected shall occupy more than ninety per centum of a corner lot, or more than seventy per centum of any other lot; provided, Proviso.

that the space occupied by fire-escapes of the size here-inbefore prescribed shall not be deemed a part of the lot occupied.

89. For the purposes of the immediately preceding Measurement, where taken.
paragraph, the measurements shall be taken at the ground level, except that where such a building has no basement and the cellar ceiling is not more than three feet above the curb level, the measurements as to the percentage of a lot occupied may be taken at the level of the second tier of beams.

90. The height of a tenement-house hereafter erected Height.
shall not by more than one-half exceed the width of the widest street on which it stands; such height shall be the perpendicular distance measured in a straight line from the curb level to the highest point of the roof beams; provided, that where there are bulkheads ex- Proviso.
ceeding ten feet in height or exceeding in area ten per centum of the area of the roof, the measurements shall be taken to the top of the bulkhead; but this shall not apply to elevator enclosures not exceeding fifteen feet in height; the measurements in all cases shall be taken through the center of the facade of the house.

91. Behind every tenement-house hereafter erected Rear yard.
there shall be a yard extending across the entire width of the lot, and except upon a corner lot, at every point open from the ground to the sky unobstructed, except that fire-escapes or unenclosed outside stairs may project not over five feet from the rear line of the house;
the depth of the said yard measured from the extreme rear wall of the house to the rear line of the lot, shall be as set forth in the two following paragraphs of this act.

92. Except upon a corner lot, the depth of the yard Size of yard.
behind every tenement-house hereafter erected fifty feet in height shall be not less than sixteen feet in every part; said yard shall be increased in depth one foot for every additional twelve feet of height of the building or fraction thereof above fifty feet; and may be decreased in depth one foot for every twelve feet of height of the building, less than fifty feet; but it shall never be less than fourteen feet in depth in any part.

Minimum
depth.

Proviso.

93. The depth of the yard behind every tenement-house hereafter erected upon a corner lot, shall not be less than ten feet in every part; provided, that where such lot is less than one hundred feet in depth, the depth of the yard may be not less than ten per centum of the depth of such lot, but shall never be less than five feet in every part; where a tenement-house hereafter erected upon a corner lot has no basement and the cellar ceiling is not more than three feet above the curb level, said yard may start at the level of the second tier of beams; where a corner lot is more than fifty feet in width, the yard for that portion in excess of fifty feet, shall conform to the provisions of this act relating to interior lots.

for tenements on lots extending from street to street.

94. Wherever a tenement-house hereafter erected is upon a lot which runs through from one street to another street, and said lot is not less than seventy feet nor more than one hundred feet in depth, there shall be a yard space through the center of the lot midway between the two streets, which shall extend across the full width of the lot and shall not be less than sixteen feet in depth from wall to wall; but where such building has no basement and the cellar ceiling is not more than three feet above the curb level such yard space may start at the level of the second tier of beams; where such lot is over one hundred feet in depth such yard space shall conform to the provisions of paragraph one hundred and five of this act, for inner courts, and shall be left through the center of the lot midway between the two streets, and shall extend across the entire width of the lot; where a single tenement-house hereafter erected is situated on a lot formed by the intersection of two streets at an acute angle, the yard of said house need not extend across the entire width of the lot; provided, that it extends to a point in line with the middle line of the lot.

Proviso.

Courts unobstructed.

Proviso.

95. No court of a tenement-house hereafter erected shall be covered by a roof or skylight, but every such court shall be, at every point open to the sky, unobstructed; provided, that an apartment not containing any room fronting upon the street or yard shall have a fire-escape in a court, projecting not more than four feet from the house; such fire-escape shall directly connect at the bottom of such court, with a fireproof passageway, not less than three feet wide and seven feet high, leading in a straight and direct line to the street.

96. In every tenement-house hereafter erected exceeding four stories in height, where one side of an outer court is situated on the lot line, the width of the said court, measured from the lot line to the opposite wall of the building, shall not be less than two feet eight inches in any part; wherever an outer court so situated exceeds sixty-five feet in depth and does not extend from the street to the yard, the entire court shall be increased in width one foot for every additional thirty feet or fraction thereof in excess of sixty-five feet.

tenements.

97. In every tenement-house hereafter erected not exceeding four stories in height, which is also not occupied or arranged to be occupied by more than eight families in all, or by more than two families on any floor, and in which, also, each apartment extends through from the street to the yard, the width of an outer court situated on the lot line shall be at least two feet eight inches running parallel with wall; and where such court exceeds thirty-six feet in depth, the width of such court shall be increased six inches for every fifteen feet or fraction thereof that said court exceeds thirty-six feet in depth, but where such tenement-house is occupied or arranged to be occupied by more than eight families in all, or by more than two families on any floor, and in which the apartments do not extend through from the street to the yard, the width of an outer court situated on the lot line shall be regulated by paragraph ninety-six of this act.

ments not exceeding four stories.

98. In every tenement-house hereafter erected exceeding four stories in height, where an outer court is situated between wings or parts of the same building, or between different buildings on the same lot, the width of the said court, measured from wall to wall, shall not be less than four feet running parallel with wall; wherever an outer court so situated exceeds sixty-five feet in depth, the entire court shall be increased in width two feet in every additional thirty feet or fraction thereof.

occupied or arranged to be occupied by more than eight families in all, or by more than two families on a floor, and in which also each apartment extends through from the street to the yard, the width of an outer court situated between wings or parts of the same building, or between different buildings on the same lot, measured from wall to wall, shall not be less than four feet running parallel with wall; where such court extends thirty-six feet in depth its width shall be increased six inches for every fifteen feet or fraction thereof that said court exceeds thirty-six feet in depth; but where such tenement-house is occupied by more than eight families in all, or by more than two families on any floor, and in which the apartments do not extend through from the street to the yard, the width of an outer court situated between wings or parts of the same buildings, or between different buildings on the same lot, shall be regulated by paragraph ninety-seven of this act.

Light in outer courts.

100. Wherever an outer court in any tenement-house hereafter erected changes its initial horizontal direction, or wherever any part of such court extends in a direction so as not to receive direct light from the street or yard, the length of such portion of said court shall never exceed the width of said portion; such length to be measured from the point at which the change of direction commences.

Depth may equal width.

Proviso.

101. Wherever an outer court of any tenement-house is less in depth than the minimum width prescribed by this act, then its width may be equal to, but not less than, its depth; provided, that such width is not less than three and one-half feet in the clear; this exception shall also apply to each off-set or recess in outer courts, and no windows, except windows of water-closet compartments, bath-rooms or halls shall open upon any off-set or recess less than two feet eight inches.

Inner court on lot line in tenements exceeding four stories.

102. In every tenement-house hereafter erected exceeding four stories in height, where one side of an inner court is situated on the lot line, the width of said court, measured from the lot line to the opposite wall of said building, shall not be less than six feet from lot line to parallel wall, in any part, or its horizontal dimensions shall not be less than twelve feet in any part; but for every twelve feet of increase or fraction thereof in the height of said building above fifty feet, such width shall be increased six inches throughout the entire height of said court, and the other horizontal dimension shall be increased one foot throughout the entire height of said court; and for twelve feet of decrease in the height of said building below fifty feet, such width may be decreased six inches and the other horizontal dimensions may be decreased one foot.

103. In every four-story tenement-house hereafter erected the size of an inner court situated on the lot line shall be as prescribed by paragraph one hundred and two of this act; provided, that where such tenement-house is not occupied by more than eight families in all, or by more than two families on any floor, and in which each apartment extends through from the street to the yard, the width of such court may be decreased, but shall not be less than four feet in any part, and its other horizontal dimensions shall not be less than ten feet in any part.

Size of inner court.

Proviso.

104. In every tenement-house hereafter erected not exceeding three stories in height the width of an inner court situated on the lot line shall not be less than eight feet in any part and its other horizontal dimension shall not be less than fourteen feet in any part; where such building is not occupied or arranged to be occupied by more than six families in all or by more than two families on any floor a portion of such court may be occupied by a water-closet extension not greater than four feet in width or seven feet in length; such extension shall have no window facing an opposite building and the court between such extension and the lot line shall never be less than three feet six inches in width; provided, that where such an inner court adjoins throughout its entire length an existing inner court not less than four feet wide in any part measured from its lot line to the wall the width of said court, so adjoining an existing inner court, may be decreased, but shall not be less than four feet in any part measured from the lot line to the wall, or eight feet in any part measured between walls forming such court; an adjoining court in process of erection at the same time may be deemed an existing court; but nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to permit a water-closet or any other extension to occupy any portion of such a court which shall measure less than eight feet from the lot line to the wall.

not on line of tenement
exceeding
four stories.

105. In every tenement-house hereafter erected exceeding four stories in height, where an inner court is not situated upon the lot line, but is enclosed on all four sides, the least horizontal dimension of the said court shall be not less than twenty-four feet, but for every twelve feet of increase or fraction thereof in the height of such building above fifty feet, the said court shall be increased one foot in each horizontal dimension, throughout the entire height of said court, and for every twelve feet of decrease in the height of said building below fifty feet, each horizontal dimension of the said court may be decreased one foot.

on all sides.

106. In every four-story tenement-house hereafter erected the size of an inner court not situated on the lot line, but enclosed on all four sides, shall be as prescribed by paragraph one hundred and five of this act; provided, that where such tenement-house is not occupied or arranged to be occupied by more than eight families in all, or by more than two families on any floor, and in which also each apartment extends through from the street to the yard, the size of such court may be decreased, but its least dimensions shall not be less than fourteen feet in any part.

Proviso.

Size of inner court of tenement not exceeding three stories.

107. In every tenement-house hereafter erected not exceeding three stories in height, the least dimension of an inner court shall not be less than fourteen feet in any part; provided, that where such tenement-house is not occupied or arranged to be occupied by more than six families in all, or by more than two families on any floor, and in which each apartment extends through from the street to the yard, the size of such court may be decreased, but its width shall not be less than eight feet in any part and its other horizontal dimensions shall not be less than fourteen feet.

Proviso.

Intakes in inner courts.

108. In every tenement-house hereafter erected every inner court shall be provided with one or more horizontal intakes at the bottom; such intakes shall always communicate directly with the street or yard, and shall consist of a passageway not less than three feet wide and seven feet high, which shall be left open; there shall always be provided in said passageway open grills, or transoms of a size not less than five square feet each, and such open grills or transoms shall never be covered over by glass or in any other way; there shall be at least two such grills or transoms in each such passageway, one at the inner court and the other at the street or yard, as the case may be.

109. In tenement-houses where the inner courts are not less than ten feet wide in any part, offsets and recesses will be permitted, but when the depth of such offset or recess is less than the minimum width prescribed, then the width of said offset or recess may be equal to but not less than its depth; provided, that such width is never less than four feet in the clear; and no window except the windows of water-closet compartments, bathrooms or halls, shall open upon any offset or recess less than six feet in width.

inner courts.

Proviso.

110. Nothing contained in the foregoing paragraphs concerning outer and inner courts shall be construed as preventing windows at the angles of said courts; provided, that the running length of the wall containing such windows does not exceed six feet; except that in outer courts or in inner courts of a less size than the minimum prescribed for tenement-houses fifty feet in height, the running length of the wall containing windows in the angle of said courts, shall not exceed four feet; nothing in this paragraph shall be construed so as to permit the reduction of any inner court by cutting off the corners thereof, when such court is less than eight feet in width measured from the lot line to the opposite wall of the building.

courts.

Proviso.

111. In any tenement-house hereafter erected or now existing where each apartment extends through from the street to the yard, no clothes, bedding or similar articles shall be hung or exposed in any court for drying or airing or any purpose.

Clothes and bedding not aired in court.

112. No separate tenement-house shall hereafter be erected upon the rear of any lot where there is a tenement-house on the front of said lot, nor upon the front of any such lot upon the rear of which is a tenement-house.

Space between tenement
and separate building.

113. Where any building is hereafter placed on the same lot with a tenement-house there shall be always maintained between the said buildings an open unoccupied space extending upwards from the ground, and extending across the entire width of the lot; where either building is fifty feet or more in height, such open space shall be at least twenty-four feet from wall to wall; and for every twelve feet of increase or fraction thereof in the height of such building above fifty feet, such open space shall be increased one foot in depth throughout its entire width, and for every twelve feet of decrease in the height of such building below fifty feet the depth of such open space may be decreased one foot; and no building of any kind shall be hereafter placed upon the same lot as a tenement-house, so as to decrease the minimum size of courts or yards as prescribed by this act; and if any tenement-house is hereafter erected upon any lot upon which there is already another building, it shall comply with all of the provisions of this act, and in addition the space between the said buildings and the said tenement-house shall be of such size and arranged in such manner as is prescribed in this paragraph, the height of the highest building on the lot to regulate the dimension; and the use to which such other building is put shall not be detrimental to the health or safety of the occupants of said tenement-house and shall be subject to the written approval of the board.

windows.

114. In every tenement-house hereafter erected every room, except water-closet compartments and bathrooms, shall have at least one window opening directly upon the street or upon a yard or court of the minimum dimensions specified in this act, and such windows shall be so located as to properly light all portions of such rooms; whenever a room in such tenement-house opens upon an inner court less than ten feet wide, measured from the lot line to the opposite wall of the building, such room shall be properly provided with a sash window, communicating with another room in the same apartment, such window to contain not less than ten square feet of glazed surface, and to be made so as to readily open.

115. In every tenement-house hereafter erected, the total window area in each room, except water-closet compartments and bathrooms, shall be at least one-tenth of the superficial area of the room, and the top at least of one window shall not be less than seven feet six inches above the floor, and the upper half of it shall be made so as to open the full width; no such window shall be less than twelve square feet in area, between the stop beads.

area.

116. In every tenement-house hereafter erected, the total window area in a water-closet compartment or bathroom shall not be less than three-square feet and no such window shall be less than one foot in width, measuring between stop beads; in every tenement-house hereafter erected all rooms, except water-closet compartments and bathrooms, shall be of the following minimum sizes: in each apartment there shall be at least one room containing not less than one hundred and twenty square feet of floor area; each other room shall contain at least seventy square feet of floor area; each room shall be, in every part, not less than nine feet high from the finished floor to the finished ceiling; provided, that an attic room need be nine feet high in but half of its area.

117. All alcove rooms in tenement-houses must conform to all the requirements for other rooms.

Alcove rooms.

118. In every tenement-house hereafter erected which is occupied, or arranged to be occupied, by more than two families on any floor, or which exceeds four stories in height, every public hall shall have at least one window opening directly upon the street or upon a yard or court; either such window shall be at the end of said hall, with the plane of the window at right angles to the axis of said hall, or there shall be at least one window opening directly upon the street, or upon a yard or court, in every twenty feet in length or fraction thereof of said hall; but this provision for a window in every twenty feet of hallway shall not apply to that portion of the entrance hall between the entrance and the first flight of stairs; provided, that the entrance door contains not less than five square feet of glazed surface; in every public hall in such tenement-house recesses or returns, the length of which does not exceed twice their width,

Hall windows.

Proviso.

Separate
halls.

will be permitted without an additional window; but wherever the length of such recess or return exceeds twice its width, the above provisions in reference to one window in every twenty feet of hallway shall be applied; any part of a hallway which is shut off from any other part of said hall by a door or doors shall be deemed a separate hall, within the meaning of this paragraph; in every tenement-house hereafter erected where the public hall is not provided with a window opening directly to the outer air as above-provided, there shall be a stair well not less than twelve inches wide in the clear, extending from the entrance floor to the roof, and all doors leading from such public halls shall be provided with translucent glass panels having an area of not less than five square feet for each door and also with fixed transoms of translucent glass over each door.

Measurement of window.

119. In every tenement-house hereafter erected one, at least, of the windows provided to light each public hall or part thereof shall be at least two feet six inches wide and five feet high, measured between the stop beads.

Area of hall
windows.

120. In every tenement-house hereafter erected the aggregate area of windows to light or ventilate stair halls shall be at least eighteen square feet for each floor; there shall be provided for each story at least one of said windows, which shall be at least two and a half feet wide and five feet high, measured between the stop beads; a sash door shall be deemed the equivalent of a window in paragraphs one hundred and eighteen, one hundred and nineteen and one hundred and twenty of this act; provided, that such door contains the amount of glazed surface prescribed for such windows.

Proviso.

Access to water-closet.

121. In every apartment of three or more rooms in a tenement-house hereafter erected, access to every living room and bedroom and to at least one water-closet compartment, shall be had without passing through any bedroom.

Living-room must have a window.

122. No room in a now existing tenement shall hereafter be occupied for living purposes unless it shall have a window on the street, or upon a yard not less than four feet deep, or upon a court or shaft of not less than twenty-five square feet in area, open to the sky without roof or skylight; provided, however, that such room may be occupied for living purposes if it has a sash window opening into an adjoining room in the same apartment, which latter room either opens directly upon the street or on a yard of the above dimensions, or itself connects directly by a similar window with such outer room; said sash window shall be at least three feet by five feet between stop beads and both halves shall be made so as to open readily; where it is not possible to construct a window of this width, then such window may be of such size as may be prescribed by the board, but such window shall never contain less than twelve feet of glazed surface; an alcove opening of no less dimensions than the said sash window, in addition to the usual door opening shall be deemed its equivalent.

Proviso.

When board to prescribe size of windows.

123. In every now existing tenement-house, four stories or more in height, whenever a public hall on any floor is not light enough in the daytime to permit a person to read in every part thereof, without the aid of artificial light, the wooden panels in the doors located on the public halls and opening directly into rooms, shall be removed and ground glass or other translucent glass of an aggregate area of not less than five square feet for each door shall be substituted; or in lieu of removing panels from the doors a fixed sash window of ground glass or other translucent glass of an area of not less than five square feet, may be cut into partitions separating the said hall from rooms which open directly upon the street or upon a yard, court or shaft of dimensions specified in the last paragraph; or said public hall may be lighted by a window or windows at the end thereof, with the plane of the window at right angles to the axis of said hall, said windows opening upon the street or upon a yard, court or shaft of said dimensions.

daylight for reading.

124. In every tenement-house hereafter erected there shall, be in the roof directly over the stair well, a ventilating skylight constructed of metal and provided with ridge ventilators having a minimum opening of forty square inches; or such skylight shall be provided with fixed or movable louvres; the glazed roof of such skylight shall not be less than twenty square feet in area; where the stairs and public halls are not provided with windows on each floor opening directly to the outer air, the skylights shall be provided with such ridge ventilators and also with fixed or movable louvres or with movable sashes.

Existing
tenements
to put in skylight
ventilator.

125. In every now existing tenement-house over two stories in height, where no skylight or bulkhead with glazed sash is found over the stair well, or in which the stair halls do not have windows opening directly to the outer air, there shall be a ventilating skylight constructed in the roof, directly over the stair well, as specified in the preceding paragraph; in every such tenement-house where an existing skylight or glazed bulkhead does not provide sufficient light and ventilation, then the board shall require such skylight or such bulkhead to be altered or enlarged so as to provide such proper light and ventilation.

• Lights in hall-ways.

126. In every tenement-house now existing or hereafter erected a proper light shall be kept burning by the owner, in the public hallways, near the stairs, upon the entrance floor; and in every tenement-house, over two stories high, such a light shall also be kept burning upon the second floor above the entrance floor of such house every night, throughout the entire year, and upon all other floors of such tenement-house from sunset each day until ten o'clock each evening; where the public halls and stairs are not provided with windows opening directly to the street or yard, and such halls and stairs are, in the opinion of the board, not sufficiently lighted, the owner of such house shall keep a proper light burning in the hallway near the stairs upon each floor as may be necessary, from sunrise to sunset, and all such lights shall be so arranged as to effectually guard against fire.

Vent-shafts;
size, etc.

127. Every vent-shaft hereafter constructed in a tenement-house shall be at least nine square feet in area, and the least dimension of such shaft shall not be less than three feet; and if the building be above fifty feet in height, such shaft shall, throughout its entire height, be increased in area three square feet for each additional twelve feet in height or fraction thereof; and for each twelve feet of height less than fifty feet, such shaft may be decreased in area three square feet; a vent-shaft may be enclosed on all four sides, but it shall not be roofed or covered over in any way; every such shaft shall be provided with a horizontal intake or duct at the bottom, communicating with the street or yard or with a court; such duct or intake to be not less than four square feet in total area and to be arranged so as to be easily cleaned out.

128. Where any vent-shaft in any now existing tenement-house is roofed or covered over in any way, such roof or other covering shall be completely removed or made to conform with such requirements as the board may find necessary to secure ample ventilation.

Existing
shafts uncovered.

129. No vent-shaft in any tenement-house now existing or hereafter erected shall be used as a place of storage for any articles of any kind whatsoever, nor shall it be obstructed by any shelf or other similar contrivance.

Vent-shaft
unobstructed.

130. In any now existing tenement-house no room in the basement or cellar shall be occupied for living purposes without a written permit from the board, and such permit shall be kept readily accessible in the main living room of the apartment containing such room and may be canceled at any time by the board or by the local board of health having jurisdiction; but no such permit shall be granted unless such room shall have at least one window opening on a street, court or yard not less than four feet wide, and such room shall have sufficient light, shall be well drained and dry, and shall, in the opinion of the board, be fit for human habitation; and the ceiling of such room shall be in every part not less than seven feet high, and not less than four feet above the ground outside; there shall be, outside of and adjoining such room and extending along the entire frontage of the same, an open area which shall be at least two feet and six inches in its least dimensions, unless such room extends for more than one-half of its height above the curb level; such area shall be well and effectually drained.

cellar or basement.

131. In tenement-houses hereafter erected no room in the cellar or in the basement shall be constructed, altered, converted or occupied for living purposes, unless all of the following conditions are complied with:

Requirements for living-rooms in cellar or basement.

- Size. I. Such room shall be at least eight feet and six inches high in every part, from the floor to the ceiling;
- Proviso. provided, that in buildings already erected and not now used as a tenement-house, but hereafter altered or converted to such use, such room shall not be less than eight feet in every part, from the floor to the ceiling;
- Ceiling. II. The ceiling of such room shall be at least five feet above the surface of the street or ground outside of or adjoining the same;
- Water-closet. III. There shall be, appurtenant to such room, the use of a separate water-closet;
- Windows. • IV. Such room shall have a window or windows opening upon the street or upon a yard or court; the total area of windows in such room shall be at least one-eighth of the superficial area of the room, and one-half of the sash shall be made to open full width; and the top of each window shall be within six inches of the ceiling.
- Construction of lowest floor. 132. In every tenement-house now existing or hereafter erected the floor of the entire cellar or other lowest floor below or on grade shall be finished with concrete, asphalt or other similar material approved by the board; all new floors if laid with concrete shall not be less than four inches thick and finished with one inch of cement surfacing; and every tenement house hereafter erected on any lot which is damp, or which is affected by tide-water or the drainage of surface water from other properties, shall have all walls below ground level cemented at least one-half an inch thick and given a coat of asphalt.
- Walls and ceilings a light color. 133. In every tenement-house hereafter erected or now existing the cellar walls and ceilings shall be thoroughly whitewashed or painted a light color by the owner and shall be so maintained; such whitewash or paint shall be renewed whenever necessary, as may be required by the board.
- Bottom of shafts, courts, etc. 134. In every tenement-house hereafter erected the bottom of all shafts, courts, areas and yards which extend to the basement for light or ventilation of living rooms, shall be six inches below the floor level of the part so occupied or intended to be occupied, and the bottom of all vent-shafts and inner courts in such building shall be paved with flagstones, cement or asphalt, or similar substance.

135. In every tenement-house now existing or hereafter erected all shafts, courts, areas and yards shall be properly graded and drained and connected with the street sewer where such connection be possible and permitted by local ordinances; and when required by the board shall be paved with stone, cement, or asphalt or other approved material.

Shafts, etc., connected with sewer.

136. In every tenement-house now existing or hereafter erected there shall be, at the bottom of every shaft and inner court a door giving sufficient access to such shaft or court as to enable it to be properly cleaned out; in shafts or courts of a less size than prescribed by this act for tenement-houses hereafter erected, such doors shall be fireproof and self-closing; provided, that where there is already a window or door in a now existing tenement-house, giving proper access to such shaft or court, such window or door shall be deemed sufficient.

shaft and court.

Proviso.

137. In every tenement-house now existing or hereafter erected the walls of all yards, courts, inner courts and shafts, unless built of a light color brick or stone, shall be thoroughly whitewashed or shall be painted a light color by the owner and shall be so maintained; such whitewash or paint shall be renewed whenever necessary, as may be required by the board.

color.

138. Every tenement-house and every part thereof, shall be kept clean and free from any accumulation of dirt, filth or garbage or other matter in or on the same, or in yards, courts, passages, areas or alleys, connected with the same or belonging to the same; the owner of every tenement-house or part thereof shall thoroughly cleanse all the rooms, passages, stairs, floors, windows, doors, walls, ceilings, privies, water-closets, cesspools, drains, halls, cellars, roofs and all other parts of said tenement-house, or part of a house of which he is the owner, to the satisfaction of the board and shall maintain the said parts of the house in a clean condition at all times; no person shall place filth, urine or fecal matter in any place in a tenement-house other than that place provided for the same, or keep filth, urine or fecal matter in his apartment or upon his premises such length of time as to become a nuisance.

and sanitary conditions.

Wall paper.

139. No wall paper shall be placed upon any wall or ceiling of any tenement-house unless all old wall paper shall be first removed therefrom and said wall and ceiling thoroughly cleaned.

Not lodging-house or stable.

140. No tenement-house nor any part thereof shall be used for a lodging-house or for the storage or handling of rags; within the fire limits no horse, cow, calf, swine, sheep or goat shall be kept in any tenement-house or on the lot upon which such tenement-house is erected; but outside said fire limits animals may be housed on such lot; provided, they are housed at least forty feet distant from any tenement-house and that such housing is not detrimental to health, in the opinion of the board and that such housing is constructed and maintained in such manner as the board may require.

Proviso.

Janitor.

141. In any tenement-house in which the owner thereof does not reside and which is occupied by or arranged to be occupied by more than six families, there shall be a janitor, housekeeper or some other responsible person, who shall reside in said house and who shall have charge of the same, if the board shall so require.

Air per inmate.

142. No room in any tenement-house shall be so overcrowded that there shall be afforded less than four hundred cubic feet of air to each adult, and two hundred cubic feet of air to each child under twelve years of age, occupying such room.

Air-space beneath tenement.

143. In every tenement-house hereafter erected where there is no cellar or basement, and having an air-space underneath, such air-space shall be at least two feet in height, extending over its entire area, and the surface of the ground under any such air-space shall be waterproof; and said air space shall be enclosed in brick walls, provided with iron grills, set in front and rear walls for ventilation, the apertures shall be one inch square and shall not be less than six in number; there shall also be provided an outside door, opening to such air-space, not less than eighteen inches square; said opening shall be securely closed with a proper door, which shall be kept locked at all times; and the floor above any such air-space shall be laid with a double flooring of matched boards, with a layer of heavy three-ply building paper or felt between the under and the upper floors, the upper floor to be laid at an angle not less than forty-five degrees with the lower floor.

Section 2.

144. Every tenement-house hereafter erected or now existing and all the parts thereof, shall be placed and maintained in good repair and the roofs shall be kept so as not to leak; and all rain-water shall be so drained and conveyed therefrom as to prevent its dripping on to the ground or causing dampness in the walls, ceilings, yards or areas.

Maintenance.

Rain-water.

145. Every tenement-house hereafter erected shall comply with all local ordinances regulating the construction of buildings and shall further comply with all the following regulations where they are supplementary to said local ordinances or where local ordinances do not exist.

Compliance with local ordinances.

146. In every tenement-house hereafter erected all materials and workmanship used therein shall be of good quality and said building shall be constructed in all its parts in a strong and substantial manner; all footing for foundation walls, chimneys or piers, and all bearing walls or bearing partitions, shall be constructed of such size and in such a manner as to safely sustain the loads to be imposed; where used in the construction or repair of any tenement-house or any part thereof, the following materials shall be of such character and used in such manner as hereinafter specified:

Quality of materials and workmanship.

I. All brick shall be good, hard, well-burned brick; when old bricks are used they shall be thoroughly cleaned before being used and they shall be whole, good, hard, well-burned bricks;

Bricks.

II. All sand used for mortar shall be clean, sharp, grit sand, free from all loam or dirt;

Sand.

III. Lime mortar shall be made of one part of lime and not more than four parts of sand; all lime used for mortar shall be thoroughly burned, of good quality and properly slaked before it is mixed with the sand;

more than three parts of sand and shall be used immediately after being mixed; the cement and sand are to be measured accurately and thoroughly mixed before adding water; the cement must be very finely ground and free from lumps;

Use of.

V. All walls laid below grade, all chimneys, parapet walls or walls exposed on both sides and the walls of all vaults and cesspools shall be laid in cement mortar;

Concrete.

VI. All concrete shall be made of at least one part of cement to three parts of sand and five parts broken stone, sharp gravel or hard clinkers;

Surfacing concrete with cement.

VII. Where concrete is used for cellar bottoms or the bottoms of areas, shafts or courts, and is surfaced with cement, said surfacing shall be not less than one inch thick and composed of not less than one part of cement to two parts of sand.

Lumber.

147. All timbers and wood beams used in the construction or repair of any tenement-house shall be of good, sound material, free from rot, large or loose knots, shakes or any other imperfection whereby the strength of such timber or wood beams may be impaired and shall be of such size, strength and dimensions as the purpose for which they are used shall require.

Foundation.

148. No foundation wall of any tenement-house hereafter erected shall be less than twelve inches in thickness, if built of brick, or less than eighteen inches if built of stone, excepting only that frame tenement-houses not more than two stories high may have brick foundation walls eight inches thick above grade, for a height not exceeding two feet and six inches.

Vault and privy walls.

149. The walls of all areas, vaults and privies appertaining to any tenement-house may be considered as retaining walls and shall then be not less in thickness than one-quarter of their height.

Sewer connection.

150. Where sewers are found in any street upon which it is proposed to erect a tenement-house, the cellar of such house shall be connected to the sewer, if permitted by local ordinances, before the walls are carried above the first tier of beams; and if no sewer is found in such street, then the owner shall make provision to prevent water accumulating and remaining in the cellar more than twenty-four hours.

151. No timber shall be used in any wall of any tenement-house where stone, brick or iron is commonly used; and no walls shall be carried upon a permanent timber support.

When timber not used.

152. Floor beams hereafter used in the construction or repair of any tenement-house shall be so proportioned that the deflection shall not be greater than one three-hundred-and-sixtieth of the span and they shall be doubled under all partitions.

Floor beams.

153. All wooden trimmer and header beams hereafter placed in any tenement-house shall be at least double the thickness of other floor beams.

Wooden trimmer and header beams.

154. Every wooden beam resting upon a brick wall hereafter placed in any tenement-house shall have a bearing of at least four inches; and such wooden beams shall have the ends so resting cut to a bevel of three inches on their depth.

Bearing of wooden beams.

155. All wooden floor beams and roof beams hereafter placed in any tenement-house shall be properly cross bridged and the distance between bridging and walls shall not exceed eight feet.

Wooden beams bridged.

156. No studs less than two inches by four inches, full measurement, shall hereafter be used in any tenement-house; and such studs shall be doubled around all doors and window openings.

Studs.

157. In all tenement-houses hereafter erected there shall be an air-space between the ceiling of the upper story and the roof, which air-space shall not be less than eighteen inches in every part between beams; and such space shall be properly ventilated with louvres.

Air-chamber.

158. New structural or finishing material of whatsoever nature, intended to be used in any tenement-house as a substitute for materials the use of which is permitted by this act, shall be subject to such tests, under the supervision of the board, as the board may require or direct, and a certified copy of the results of such tests shall be made and shall be placed on file with the board; and no such material shall be used in any tenement house until a written permit shall have been granted and issued by said board; and the expenses of such tests shall be paid by the persons applying for the privilege of using such material.

Tests of materials.

Expense of test.

ARTICLE IV.

Section 1.

Separate
water-closets.

159. Every tenement-house hereafter erected or now existing shall be provided with proper water-closet accommodations for its tenants, separate and distinct from the water-closet accommodations of any other tenement-house.

Number and location.

160. In every tenement-house hereafter erected there shall be, within each apartment of more than two rooms at least one water-closet, and where there are apartments consisting of but one or two rooms there shall be at least one water-closet for every three rooms; and said water-closet shall be located on the same floor as the rooms for the tenants of which it is intended, and shall be accessible to them from the public halls; there shall also be provided similar water-closet accommodations for any store or workshop which may be located on the premises, and such water-closet accommodations shall be separate and distinct from that provided for any apartment.

nections.

161. Every now existing tenement-house shall have not less than one water-closet for every two families occupying such house; and where a sewer connection is possible and such tenement-house is over four stories in height, the said water-closets shall be placed in the building, within each apartment or opening off the public halls; and the said water-closets shall be located on the same floor as the apartments for the use of which they are intended; where such building is not over four stories in height, the water-closets may be located in the yards, provided that the yard is of such size that the structure containing the required number of water-closets shall not cover more than fifty per centum of the unoccupied area of said yard; where the yard is not of sufficient size to permit the water-closets to be so installed then the water-closets shall be placed in the house, as required for buildings over four stories high; where water-closets are so located in the yards of any now yard.

Prevention against

existing tenement-house, all traps, flush-tanks and pipes shall be effectively protected against freezing; and where or when such protection against freezing shall be found to be inadequate, the board may direct proper water-closet accommodations to be placed within the house.

162. Every water-closet in every tenement-house hereafter erected or now existing, shall be in a compartment completely separated from every other water-closet, and every such compartment hereafter constructed shall be at least two feet and four inches wide and shall have a sash window of not less than three square feet in area; such window shall be arranged so as to open readily and directly to a street, yard, court or vent shaft; the floor of every such compartment hereafter constructed, which contains, or is intended to contain, an individual water-closet, as hereinafter described, shall be made waterproof with asphalt, tile, stone or other approved waterproof material, and such waterproofing shall be carried six inches above the floor of the compartment, so that the said compartment may be washed or flushed out without leaking; where such compartments are hereafter located within a tenement-house, they shall be enclosed on all sides with plaster partitions, carried from the floor to the ceiling; and provision shall be made for lighting the said compartments at night; if fixtures for gas or electric lighting are not provided, then translucent glass panels shall be placed in the doors, said panels to have an area of not less than five square feet; where such compartments are located in the yard of any tenement-house, the structure containing such compartments shall be substantially constructed, tightly enclosed and partitioned off and the roof made water tight; such compartments shall not exceed ten feet in height, nor shall the structure containing them be used for any other purpose than for water-closet purposes; neither shall it be considered as increasing the percentage of lot occupied, nor be subject to the provisions of paragraph one hundred and thirteen of this act.

Privies, sinks, etc., removed.

164. In every now existing tenement-house where a connection with a sewer is possible, all privy vaults, school sinks, cesspools or other similar receptacles for fecal matter, urine or sewage shall, on or before the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and five, be completely removed and the places where they were located properly disinfected and filled in under the direction of the board.

Character of closet, traps,
etc.

165. Every water-closet hereafter placed in any tenement-house hereafter erected or now existing shall be an individual water-closet of durable, non-absorbent material, properly connected with the sewer and having individual traps, properly connected flush tanks of not less than five gallons capacity, and providing an ample flush of water to thoroughly cleanse the bowl; no hopper, pan, valve, plunger, offset, washout, or other water-closet having an unventilated space, or the walls of which are not thoroughly washed at each flush, shall be hereafter installed; provided, however, that for yard closets the long hopper type of closet may be used.

Proviso.

enclosed.

166. No water-closet bowl in any tenement-house shall be hereafter enclosed in any way; and where now existing water-closet bowls are so enclosed, such enclosure shall be removed and the space under the seat shall be left open and the floor under and around such closet shall be maintained in good order and repair by the owner, and if of wood shall be kept well painted with a light colored paint.

nection
possible—
cesspools, etc.

167. In all now existing tenement-houses where sewer connections are not possible, all cesspools and privy vaults or other receptacles for fecal matter, urine or sewage of any description shall be made water tight, so as not to leak or to permit seepage of liquid matter; and the owner shall see that proper arrangements are made and maintained so that the said cesspool or privy vault shall be emptied whenever such cesspool or privy vault or other receptacle shall become filled to within one foot of the grade level; and the said owner shall also provide fresh earth or lime or other disinfectant and have the same spread over the contents of any privy vault at least once in each week, or as often as ordered by the board; all such cesspools and privy vaults which are found to be not water tight shall be cleaned out, disinfected and filled in with fresh earth and new cesspools or privy vaults constructed in such manner and in such location as shall be approved by the board; or such cesspools and privy vaults may be rebuilt or repaired as directed by the board.

168. In any tenement-house hereafter erected cesspools will be allowed only when their use is absolutely necessary and then only when constructed as directed by the board; and no cesspool shall be permitted to be constructed within twenty-five feet of any tenement-house.

When cesspools allowable.

169. Every tenement-house hereafter erected shall have at least one sink located within each apartment and such sink shall be supplied with running water.

Sink in each apartment.

170. Every now existing tenement-house located on any street in which water mains are laid shall be properly connected to such water mains and shall have at least one sink within each apartment; provided, however, that in tenement-houses where a sink is now installed on each floor, in the public hall, such sinks shall be deemed sufficient.

Connection with water mains.

Proviso.

171. Every sink in every tenement-house hereafter erected or now existing shall be of a durable, non-absorbent material, supported on legs of a similar material, and shall not be enclosed in any way; and where such sinks are now enclosed said enclosures shall be completely removed.

Sink of durable material and open.

172. Every tenement-house hereafter erected shall be properly connected to a sewer, where a sewer is accessible, before any part of said tenement-house shall be used as a dwelling-house.

Sewer connections before occupancy.

173. Every now existing tenement-house shall be properly connected to a sewer, where a sewer is now or may be hereafter found in the street on which such tenement-house is situated.

Existing tenements must be connected.

174. Wherever a sewer can be obtained in the street upon which any tenement-house is located, by application to the municipality controlling the same, then the owner of such tenement-house shall make application for such sewer, and in case such application is refused he shall file with the board a properly certified statement of such refusal and the reasons therefor.

Private sewer.

175. Where there is no sewer in the street upon which any tenement-house is now located or may be hereafter erected, and it is possible to construct a private sewer to connect to a sewer in an adjacent street not over one hundred and fifty feet distant, such private sewer shall be constructed.

Drinking water.

176. Every tenement-house now existing or hereafter erected shall have provided, on the premises thereof, an ample supply of potable water.

Supply of running water.

177. Every tenement-house hereafter erected, and every now existing tenement-house where water mains are found or may be hereafter found in the street upon which such now existing tenement-house is situated, shall have running water supplied to every water-closet, sink and other plumbing fixtures contained in such house, and the owner shall provide proper and suitable tanks, pumps or other appliances to receive and to distribute an adequate and sufficient supply of such water to each fixture on every floor in the said house at all times of the year, during all hours of the day and night; but a failure in the general supply of water by the municipality or company controlling the same shall not be construed to be a failure on the part of such owner; provided, that proper and suitable appliances to receive and to distribute such water shall have been provided for said house.

Proviso.

Application for water mains.

178. Where water mains can be obtained in the street upon which any tenement-house is located by application to the municipality or company controlling the same, then the owner shall make such application, and in case such application is refused he shall file with the board a properly certified statement of such refusal and the reasons therefor.

Well water.

179. Where the water-supply of any tenement-house now existing or hereafter erected is obtained from a well or other private source of water-supply, the use of such water shall be subject to test by the board and its use shall be discontinued when so ordered by the board; and such water shall not be again used until its use is authorized by the board.

180. All tenement-houses now existing or hereafter erected shall be kept provided with proper and sufficient metallic leaders for conducting water from the roofs in such manner as to protect the walls and foundations of the said building from injury; in no case shall the water from said leaders be allowed to flow upon the sidewalk, but the same shall be conducted by the pipe or pipes to the sewer, where sewers exist, and where the municipality permits such disposal to be made; or if there be no sewer or if such disposal is not permitted by the municipality, then the water shall be conducted by proper pipe or pipes below the surface of the sidewalk to a street gutter; a leader connected to the sewer must be trapped and shall not be used as a soil-pipe or waste-pipe, nor shall any such soil or waste-pipe be used as a leader; in no case shall the water from any such leader be connected with any vault or privy or cesspool used to receive fecal matter or urine, or sewage of any kind; nor shall any such leader be connected to any well or underground receptacle from which it is intended to be redrawn for use.

Section 2.

181. Before work on any portion of the plumbing or drainage system of any tenement-house is commenced, or before any material alteration or addition is made to any existing system, the owner or his agent shall cause to be filed with the board a certificate of approval of the proposed work signed by the local board having jurisdiction, and at completion of the said work he shall also file a similar certificate of its approval as executed; where no local board exercises jurisdiction the owner or his agent shall file with the board plans and specifications of the proposed work, which shall be executed under the jurisdiction of the board and in accordance with such regulations as are necessary to secure a sanitary, workmanlike system.

to the provisions of this act they shall be approved by the said board, and a written certificate to that effect shall be issued to the persons submitting the same; and if the said board shall not approve such plans and specifications, the board shall, at the request of the person submitting the same, give him or them the reasons for such refusal, in writing; the board may, from time to time, approve changes in any plans and specifications previously approved by it; provided, the plans and specifications, when so changed, shall be in conformity with the provisions of this act, and may require, when it shall deem it to be necessary, a new set of plans to be filed; the construction, alteration or conversion of such tenement-house, building or structure, or any part thereof, shall not be commenced until the filing of such specifications, plans and statements, and the approval thereof, as above provided; the construction, alteration or conversion of such house, building or structure shall be in accordance with such approved specifications and plans; any permit or approval which may be issued by the said board, but under which no work has been done, above the foundation walls, within one year from the time of the issuance of such permit or approval, shall expire by limitation; said board shall have power to revoke or cancel any permit or approval in case of any failure or neglect to comply with any of the provisions of this act, or in case any false statement or representation is made in any specifications, plans or statements submitted or filed for such permit or approval.

Proviso.

Power to revoke permit.

183. No building hereafter constructed as, or altered into, a tenement-house shall be occupied, in whole or in part, for human habitation until the issuance of a certificate by the said board that said building conforms in all respects to the requirements of this act; such certificate shall be issued within ten days after written application therefor, if said building, at the date of such application, shall be entitled thereto.

Certificate of fitness for habitation.

184. If any building hereafter constructed as, or altered into, a tenement-house be occupied, in whole or in part, for human habitation, in violation of the last paragraph, the said premises shall be deemed unfit for human habitation, and the said board shall cause them to be vacated accordingly.

Powers of local boards not impaired.

185. Nothing in this act shall be construed to abrogate or impair the power of local boards of health or building departments or of the courts to enforce any provision now existing or hereafter adopted in a city charter or an ordinance or regulation, not inconsistent with this act, or to prevent or punish violations thereof.

Notice and description
filed by owner or lessee.

186. Every owner of a tenement-house and every lessee of the whole house, or other person having control of a tenement-house, shall file with said board a notice containing his name and address, and also a description of the property, by street number or otherwise, as the case may be, in such manner as will enable the board easily to find the same; and also the number of apartments in such house, the number of rooms in each apartment and the number of families occupying the apartments; in case of the transfer of any tenement-house it shall be the duty of the grantor or grantee of such tenement-house to file with said board a notice of such transfer, stating the name of the new owner, within thirty days of such transfer; in case of the devolution of said property by will, it shall be the duty of the executor and devisee, if more than twenty-one years of age, or in case of the devolution of such property without a will, it shall be the duty of the heirs, or in case all of the heirs are under age, it shall be the duty of the guardians of such heirs, and in case the said heirs have no guardian, it shall be the duty of the administrator of the deceased owner of said property to file with said board a notice, stating the death of the deceased owner and the names of those who have succeeded to his interest in said property, within thirty days after the death of the decedent, in case he died intestate, and within thirty days after the probate of his will if he died testate.

willed.

Agent's name and address.

187. Every owner, agent or lessee of a tenement-house, if a resident of this state, may, and if a non-resident of this state, shall, file a notice with said board containing the name and address of an agent of such house, a resident of this state, for the purpose of receiving service of process, and also a description of the property, by street number or otherwise, as the case may be, in such manner as will enable said board easily to find the same; the name of the owner or lessee may be filed as agent for this purpose, if he be a resident of this state.

188. Every notice or order in relation to a tenement-house shall be served five days before the time for doing the thing in relation to which it shall have been issued; the posting of a copy of such notice or order in a conspicuous place in the tenement-house, together with the mailing of a copy thereof, on the same day that it is posted, to each person, if any, whose name has been filed with the said board, in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs one hundred and eighty-six and one hundred and eighty-seven of this act, at his address as therewith filed, shall be sufficient service thereof; and if the name of the owner or agent has not been filed in accordance with the said paragraphs one hundred and eighty-six and one hundred and eighty-seven, then the posting of a copy of such notice or order, as herein provided, shall be sufficient service thereof.

ARTICLE VI.

189. Every person who shall violate or assist in the violation of any provision of this act shall be subject to a penalty of one hundred dollars, if such violation be wilful, or to a penalty of twenty-five dollars, if such violation be not wilful.

Penalty for violation.

190. The owner or any tenement-house, or part thereof, or of any building or structure upon the same lot with a tenement-house, or of the said lot, where any violation of this act, or a nuisance exists, and any person who shall violate or assist in violating any provision of this act, or any legal notice or order of the said board, shall jointly and severally for each such violation be subject to a penalty of one hundred dollars, if such violation be wilful, or to a penalty of twenty-five dollars if such violation be not wilful; such persons shall also be liable for all costs, expenses and disbursements paid or incurred by the said board, or by any of the officers thereof, or by any agent, employe or contractor of the same, in the removal of any such nuisance or violation.

Joint liability.

191. Every joint or several owner of any tenement-house shall be jointly and severally liable for any violation of any provision of this act; and every lessee of a whole tenement-house or of the building or structure erected on the same lot with a tenement-house, shall be jointly and severally liable with the owner or owners of the fee of such tenement-house, building, structure and lot for any violation of any provision of this act.

Interference.

192. Any person who shall interfere with the said board or with any of its employes in the performance of their duties under this act, or under the lawful regulations of the said board, and shall prevent, or attempt to prevent the said board or any of its employes from the performance of their said duties, shall be subject to a penalty of one hundred dollars.

Cognizance of violations.

193. Every district court in any city, and every justice of the peace in any county, and any police justice or recorder in any city, is hereby empowered, on oath or affirmation made according to law, that any person or persons has, or may have, violated or assisted in the violation of any provision of this act, to issue process at the suit of the state board of tenement-house supervision, either in the nature of a summons or warrant, against the person or persons so charged, which process shall, when in the nature of a warrant, be returnable forthwith, and when in the nature of a summons shall be returnable in not less than one nor more than ten entire days; such process shall state what paragraph of this act and particular part or parts of said paragraph are alleged to have been violated by the defendant or defendants; and on the return of such process, or at any time to which the trial shall have been adjourned, the said court, justice of the peace, police justice or recorder shall proceed to hear the testimony without the filing of any pleadings, and on being satisfied of the guilt of the defendant or defendants shall render judgment for the plaintiff in the sum of one hundred dollars, if it shall appear from the evidence that the offense was wilful; but if it shall appear from the evidence that the offense was not wilful, judgment shall be rendered for the plaintiff in the sum of twenty-five dollars; and the said court, justice of the peace, police justice or recorder shall, if judgment be rendered for the plaintiff, forthwith issue execution against the goods and chattels and person of the defendant or defendants; and said court, justice of the peace, police justice or recorder is further empowered to cause such defendants who may refuse or neglect to pay the amount of the judgment rendered against him, and all costs and charges incident thereto, to be committed to the county jail for a period not exceeding ninety days; and said court, justice of the peace, police justice or recorder is further empowered, in case any such defendant shall have been twice convicted of the violation of the same paragraph of this act, or of continuing the violation for which he was previously convicted, in addition to the payment of the penalty hereinbefore mentioned, to cause the defendant to be imprisoned in the county jail or county workhouse, with or without hard labor, for any number of days not exceeding one for each dollar of the penalty; provided, however, that no warrant shall issue against any freeholder unless affidavit shall also first be made that such freeholder is about to abscond from this state.

Imprisonment.

Proviso.

194. No district court of any city, justice of the peace, police justice or recorder shall have jurisdiction in any case of violation of this act which shall take place outside of the territorial jurisdiction of such district court, justice of the peace, police justice or recorder, as such territorial jurisdiction is now or may hereafter be established by law.

Jurisdiction.

195. The officers to serve and execute any process issued out of any court by virtue of any provision of this act, shall be the officers authorized by law to serve and execute process in said courts and before such magistrates and officers as aforesaid.

Officers.

196. In any action brought by the said board by virtue of any provision of this act, it shall be sufficient service of the summons or of any order of the court to serve the same as notices and orders are served under the provisions of paragraph one hundred and eighty-eight of this act.

Service of summons.

Non-resident or absent owners.

197. In case the owner of any tenement-house in this state, who resides out of the state, or who absconds from, or conceals himself within this state, shall have violated or assisted in the violation of any of the provisions of this act, then the said board may proceed against the said non-resident or absent owner, to recover the penalty provided for such violation, by writ of attachment to be issued out of any court of common pleas or circuit court in this state against the rights and credits, goods and chattels, lands and tenements of such non-resident or absent owner; and the proceedings shall be the same as in other cases in attachment issued out of said courts.

light by fence.

198. Any person who shall erect, or suffer to remain erected, any fence or other structure designed or intended to exclude the light and air from any tenement-house in this state shall be subject to a penalty of ten dollars' for every day such fence or structure remains after notice from the said board to remove the same; which penalty shall be recovered in an action to be brought by the said board before any district court, justice of the peace, police justice or recorder, and the proceedings shall be the same as provided in paragraph one hundred and ninety-three of this act.

Disposition
of fines.

199. All fines, penalties and moneys imposed and collected under any provision of this act shall be paid by the justice, or by the clerk or other officer of the court receiving the same, to the treasurer of the state of New Jersey.

Vacation of
tenement.

200. When the said board shall order any tenement-house vacated under any provision of this act, and the owner or occupants thereof shall refuse to vacate the same, any district court judge in any city, and any justice of the peace in any county, on complaint made on oath or affirmation, setting forth the order of the said board, the service thereof, and such refusal to vacate the tenement-house, describing it by street and number, or in any way sufficiently to identify the same, shall issue an order directing the owner of such tenement-house, the lessee of the whole house and the tenants thereof to show cause before him why such tenement-house should not be vacated, and on the return day of the order, if no good cause be shown for the refusal to vacate, the said judge or justice shall issue an order directing any sergeant-at-arms of said court, or any constable, to forthwith dispossess the occupants of the tenement-house complained of, and shall render judgment against the owner for the costs of the proceedings.

201. When complaint is made on oath or affirmation before any judge of a district court, justice of the peace, police justice or recorder, that the complainant believes that any building or structure is being used as a tenement-house, or that any building or structure is being used in violation of any provision of this act, such district court judge, justice of the peace, police justice or recorder, on being satisfied that probable cause exists for such belief, shall forthwith issue a search warrant authorizing any officer or employe of the said board to enter and search, examine and inspect such building or structure.

inspect tenement.

202. In case any tenement-house, building or structure, or any part thereof, is constructed, altered, converted or maintained in violation of any provision of this act, or of any order or notice of said board, or in case a nuisance exists in any such tenement-house, building or structure, or upon the lot on which it is situated, the said board may institute any appropriate action or proceeding to prevent such unlawful construction, alteration, conversion or maintenance, to restrain, correct or abate such violation or nuisance, to prevent the occupation of such tenement-house, building or structure, or to prevent any illegal act, conduct or business in or about such tenement-house or lot; in any such action or proceeding the said board may, by affidavit setting forth the facts, apply to the court of chancery for an order enjoining and restraining all persons from doing or permitting to be done any work in or about such tenement-house, building, structure or lot, or from occupying or using the same for any purpose until the final order or decree of said court; in case any notice or order issued by the said board is not complied with, the said board may apply by petition to the court of chancery for an order authorizing said board to execute and carry out the provisions of such notice or order, to remove

203. On or before the first day of May next, the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, shall appoint five persons, who shall constitute a board of tenement-house supervision, to be known as the board of tenement-house supervision of the state of New Jersey, and who shall hold office for the term of one, two, three, four and five years, as designated in their respective appointments, and until their successors shall have been appointed and qualified; and the governor shall annually thereafter appoint one person to fill the vacancy in the said board, who shall hold office for five years and until his successor shall have been appointed and qualified; if the office of any appointed member shall for any cause become vacant before the expiration of the term for which such member was appointed, the same shall be filled by the governor for the unexpired term only; the members of the said board shall be allowed their expenses actually incurred in and about the work of the board, which sum the treasurer of this state is hereby authorized to pay from any moneys in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, upon a warrant drawn by said board, signed by its president and attested by its secretary.

204. The said board shall elect one of its members as president, who shall call meetings of the said board once in every month, and also whenever in his judgment it shall be necessary and also whenever requested so to do by three members of the board; and the said board shall also elect a secretary to serve for the term of five years, whose compensation shall be fixed by the said board, subject to the approval of the governor.

205. The said board may, subject to the approval of the governor, appoint and remove such subordinate officers, assistants and employes as may be necessary, and assign them to duty in any part of the state; which officers and employes shall be paid by the board out of the moneys appropriated therefor, such sums as may be fixed and determined by the said board, subject to the approval of the governor.

206. The said board shall make all regulations as may be necessary for the proper administration of their duties under this act; and shall design and adopt a seal, and cause the same to be used in the authentication of the orders and proceedings of the board, and for such other purposes as may be necessary; the courts shall take judicial notice of such seal and of the signatures of the president and secretary of the said board.

Regulations
and seal.

207. The said board shall, in the month of November of each year, make a report to the governor of its investigations and the results accomplished for the year ending October thirty-first, with such communications and suggestions concerning the same as it may deem proper.

CHAPTER 62.

An Act to amend an act entitled "An act to define the duties and fix the salary of the attorney-general," approved February twenty-fourth, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four.

BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

Section
amended.

1. Section one of an act entitled "An act to define the duties and fix the salary of the attorney-general," approved February twenty-fourth, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Duties of the attorney-general.

1. It shall be the duty of the attorney-general, when not incompatible with his other public duties, to be present at the seat of government during the session of the legislature, to give to the members of the senate and assembly, and to the executive, and all the officers of the state government, such legal information as they may from time to time request, examine and decide all cases submitted for his opinion by the state superintendent of common schools or other state officials or commissions, attend in any county of the state for the trial of homicide cases, or other high crimes, on the written request of a justice of the supreme court, or of the board of chosen freeholders of any county, upon all applications for loans of the school fund to inspect the title papers, to attend generally to all matters in which the state is a party or in which its rights and interests are involved, and to act as advisor or counsel for all state boards, commissions or other state officials, and to be, in connection with such assistants as may be employed in his department, the sole legal advisor, attorney or counsel thereof and to represent them in all suits or actions of any kind that may be brought for or against them in any courts of this state.

2. From and after the passage of this act it shall be lawful for the attorney-general to appoint an assistant in his office, who shall be commissioned by the governor to be assistant attorney-general and who shall hold his office during the pleasure of the attorney-general making the appointment, but in no case to extend beyond the term for which said attorney-general is commissioned, and the said assistant attorney-general shall be required to take and subscribe an oath of like form and character that is administered to the attorney-general; it shall be the duty of the assistant attorney-general, in co-operation with and under the direction of the attorney-general, at all times to carry out and perform the duties herein imposed upon the office or department of attorney-general; the assistant attorney-general shall receive for his salary compensation at the rate of five thousand dollars per annum, payable monthly out of the treasury of this state upon the warrant of the comptroller; there shall be such other clerks and assistants in the office of the attorney-general as the business of the department shall require and the attorney-general shall appoint; and the attorney-general shall have the power, whenever any exigency shall require, to employ a special or local counsel to assist in the trial of any particular case.

2. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed; provided, that nothing herein contained shall abridge the term of office of any person heretofore appointed; and provided, that this act shall not apply to cities where such officers are now or may be elected by popular vote.

3. This act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 25, 1904.

CHAPTER 64.

An Act regulating the age, employment, safety, health and work hours of persons, employes and operatives in factories, workshops, mills and all places where the manufacture of goods of any kind is carried on, and to establish a department for the enforcement thereof.

BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

EMPLOYMENT OF CHILDREN.

Minimum
age for employment in factories.

1. No child under the age of fourteen years shall be employed, allowed or permitted to work in any factory, workshop, mill or place where the manufacture of goods of any kind is carried on; any corporation, firm, individual, parent, parents or custodian of any child who shall violate any of the provisions of this section, shall be liable to a penalty of fifty dollars for each offense.

2. The word custodian as used in this act shall include any person, organization or society having the legal custody of a child.

Custodian defined.

3. If at the time of the employment of a child, the proofs of age specified in subdivisions I. and II. of this section, are filed with the corporation, firm or person employing the child, such proofs shall be conclusive evidence of the age of child in a suit against such employer for a violation of section one; provided, however, that correct copies of all papers, certificates, passports and affidavits relating to such employment shall be mailed, postage prepaid, to the department having charge of the enforcement of this act, at Trenton, New Jersey, within twenty-four hours after the same are filed, together with a statement of the legal name of the person, firm or corporation employing such child.

Certificate of age as evidence.

Proviso.

I. Native Born Children.

The parent, parents or custodian shall make and swear to an affidavit before some officer authorized by the law of this state to take affidavits, setting forth the following facts: The name of the child in full; his or her residence, giving street and number; place where and year, month and day when born; name of father; maiden name of mother; church attended, if any; school last attended and time when, if any, and where the church and school are situated; if child was baptized, name and location of church or parish in which such baptism took place; there must accompany such affidavit a transcript of the record of the child's birth, duly attested by an officer having by law the authority to keep records of birth in the state, county, town or city in which the child was born; if no such birth record can be obtained and the child was baptized, then a certified copy of the baptismal record of the church or parish in which such baptism took place, duly certified as a true copy, under the hand of the person having the custody of such church or parish records, shall accompany the affidavit, and the

II. Foreign Born Children.

Of foreign born children.

An affidavit to be made by the same persons and containing the same statement of facts as in the case of native born children, with an additional statement that the child named in the affidavit is the same mentioned and described in the passport under which the child was admitted to this country; a true copy of said passport must in all cases be attached to the affidavit.

III. Other Children.

Of others.

The commissioner shall have power to issue permits of employment to children upon the production of evidence of the child's age satisfactory to him; provided, that he shall first be satisfied that the child cannot obtain a transcript of birth record, a baptismal certificate or passport, as provided in either subdivision I. or II.

Proviso.

Baptismal record in evidence.

4. In any suit brought to recover a penalty for violation of section one of this act, a copy of the baptismal record, certified to be a true copy under the hand of the person having the custody of such records for the church or parish in which such child was baptized, shall be prima facie evidence of the child's age (provided, that in case the age of the child is not set forth in the baptismal record, that there shall be other proof showing the age of the child at the time he or she was baptized).

Proviso.

of age.

5. The commissioner, assistant or any inspector is hereby empowered to demand of any parent, parents or custodian, proof of the age of a child satisfactory to the commissioner, and such parent, parents or custodian shall, within five days after such demand is made, furnish to such officer proofs of such child's age; and in event of the failure to procure and furnish such proof of age, such child shall be discharged by his or her employer upon notice in writing signed by the commissioner, and shall not be re-employed until such proof of age shall have been furnished to the commissioner; any person violating the provisions of this section shall be liable to a penalty of fifty dollars for each offense.

false swearing.

6. Any one who shall swear falsely to any affidavit or present any certificate or passport which he or she knows to be false, and any person or persons who shall aid, assist or advise the making of a false affidavit or the obtaining of a false certificate or passport, shall be liable to a penalty of fifty dollars for each offense.

7. The commissioner, assistant or the inspectors shall have power to demand a certificate of physical fitness from some regular practicing physician in the case of minors under the age of sixteen years, who, in the judgment of such officer, shall be physically unable to do the work in which such minor is employed, and shall have the power to prohibit the employment of such minor until he or she shall produce a certificate of physical fitness; and any manufacturer or employer who shall retain in his employ a minor after such certificate shall be demanded, shall be liable to a penalty of twenty-five dollars.

Certificate
of health.

8. A corporation, firm or person, owning or operating a place coming under the provisions of this act and employing, allowing or permitting minors under the age of sixteen years to work therein, shall keep or cause to be kept in the main office of such place, in the town or city where such place is located, a register in which shall be recorded the names, places of residence and time of employment of all such minors working under certificates, transcripts, passports or affidavits; such registers and certificates, transcripts and affidavits shall be produced for inspection upon demand of the commissioner, assistant or any of the inspectors; truant officers shall have the same right as inspectors to examine such registers and the certificates, transcripts, passports or affidavits, when authorized in writing so to do by the commissioner; any corporation, firm or person failing to keep such register or refusing to permit the persons herein authorized to inspect the same or the certificates, transcripts, passports or affidavits, shall be liable to a penalty of fifty dollars for each offense.

kept.

Open to inspection.

9. No minor under the age of sixteen years shall be employed, permitted or allowed to work in places coming under the provisions of this act, more than ten hours in a day or fifty-five hours in a week; any corporation, firm or person permitting or allowing any violation of week's work.

the provisions of this section, shall be liable to a penalty of fifty dollars for each offense.

affidavits as to age.

10. Affidavits of the age of children made and filed with the manufacturer before this act takes effect, shall have the same force and effect as the proofs required under subdivisions I. and II. of section three, of this act.

PROTECTION OF EMPLOYES.

Hoistways protected.

11. The openings of all hoistways, hatchways, elevators and well-holes upon every floor of any place coming under the provisions of this act, shall be protected by good and sufficient trap-doors or self-closing hatches and safety catches, or strong guard-rails at least three feet high, and shall be kept closed and protected at all times except when in actual use by the occupant of the building having the use and control of the same.

As to doors.

12. All the main doors, both inside and outside of places coming under the provisions of this act, shall open outwardly or be sliding doors, and shall be kept unbolted and unlocked during the hours of employment.

machinery.

13. The owner or person in charge of any of the places coming under the provisions of this act, where machinery is used, shall provide, in the discretion of the commissioner, belt shifters or other mechanical contrivances for the purpose of throwing on or off belts or pulleys; whenever practicable, all machinery shall be provided with loose pulleys, all vats, pans, saws, planers, cogs, gearing, belting, shafting, set-screws, drums and machinery of every description shall be properly guarded; no person shall remove or make ineffective any safeguard around or attached to such machinery, vats or pans while the same are in use, unless for the purpose of immediately making repairs thereto, and all such safeguards so removed shall be promptly replaced; if the machinery, or any part thereof, or any vat, pan or vessel containing molten metal or hot liquid is in a dangerous condition or is not properly guarded, the use thereof may be prohibited by the commissioner, and a notice to that effect shall be attached thereto; such notice shall not be removed until the machinery is made safe and the

required safeguards are provided; and in the meantime such unsafe or dangerous machinery, vats, pans, or vessels containing molten metal or hot liquid shall not be used; when, in the opinion of the commissioner, it is necessary, the halls leading to work-rooms shall be provided with proper lighting facilities.

Halls lighted.

BLOWERS IN WORKSHOPS.

14. All corporations, firms or persons conducting a manufacturing business in any of the places coming under the provisions of this act, where emery wheels or emery belts of any description are used, either solid emery, leather, leather covered, felt, canvas, linen, paper, cotton, or wheels, or belts rolled or coated with emery or corundum, or cotton wheels used as buffs, shall provide the same with blowers or similar apparatus, which shall be placed over, beside or under wheels or belts in such a manner as to protect the person or persons using the same from the particles of the dust produced and caused thereby, and to carry away the dust arising from or thrown off by such wheels or belts while in operation, directly to the outside of the building, or to some receptacle placed so as to receive and confine such dust; provided, that grinding machines upon which water is used at the point of the grinding contact and small emery wheels that are used temporarily for tool grinding in small shops employing not more than three persons at such work, shall be exempt from the provisions of this section if so ordered by the commissioner.

Maintenance of blowers in connection with emery wheels.

Proviso.

15. It shall be the duty of any person, firm or corporation conducting such manufacturing business, to provide or construct such appliances, apparatus, machinery or other things necessary to carry out the purpose of this act, as set forth above, as follows: Each and every such wheel shall be fitted with a sheet or cast-iron hood or hopper of such form and so applied to such wheel or wheels that the dust or refuse therefrom will fall from such wheels or will be thrown into such hood or hopper by centrifugal force and be carried off by a current of air into a suction pipe attached to some hood or hopper.

Size of suction pipe.

16. Each and every such wheel six inches or less in diameter shall be provided with a round suction pipe three inches in diameter; wheels six inches to twenty-four inches in diameter, with round suction pipe five inches in diameter; and all wheels larger in diameter than those stated above shall be provided each with a round suction pipe not less than six inches in diameter; the suction pipe from each wheel so specified must be full size to the main trunk suction pipe, and the main suction pipe to which smaller pipes are attached shall in its diameter and capacity be equal to the combined area of such smaller pipes attached to the same, and the discharge pipe from the exhaust fan connected with such suction pipe or pipes shall be as large or larger than the suction pipe.

Connection and operation of blowers.

17. It shall be the duty of any person, firm or corporation operating any such place to provide the necessary fans or blowers to be connected with such pipe or pipes, as set forth in this act, which shall be run at the rate of speed such as will produce a pressure of air in such suction or discharge pipes sufficient to raise a column of water not less than five inches in a U-shaped tube; all branch pipes must enter the main trunk pipe at an angle of forty-five degrees or less; the main suction or trunk pipe shall be below the emery or buffing wheels and as close to the same as possible, and shall be either upon or beneath the floor on which the machines are placed to which such wheels are attached; all bends, turns or elbows in such pipes must be made with easy, smooth surfaces, having a radius in the throat of not less than two diameters of the pipe on which they are connected.

Orders.

18. It shall be the duty of the commissioner to make orders in writing for the carrying into effect the provisions of sections fourteen, fifteen, sixteen and seventeen.

SIZE OF ROOMS.

Air space per operative.

19. Not less than two hundred and fifty cubic feet of air space shall be provided for each employe or operative at work in a room in a place within the meaning of this act between the hours of six o'clock in the morning and six o'clock in the evening, and not less than four hundred cubic feet of air space for each employe so employed between the hours of six o'clock in the evening and six o'clock in the morning; provided, in all cases where the amount of air space provided does not exceed the amount above fixed, that such room is lighted by electricity during all hours that artificial lights are necessary and persons are employed therein, unless a written permit shall be obtained from the commissioner. Proviso.

VENTILATION.

20. The owner, agent or lessee of a place coming under the provisions of this act, or employer, shall provide in each work-room thereof proper and sufficient means of ventilation; in case of failure the commissioner shall order such ventilation to be provided; such owner, agent, lessee or employer shall provide such ventilation within twenty days after the service upon him of such order in writing, and in case of failure shall be liable to a fine of ten dollars for each day after the expiration of the time given by such order to make the change. Proper ventilation.

CLEANING MACHINERY.

21. No minor under sixteen years of age shall be required, allowed or permitted to clean any part of the gearing or machinery in any place coming under the provisions of this act, while the same is in motion, or to work between the fixed or traversing parts of any machinery while it is in motion by the action of steam, water or other mechanical power. Minors about machinery in motion.

EXPLOSIVES.

22. Every corporation, firm or person having or keeping in his or its place or manufactory coming under the provisions of this act, any explosive or inflammable compound, shall keep or store such explosive or inflam- Explosives.

nable compound in such factory, mill, workshop or place in such way as not to obstruct or render hazardous the egress of employes or operatives in case of fire.

SANITARY.

Separate toilet facilities.

23. Every factory, workshop or mill shall contain sufficient, suitable, convenient and separate water-closets for each sex, which shall be properly screened, ventilated and kept clean; and also a suitable and convenient wash-room; the water-closets used by women shall have separate approaches; if women or girls are employed, a dressing-room shall be provided for them when ordered by the commissioner.

Dusty factories.

24. Factories and workshops in which women and children are employed, and where dusty work is carried on, shall be lime-washed or painted at least once in every twelve months.

POSTING LAW.

Abstract of law posted.

25. An abstract of this law shall be prepared and furnished upon request by the commissioner to every corporation, firm or person in this state who is affected thereby, and every manufacturer to whom a copy of such abstract is sent or delivered shall post such abstract of this law and keep it posted in plain view in such place that it can be easily read by the employes or operatives in coming in or going out from said factory, workshop or mill.

OBSTRUCTING OFFICERS.

No hindrance of officials.

26. No person shall interfere with, delay, obstruct or hinder by force or otherwise, the commissioner, the assistant commissioner or inspectors, while in the performance of their duties, or refuse to answer in writing or otherwise, questions asked by such officers relating to the matters coming under the provisions of this act; no person shall impersonate an officer of the department or forge his certificate of authority.

FORFEITURE OF WAGES.

27. Any person, firm or corporation engaged in manufacturing which requires from persons in his or its employ, under penalty of forfeiture of a part of the wages earned by them, a notice of intention to leave such employ, shall be liable to the payment of a like forfeiture if he or it discharges without similar notice a person in such employ, unless in case of a general suspension of labor in his or its factory, mill or place where the manufacture of goods of any kind is carried on.

As to forfeiture of wages.

ACCIDENTS.

28. All accidents that prevent the injured person or persons from returning to work within two weeks, or which result in death, shall be reported in writing to the department, at Trenton, New Jersey, within twenty-four hours after the expiration of four weeks or after the death of such person injured, as the same may be; such notice may be sent by mail, postage prepaid.

Report of accidents.

NOTICE OF OCCUPANCY.

29. Every corporation, firm or person shall within one month after he, they or it shall begin to occupy a factory, workshop, mill or place where the manufacture of goods of any kind is carried on, notify in writing the department, at Trenton, New Jersey, of such occupancy, giving the legal title of such corporation and name of agent upon whom service of a summons can be made, and in case of a firm, the individual names of the members of the firm or the legal title of the concern so occupying such factory or workshop.

Notice by corporations or firms engaging in manufacturing.

PENALTIES.

30. For the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of sections eleven, twelve, thirteen, fourteen, fifteen, sixteen, seventeen, nineteen, twenty-one, twenty-

Penalties for violations.

two, twenty-three, twenty-four, twenty-six, twenty-seven and twenty-eight, the commissioner shall be and he is hereby authorized to make such orders in writing for the protection and safety of employes and operatives and the enforcement of this act in places coming under the provisions of this act, as in his judgment shall seem necessary to carry into effect the provisions of such sections; such order shall be in writing, signed by the commissioner, and shall specify what shall be necessary to be done and within what time; any corporation, firm or person violating any of the provisions of sections eleven, twelve, thirteen, fourteen, fifteen, sixteen, seventeen, nineteen, twenty-one, twenty-two, twenty-three, twenty-four, twenty-six, twenty-seven and twenty-eight, shall, for each offense, be liable to a penalty of fifty dollars.

SWEAT SHOPS.

No manufacturing in dwellings except by family.

Revocation of permit.

posted.

31. No room or rooms, apartment or apartments, in any tenement or dwelling-house, shall be used for the manufacture of coats, vests, trousers, knee-pants, overalls, cloaks, furs, fur trimmings, fur garments, shirts, purses, feathers, artificial flowers or cigars, except by the immediate members of the family living therein; no person, firm or corporation shall hire or employ any person to work in any room or rooms, apartment or apartments, in any tenement or dwelling-house, at making, in whole or in part, any coats, vests, trousers, knee-pants, overalls, cloaks, furs, artificial flowers or cigars, unless such person, firm or corporation first shall have obtained a written permit from the commissioner; which permit may be revoked by the commissioner at any time that the health of the community or of those employed as aforesaid may, in his judgment, require it, and that such permit shall not be granted until due and satisfactory inspection of the premises affected shall have been made by the said commissioner, assistant, or an inspector; such permit shall be framed and posted in a conspicuous place in the main room of the place to which it relates, shall be duly numbered and shall state the number of persons allowed to be employed therein.

32. Any person, firm or corporation being the owner, lessee or occupant of the place to which the preceding section relates, shall, for the violation of any of the provisions therein, be liable to a penalty of one hundred dollars for each offense.

Penalty for violating section 31.

33. This act shall not apply to a private house or private room used for manufacturing purposes by the family dwelling therein.

Exception.

FIRE-ESCAPES.

34. Every factory, workshop, mill or place where the manufacture of goods of any kind is carried on, now or hereafter erected, which is three or more stories in height and in which twenty-five or more operatives or employes shall be at work on or above the third floor, shall be provided with outside iron fire-escapes as hereinafter provided; the fire-escapes shall be located at such places on the said buildings as may be best suited for the purpose intended or as the commissioner may designate in writing, and shall take in one or more windows on each floor above the first floor; fire-escapes may project into the public highway to a distance not greater than four feet beyond the building line.

Maintain fire-escapes.

35. The fire-escapes shall consist of outside iron balconies, and stairways at each floor above the first connecting said balconies to the ground, except in the case of the fire-escape being over a public highway, when a drop-ladder shall connect the lowest balcony to the ground in a manner hereinafter specified; the stairways shall be placed at a slope no steeper than a ratio of one horizontal to one and one-quarter vertical; the balcony on the top floor shall be provided with a goose-neck ladder leading from said balcony to and above the roof.

Fire-escape, how constructed.

36. Balconies.—The balconies shall not be less than three feet in width, taking in at each story above the ground floor at least one window of each part of building separated by inside walls in which twenty-five or more operatives or employes shall be at work; they shall be below and not more than one foot below the window sills, and extend in front of and not less than nine inches beyond each window; there shall be a landing

not less than twenty-four inches square at the head and foot of each stairway; the stairway opening on each platform shall be of a size sufficient to provide clear headway; the windows or openings upon each balcony shall be of easy access and sufficiently large to permit easy passage through them, and shall be kept unobstructed; where the top of window sill is more than two feet above the floor of building, inside steps shall be provided.

capacity.

37. Floors of Balconies.—The floors of balconies shall be of wrought-iron or steel slats not less than one and a half inches by three-eighths of an inch, placed not more than one and one-quarter inches apart and well secured and riveted to iron battens not less than one and a half inches by three-eighths of an inch, not over two feet apart, and which battens shall rest on and be riveted to frame of balcony; said frame to consist of angle-iron not less than two and one-half inches by two and one-half inches by three-sixteenths of an inch thick, and to extend around the four sides of balcony floor, to rest upon brackets and be secured to same by rivets or bolts and to be riveted at corners; the openings for stairways in all balconies shall not be less than twenty-one inches wide and forty-two inches long, and such openings shall have no covers of any kind; the platforms of balconies shall be constructed and erected to safely sustain in all their parts a safe load of not less than eighty pounds per square foot, utilizing a ratio of four to one between the safe working load and the ultimate strength of all parts.

Railings.

38. Railings.—The outside top rail shall in no case be less than three feet above the floor of balcony, and shall extend around the entire platform and in all cases shall go through the wall at each end, be worked out to three-quarter inch bolt size and be properly secured by nuts with washers at least four inches square and three-eighths of an inch thick, and no top rail shall be connected at angles by cast iron; the top rail of balconies shall be one and three-quarters inches by one-half inch of wrought-iron or one and a half inch angle-iron at least three-sixteenths of an inch thick, or such size and shape as shall be approved by the commissioner; the bottom rails shall in no case be more than eight inches above the floor of balcony and shall be of one and one-half inches by three-eighths of an inch wrought-iron, or of one and a half inch angle-iron at least three-sixteenths of an inch thick, well leaded or cemented into the wall; the standards or filling-in bars shall not be less than one-half inch round or square wrought-iron, well riveted to the top and bottom rails and to platform frame immediately where adjacent to brackets and shall be placed not more than six inches apart.

39. Stairways.—The stairways shall be constructed and erected to fully sustain in all their parts a safe load of not less than one hundred pounds per step, utilizing a ratio of four to one between the safe working load and the ultimate strength of all parts, with the exception of the tread, which must safely sustain at said ratio a concentrated load of two hundred pounds; the treads shall be not less than seven inches wide and the rise of each step not more than nine inches; the treads shall be flat open treads of cast-iron not less than five-eighths of an inch thick, or of flat bars not over one and one-quarter inches wide or less than three-eighths of an inch thick, with spaces between not more than one inch or less than one-half of an inch; such bars to be riveted to angle-irons of not less than one and one-half inches in size, secured to strings, with double rivets or bolts; the stairs shall be not less than twenty inches wide between inside of strings, and there shall remain a clear passage between stairway and wall of building of not less than fourteen inches; the strings shall be not less than three-inch channels of iron or steel, or other shape equally strong, and shall, at both top and bottom, rest upon and be fastened to a bracket, which shall be fastened through the wall as hereinafter provided; the stairs shall have a hand-rail of not less than three-quarter inch round wrought-iron rod or pipe, on each side not less than thirty inches or more than forty-two inches above steps at any point, and same shall be secured and well braced.

Stairways;
capacity,
tread, etc.

40. Brackets.—The brackets shall be placed not more than four feet apart and not be less than three-quarters of an inch by one and one-half inches wrought-iron placed edgewise, or one and three-quarter inch angle-

CHAPTER 66.

An Act to amend an act entitled "An act to provide for the regulation and incorporation of insurance companies and to regulate the transaction of insurance business in this state," approved April third, one thousand nine hundred and two.

BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

Section
amended.

1. Section sixty-six of the act entitled "An act to provide for the regulation and incorporation of insurance companies and to regulate the transaction of insurance business in this state," approved April third, one thousand nine hundred and two, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Restrictions imposed upon foreign companies.

66. When by the laws of any other state or foreign country or the rules, regulations, requirements or impositions thereof, or of any department or officer thereof, any taxes, fines, penalties, licenses, fees, deposits of moneys or of securities or other obligations, prohibitions or restrictions additional to, or in excess of, those imposed by the laws of this state upon insurance companies of such other state or foreign country or their agents, are imposed on insurance companies of this state doing business in such other state or foreign country, or upon their agents therein, so long as such laws, rules, regulations, requirements or impositions continue in force, the same excess taxes, fines, penalties, licenses, fees, deposits, obligations, prohibitions and restrictions, of whatever kind, shall be imposed upon all such insurance companies of such other state or foreign country doing business within this state, and upon their agents here; and whenever pursuant to or under authority of the laws of any other state or foreign country, or the rules, regulations, requirements or impositions thereof, or of any department or officer thereof, or otherwise, the government of any such other state or foreign country, or any department or officer thereof, shall refuse to accept as conclusive the certificate of the commissioner of banking and insurance of this state as to the results of any examination he shall cause to be made of the assets and liabilities, method of conducting business and other affairs of any insurance company of this state, the said commissioner of banking and insurance of this state shall refuse to accept as conclusive any and all similar certificates made in or by, or by any department or officer of, such state or foreign country where the acceptance of the certificate of the commissioner of banking and insurance of this state is refused as aforesaid concerning any and every insurance company thereof; and if any insurance company of this state shall be refused or denied license, permission, privilege or authority to transact or to continue to transact its business in any other state or foreign country by reason of such refusal of conclusive acceptance of any such certificate of the commissioner of banking and insurance of this state, or if any insurance company of this state authorized to transact its business in this state, after complying with all the laws, rules, regulations, requirements or impositions of any other state or foreign country, or of any department or officer thereof, over and above such as would be met and fulfilled by the conclusive acceptance of such certificate of the commissioner of banking and insurance of this state, shall be refused or denied license, permission, privilege or authority to transact or to continue to transact its business in any such other state or foreign country, then and in every such case every insurance company of every such other state or foreign country where any such insurance company of this state is refused or denied license, per-

An Act enabling and empowering cities now or hereafter acquiring their water-supply from artesian wells to construct connecting water-pipe lines and mains and artesian wells, and to purchase and erect or set up meters, machinery and other fixtures, and to purchase and condemn lands, waters and rights and otherwise to improve, enlarge and extend the water-supply and water-works plant of such cities.

BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

Extension
system.

1. It shall and may be lawful for the governing body of any city now or hereafter acquiring its water-supply from artesian wells, whenever, in its judgment, it shall deem it expedient so to do, to cause to be constructed an additional pipe line or main to connect such water-supply with any distributing reservoir within such city, or with water-supply pipes or mains at any point within such city, and to dig and construct artesian wells and to purchase and erect or set up meters, machinery and other fixtures in connection with and for the improvement of the water-supply and water-works plant of such city, and to purchase and condemn lands, waters and rights and otherwise to improve, enlarge and extend said water-supply and water-works plant of such city; provided, however, that all such work shall be done and constructed by contract, after public bidding therefor, in the manner prescribed in the laws now governing such city.

Proviso.

2. In order to supply the funds required for the purposes mentioned in section one of this act, the governing body of such city is hereby authorized and empowered to issue water bonds of said city to an amount not exceeding two hundred thousand dollars, which bonds shall be sold at public sale for not less than par and accrued interest; and all moneys received from the sale of said bonds, including any premium or premiums, shall be used exclusively for such purposes.

Issue water bonds.

3. The bonds to be issued under the provisions of this act shall be payable in not more than thirty years from the date thereof, and shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding four per centum per annum and be of such denomination as said governing body shall determine, and shall be executed under the corporate seal of said city and the signature of the comptroller, city clerk and city treasurer, and may be either registered or coupon bonds as said governing body may direct; and said governing body may, from time to time, at the request and expense of the holders thereof, exchange coupon bonds for registered bonds or change the denomination of said bonds.

Time, rate, execution, etc.

4. In order to redeem such bonds at maturity, there shall be established in such city a sinking fund into which it shall be the duty of said governing body to pay or cause to be paid, annually, a sum equal to two per centum of the bonds issued under the provisions of this act, which sinking fund shall be appropriated, raised and provided by annual taxation or otherwise by said governing body and shall be under the charge and control of the sinking fund commissioners of such city by whatsoever name they may be called.

building in whole or part.

6. Where the widening of such street shall take in whole or in part any building, said commissioners may determine, as to them shall seem most just, to take the whole of said building or so much thereof as stands on the lands required for widening of such street, or to require the owner or owners thereof to move it back from and outside of the line of said street, in case the owner or owners have land enough left for that purpose, and the appraisement of said commissioners, having due regard to all attendant expense, shall be made accordingly, also estimating and considering the amounts likely to be realized from the sale of any building or part thereof to be taken or disposed of for or on account of the widening of said street.

7. All work and material over and exceeding five hundred dollars in value done, furnished in and about the widening and improving such street, shall be done or furnished by contract after advertisements in the manner provided by law in such city for the awarding of contracts for street improvements.

contract.

8. The cost of the widening and improvement contemplated by this act, including all the expenses of the work, and such sum or sums of money as may be necessary to acquire any real estate or easements therein for the purposes of this act, shall be borne by the city at large, and said city shall provide for the payment thereof as hereinafter provided.

Expense
borne by city.

9. In order to raise money necessary to pay the costs and charges and expenses of widening and improving such street in accordance with the provisions of this act, including money necessary to pay for awards of the commissioners or findings of juries as herein provided, the board or body in such city having charge of the finances is hereby authorized and empowered, from time to time, either before or while the improvement provided for as aforesaid is in progress, to issue and sell bonds of said city, in such sums as the said board having charge of the finances of said city may deem proper, but not to exceed the costs and expenses of said improvement, payable in not more than forty years from the date thereof, and bearing interest at a rate not exceeding four per centum per annum, and to be of such denomination as said board or body having charge of the finances of said city may determine, and which bonds may be either registered or coupon bonds, as such board may determine, and the same may be made payable, both principal and interest, at the office of the city clerk of said city; that the moneys realized from

and interest.

10. For the purpose of discharging the bonds issued under the provisions of this act, as they mature, and for the payment of the interest thereon, the board or body having charge of the finances of said city shall each year place in the tax levy of said city, for such year as long as such bonds shall run, a sufficient sum to pay all interest on such bonds falling due during such year, and also to pay such per centum of the principal of such bonds as said board may determine, which per centum so raised shall be paid annually to the board or body having charge of the sinking fund of such city, for the purpose of paying said bonds as they may become due; and said board shall also place in the tax levy of such city a sufficient sum to pay the principal of any of the said bonds falling due in any year as may not be provided for by the said sinking fund, and the said sum ordered to be levied and provided shall be levied and raised in the same manner as other city taxes are levied and raised.

street.

11. When any such street shall have been widened and improved in accordance with this act, no telegraph wires, telephone wires, trolley feed wires or wires of any other description or poles of any character, except iron standards or iron poles which may be necessary for street lighting and iron poles or standards and wires for overhead trolley systems, shall be allowed above ground.

improvements.

12. Said board or body having control of the streets and highways, with the approval and consent of the board or body having control of the finances of said city, and also with the approval and consent of the mayor of said city, for the purpose of carrying this act into effect, may employ an engineer, and fix his compensation, and his tenure of office and employment shall be during and at the pleasure of the board or body having control of the streets and highways in said city.

13. In case said street or thoroughfare shall be occupied by any trolley or street railway company, the said municipality is hereby authorized to make such agreement with such company in relation to said improvement as may be mutually agreed upon between said municipality and said company.

Agreement

CHAPTER 96.

An Act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of Provident loan associations.

BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

Formation of provident loan associations.

1. Upon executing, recording and filing a certificate pursuant to this act any three or more persons, citizens of this state, may become an incorporated association for the purpose of aiding such persons as shall be deemed in need of pecuniary assistance by loans of money, at interest, not exceeding two hundred dollars to any one person, upon a pledge or mortgage of personal property.

Certificate of incorporation.

2. The certificate of incorporation shall be signed in person by all the subscribers to the stock named therein, and shall set forth:

Name.

I. The name of the association;

Location.

II. The city or other municipality where it is to be located and its business transacted, which shall be within this state;

Object.

III. The object for which it is formed;

stock.

IV. The amount of the total authorized capital stock of the association, which shall not be less than two thousand dollars, and the number of shares into which the same is divided, and the par value of each share; the amount of capital stock with which it is to commence business, which shall not be less than one thousand dollars; also the number of shares subscribed for by each of the incorporators.

Distinct
name.

3. The name assumed by any such association shall not be so nearly like that of any other association as to deceive the public and the words "Provident Loan Association" shall form a part thereof, and such name shall be approved by the commissioner of banking and insurance.

4. The certificate of incorporation shall be proved or acknowledged as required for deeds of lands and recorded in the office of the clerk of the county where the association is located, and after being so recorded shall be filed in the department of banking and insurance, and said certificate, or a copy thereof, duly certified by the commissioner of banking and insurance, shall be evidence in all courts and places; upon making, recording and filing such certificate the persons so associated and their successors and assigns shall, from the date of such filing constitute a body corporate by the name set forth in such certificate, with all the powers mentioned in the first section of the act entitled "An act concerning corporations" [Revision of 1896], except such powers as may be inconsistent with the provisions of this act.

Incorporation recorded with county clerk; copy with commissioner of banking.

5. The business of every such association shall be managed by its directors, who shall respectively be shareholders thereof; they shall be not less than three in number, and shall be chosen annually by the stockholders at the time and place provided in the by-laws, and shall hold office for one year and until others are chosen and qualify in their stead.

Directors.

6. Every such association shall have a president, secretary and treasurer, who shall be chosen by the directors, and shall hold their offices until others are chosen and qualify in their stead; the president shall be chosen from among the directors; the secretary shall be sworn to the faithful discharge of his duty and shall record all the votes of association and directors in a book to be kept for that purpose, and perform such other duties as shall be assigned to him; the treasurer shall give bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be required by the by-laws for the faithful discharge of his duties; the association shall have such other officers, agents and factors, who shall be chosen in such manner and hold their office for such term, as shall be prescribed by the by-laws; all vacancies in the board of directors or any office shall be filled by the board for the unexpired term.

Officers and agents.

8. Every such association shall have the general powers of a corporation formed under the "Act concerning corporations" [Revision of 1896], and shall be subject to all the duties, obligations and restrictions of such a corporation so far as applicable thereto, and shall have the following additional powers: it shall be entitled to act as pawnbroker, and shall be subject to and entitled to all the benefits of all the provisions of the laws of this state concerning pawnbrokers, except it shall not be required to obtain a license and file bond; it may loan money to such persons as shall be deemed to be in need of pecuniary assistance, and may take as security for the payment of any such loan either a pledge or mortgage on personal property, together with other lawful securities; it shall be entitled to charge and receive on each loan made by it interest or discount at a rate not exceeding two per centum per month for a period of two months or less and not exceeding one and one-half per centum per month for any period after two months; but no such loan greater than two hundred dollars shall be made, nor shall any one person owe such association more than two hundred dollars of principal at any one time; no director of any such association shall receive any compensation for his services, either as a director or as an officer, nor shall any director or stockholder be personally liable for any debt incurred by the association.

9. No such association shall in any year declare or pay dividends on its capital stock amounting to more than six per centum; after any such association shall have accumulated a surplus amounting to fifteen per centum of its capital, the commissioner of banking and insurance shall, upon ascertaining that such association has, during the previous calendar year, made a net profit amounting to more than six per centum on its capital, have authority to make an order reducing the rate of interest, discount and charges which said association may lawfully charge and receive upon loans, to such sums as may, in his judgment, produce the net return of six per centum on its capital stock; any such order shall take effect at such time, not less than four months after it is made, as the order shall name, and shall be in force for one year unless sooner revoked.

10. Every such association shall in the month of January in each year file in the department of banking and insurance on blanks to be provided by the commissioner of banking and insurance a report of its transactions, affairs and financial condition at the close of business at the end of the preceding calendar year, such report to be verified by the oaths of such officers and other persons as the commissioner of banking and insurance may designate; and the said commissioner may call for additional reports whenever he shall deem it expedient.

report.

11. The commissioner of banking and insurance may also, at any time, make or cause to be made an examination of the condition, business and affairs of any such association as often as he deems it necessary; if it shall appear to the commissioner of banking and insurance from any such examination or report that any such association is insolvent or has violated any of the provisions of this act or of any law of this state, or is conducting its business in an oppressive or unauthorized manner, or has by the payment of excessive salaries, excessive rents, or by any other means attempted to evade the provisions of this act relative to a reduction in the rate of interest which such association may legally charge, he may direct such association to discontinue or correct its objectionable methods and practices, and upon such association failing to comply with such directions, within reasonable time, the attorney-general of this state, upon request of such commissioner, may take proceedings in chancery for the dissolution of said association, which court shall have power to dissolve the same and appoint a receiver of its assets.

Examinations

to state.

12. Every such association shall pay to the commissioner of banking and insurance, for the use of the state, the sum of ten dollars for filing its annual report, and shall defray the expenses of any examination of its affairs as provided in this act, and the said commissioner may maintain an action for the recovery of such expenses in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Approved March 28, 1904.

3. For the payment of the expenditures herein authorized, the comptroller of the treasury shall draw his warrant on the state treasurer, and the state treasurer shall pay the same from time to time, as the said commission shall certify to the comptroller, and as may be necessary, to such person or persons as they may designate.

Approved March 28, 1904.

CHAPTER 99.

A Further Supplement to an act entitled "An act to establish in this state boards of health and a bureau of vital statistics and to define their respective powers and duties," approved March thirty-first, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven.

BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

To prevent keeping milch cows in unwholesome places.

1. Whenever any person shall keep cows for the production of milk in a crowded or unhealthy place or condition, or feed any cows kept for the production of milk on swill or any substance in a state of putrefaction or rottenness, or on any substance of an unwholesome nature, or on any substance that may produce disease or unwholesome milk; or who shall sell or distribute, or offer to sell or distribute, or have in possession with intent to sell or distribute any milk which is the produce of cows so kept or fed, then it shall be lawful for the state board of health to file a bill in the court of chancery in the name of the state, on the relation of such board, for an injunction to prohibit the keeping of cows for the production of milk in such crowded or unhealthy place or condition, or the feeding of cows on swill or any substance in a state of putrefaction or rottenness, or any substance of an unwholesome nature, or on any food or substance that may produce disease or unwholesome milk, or the continuance of the sale, distribution or transportation of such milk as the case may be, and for such other or further relief in the premises as the court of chancery shall deem proper.

An Act to enable the board of chosen freeholders of any county in this state to erect, construct and maintain a viaduct between two or more municipalities in such county connecting streets or roads of such county or municipalities, and to extend roads to connect with such viaduct, and to acquire lands for the same, and to issue bonds for the payment of the cost of the erection, construction and acquisition thereof.

BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

May construct viaduct.

1. Whenever the board of chosen freeholders in any county of this state shall deem it proper and necessary for public travel that a viaduct should be built connecting a street or road, whether municipal or county, in one or more municipalities with a street or road, whether municipal or county, in another municipality or municipalities in such county, and shall be of opinion that such viaduct should be built at the expense of the county at large, and shall so declare by resolution, then it shall and may be lawful for such board of chosen freeholders to erect, construct and maintain the same at the expense of such county.

road.

2. If, in the judgment of such board, it is wise and expedient to erect such viaduct at a point where it does not connect at one or more ends with a public highway, then it shall and may be lawful for such board to construct and maintain a road from either one or more ends of such viaduct, to connect with a street or streets, road or roads of such county or municipalities; and such viaduct proper and the road or roads so constructed shall be considered and classed as a viaduct within the meaning of this act; and wherever in this act the word "viaduct" is used it shall be construed, treated and considered as referring to such viaduct proper as well as the road or roads which may be constructed at either one or more ends thereof, as aforesaid.

3. If such board should conclude to build such viaduct, it shall cause surveys to be made and fix the location thereof, and cause drawings, plans and specifications to be made therefor, and shall advertise in one or more newspapers in such county and in such other manner as the board may direct, for at least two weeks, the time and place of the reception of bids and the terms of the bidding, which said bids shall be enclosed in sealed envelopes and presented in open meeting at the time and place appointed, and the several bids publicly announced, and the contract shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder who shall furnish security satisfactory to such board.

Surveys,
specifications,
proposals.

4. If it shall become necessary to acquire lands for the building of such viaduct, the board of chosen freeholders of such county is authorized to acquire such lands by gift, grant, purchase or in the manner set out and under the act entitled "An act to regulate the ascertainment and payment of compensation for property condemned or taken for public use," approved March twentieth, one thousand nine hundred (Revision of 1900), and the supplements thereto and amendments thereof, and the title to the lands shall be taken in the name of such board.

May acquire lands.

5. The total expense of viaducts contracted to be built under this act in any one year shall not exceed one-tenth of one per centum of the ratables of such county as ascertained for the then current fiscal year; nor shall there be issued for the erection of viaducts under this act in any period of five years bonds in the aggregate to exceed one-tenth of one per centum of the ratables as aforesaid.

in the tax levy for any one fiscal year would be too burdensome to the taxpayers of such county, it shall and may be lawful for such board to issue the bonds of such county to defray the expense thereof; which said bonds shall be of the denomination of one thousand dollars each, and be registered or coupon, as such board may determine, and shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding four per centum per annum, payable semi-annually, and shall run for a period not exceeding thirty years and shall be signed by the director and clerk of such board and countersigned by the county collector, and shall be sold at public sale to the highest bidder for not less than par; and said county shall annually thereafter place in the tax levy a sum sufficient to pay the interest on such bonds as it matures; and shall likewise create a sinking fund for the payment of said bonds at maturity, and place in the tax levy annually thereafter a sum sufficient with the accumulations thereof to pay off and discharge said bonds at maturity.

7. This act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 28, 1904.

CHAPTER 102.

An Act extending the time for commencing and completing certain railroads.

BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

Time for completing railroads extended.

1. Whenever the time limited for commencing the construction of any railroad, authorized to be constructed within this state under any general act and incorporated since the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and two, has expired, or whenever the time limited for the completion of any railroad authorized to be constructed within this state under any general act shall expire before the thirty-first day of December, one thousand nine hundred and four, such time for commençing the construction of such railroad is hereby extended until the first day of August following the passage of this act and such time for the completion of such railroad is hereby extended for the period of two years from the passage of this act; provided, however, Proviso. that this act shall not apply unless money has actually been expended in surveys or location of route or in acquisition of right of way or in construction since January first, one thousand nine hundred and two; provided further, Proviso. that this act shall not apply to any corporation unless such corporation shall first, and as a condition precedent to the exercise of any power granted by this act, file in the office of the secretary of state, an agreement, to be approved by the governor and attorney-general, waiving all right of exemption from taxation and from privileges and advantages arising from any law or contract, if any there be, establishing any special mode of taxation of any such corporation, and the further agreement to be bound by any general law of this state now in existence or that may be hereafter passed, taxing such corporations as are now authorized to be taxed by the legislature of the state under any general law, and further agreeing that the exercise of any power granted by this act shall not in any way affect the rights of this state, if any there exist, to take the property of such corporation under any existing law of this state.

2. This act shall be deemed a public act and shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 28, 1904.

Affidavit by clerk of supreme court.

2. The clerk of the supreme court, upon request made to him, may certify to the governor, if upon due and proper inquiry and inspection of records it shall so be made to appear, the following facts: (1) the name of the applicant under this act; (2) the term at which he was recommended to the governor for a license to practice as attorney-at-law and solicitor in chancery, or counselor-at-law, as the case may be; (3) the time when, and the governor by whom, said license was issued, as far as the same can be ascertained or inferred from the course of practice; (4) that said applicant took the proper oaths and signed the roll; (5) and that the applicant, at the date of certificate, has not been put out of the roll, nor is he under suspension by the supreme court of this state.

Applicant's
affidavit.

3. The applicant shall state in his own affidavit the fact of the loss or destruction of the written license, and the circumstances and manner of the same, so far as he may know or have cause to believe.

Governor
may issue confirmatory license; form.

4. The governor, upon receipt of the said certificate and affidavit, may issue his confirmatory license in the form following: "A. B., governor of the state of New Jersey, to all to whom these presents shall come, greeting: Whereas, it has been certified to me, among other things, that C. D., was by the written license of E. F., late governor of this state, on or about, et cætera., in the year of our Lord, et cætera., authorized to practice as an attorney-at-law and solicitor in chancery (or counselor-at-law, as the case may be); and it further is made to appear by affidavit that the said written license has been (lost or destroyed); now, therefore, know ye, that for the better assurance of the said C. D., in the premises, I do hereby confirm and repeat the authorization heretofore made to him, the said C. D., to appear in all the courts of record within the state of New Jersey and there to practice as an attorney-at-law and solicitor in chancery (or counselor-at-law) according to the laws and customs of said state for and during his good behavior in the premises; authorizing and empowering him, the said C. D., as heretofore, to have and demand, take and receive, such fees as are or may be by law established in said state for any service or services which he has done, or may do, as an attorney-at-law and solicitor in chancery (or counselor-at-law) in said state; and all judges, justices and others concerned are hereby required to take notice accordingly;" which said confirmation shall pass under the great seal.

5. The applicant shall pay to the clerk of the supreme court, at the time of the making of the certificate, the sum of one dollar; and to the secretary of state, at the time of the delivery to the licensee of the said confirmatory license, the sum of five dollars.

Payments.

6. Nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent any attorney-at-law and solicitor in chancery, or counselor-at-law, whose written license may have been lost, or destroyed, from resorting to any other legal evidence to prove his right to practice as such in the courts of this state.

Right to practice otherwise proven.

Approved March 28, 1904.

Approved March 28, 1904.

CHAPTER 146.

An Act to authorize cities to enlarge or construct water mains and to provide for the payment thereof.

BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

Increased water-supply.

1 It shall and may be lawful for the board or body having control of the water-supply in any city of this state to contract and provide for the enlargement of any water main or mains in any part of such city for the purpose of supplying to that section or part of such city, a quantity of water to be used for protection thereof in the case of fire additional to that necessary for the ordinary or usual needs of the said part or section of such city, and to that end full power and authority is hereby conferred upon such board or body to designate the section or part of the city so to be supplied, and the streets in which such main or mains are to be enlarged or constructed and to prepare maps, plans, specifications and estimates and to enter into contracts for such work.

Commission
to assess benefits.

2. If in the judgment of the said board or body having control of the water-supply, the enlargement of any existing water main or mains or the construction of any additional water main or mains for such a purpose as above set forth is likely to benefit and increase the value of any lands or real estate in the vicinity thereof, the said board shall refer the matter to that board or commission in which is vested the power and authority of making assessments for local improvements in such cities (when there is a permanent body or commission established) to compute, estimate and assess the benefits so conferred, and such board, body or commission shall in all respects be governed in making such assessment by the laws now or hereafter in force relating to and regulating the making of assessments for local improvements in such city, and the same practice and procedure shall in all respects be followed as now governs the making of such assessments.

3. In all cities where there does not exist a permanent board or body charged with the duty of making such assessment, the said board or body having charge of such water-supply, if in its judgment the said enlargement of existing main or mains or the construction of additional main or mains for such a purpose is likely to benefit and increase the value of any lands or real estate in the vicinity thereof, shall apply to the circuit court of the county wherein such city is situated for the appointment of commissioners to estimate and assess such benefits; the time and place of making such application, the number and qualifications and method of appointing such commissioners shall be the same as that provided for in cases of assessments for benefits conferred by the construction of sewers, and the commissioners so appointed shall in all respects be governed by the laws now in force relating to and regulating the making of such assessments.

commissioners.

4. No certiorari shall be allowed by any court to review any of the proceedings in relation to any such assessment whether made by a permanent commission or a commission appointed by the court, nor in any way affect any assessment made by such board or commission after the lapse of thirty days from the making of the order of the court confirming such assessment.

No certiorari
after thirty days.

5. All assessments made as aforesaid shall be and remain a first lien upon the lands and real estate affected thereby, notwithstanding any error or omission in stating the name or names of the owner or owners of any lot or parcel of such land and real estate, to the same extent as taxes and assessments are now a lien under the gen-

Bond issue.

6. For the purpose of raising money necessary to pay the cost of any such enlargement of existing main or mains or the construction of additional main or mains for the use aforesaid the board or body in such city having charge of the finances thereof is hereby authorized and empowered, in the first instance, to sell bonds of such city for an amount not exceeding the estimated costs and expenses of such improvement, payable in not more than thirty years from the date thereof, and bearing interest at a rate not exceeding four per centum per annum, and to be of such denomination as said board or body having charge of the finances of such city may determine, and which bonds may be either registered or coupon bonds; provided, however, that the bonds issued under this act in any one year shall not exceed the sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

Time, rate.

fund.

7. For the purpose of providing a fund to pay the interest on the said bonds while outstanding, and the principal when due all money received in payment of any assessment for benefits which may be ordered and made, with interest, fees and penalties paid therewith shall be set aside as a sinking fund and transferred to the sinking fund commissioners for that purpose; when such assessment for benefits shall not be equal to the costs of the construction of such work, or in the event of no assessment being ordered and made or if made reduced and set aside in any way, then the water rents or water rates received in such city not otherwise pledged sufficient to pay the interest on such bonds and provide a sinking fund of not less than two per centum of the principal of the bonds issued for payment of such work shall be set aside and paid over to the sinking fund commissioners for such purpose, and if it be found that the money received in the above manner and from such source or sources is insufficient to furnish such a fund from which to pay the annual interest on the said bonds and to provide such a sinking fund, then it shall be the duty of the common council or other body having control of the finances of any such city to raise a sum sufficient for this purpose in the annual tax levy and to pay over the sum raised to the sinking fund commissioners of such city..

Approved March 28, 1904.

CHAPTER 147.

A Supplement to "An act concerning banks and banking" [Revision of 1899], approved March twenty-fourth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine.

BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

1. When the directors of any bank incorporated by this state have, prior to the first day of July, anno domini one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, filed with the secretary of state of this state a certificate under their hands, setting forth that they have been authorized by three-fourths of the stockholders in interest of said bank to settle its affairs and surrender its corporate powers and privileges; and such bank has been reorganized as a banking association under the laws of the United States, such bank shall be deemed to have surrendered its state charter, and all the assets, real and personal, of such bank shall be deemed and taken, by act of law and without any conveyance or transfer, to have become vested in and the property of the said banking association formed as aforesaid under the laws of the United States, notwithstanding that the said directors have omitted to set forth in such certificate that the said stockholders had given their consent, in writing, to become an association for carrying on the business of banking under the laws of the United States, and that the said directors intended to act in pursuance thereof.

An Act concerning villages which have been or shall become separated from the township in which they were or are contained and which have been or shall be given complete autonomy of local government.

1. Every village of this state which shall have been or shall hereafter become separated from the township in which it was, is or shall be contained, and which has been, or shall be, given complete autonomy of local government, shall have power by its board of trustees to appoint a poundmaster, an overseer of the poor and three commissioners of appeal in cases of taxation, which officers shall hold office at the pleasure of the board of trustees and receive such compensation as shall be fixed by said board of trustees, and shall have the same powers and perform the same duties and be under the same obligations as are prescribed by law for similar officers in townships in the county in which the village is situate; such officers as the board of trustees shall require shall, before they enter upon their duties, give bond to the village in its corporate name in such sums and with such sureties as the board of trustees shall require and approve for the faithful performance of their duties.

Village officers appointed by trustees.

2. It shall be lawful for such board of trustees to raise moneys by taxation for the support of the poor in the same manner as other taxes in the village are now raised by law.

Poor tax.

3. Every such village shall be and remain a part of the school district of the township in which it was or is contained, and all school taxes in said village shall be levied, assessed and collected by the village assessor and collector, respectively, and the treasurer of said village shall pay the same to the custodian of the school funds

CHAPTER 177.

An Act concerning carriers [Revision of 1904.]

(Reported by the Revision Commissioners.)

BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

Penalty for overcharging.

1. Any person or persons, incorporated company or association, or any incorporated company in this state, which shall be authorized by law to take toll or to charge for the transportation of passengers, goods, wares or merchandise, which shall directly or indirectly take or demand from any passenger or person more than the charge, toll, rate or fare allowed by law, shall forfeit and pay one hundred dollars, besides costs of prosecution, for each and every offense, to be recovered in an action on contract by any person who may sue for the same, one-half to the prosecutor and the other half to the use of the state, before any court of competent jurisdiction.

Ticket agent's
certificate.

2. Each agent who may be authorized to sell tickets or other evidence entitling the holder to travel on any railroad, steamboat, or public conveyance, shall be provided with a certificate setting forth his authority to make such sales, duly attested by the seal of the owner or persons operating such railroad, steamboat or public conveyance, and also by the signature of the officer whose name is signed upon the tickets or coupons which such agent may sell; and such agent shall exhibit to any person desiring to purchase the ticket, or to any officer of the law who may request him, the certificate of his authority thus to sell, and shall keep said certificate conspicuously posted in his office for the information of travelers; and no person not possessed of such authority shall sell or transfer any coupon or part of any ticket, or other evidence of the holder's title to travel on any railroad, steamboat or other public conveyance, whether the same be situated, operated or owned within or without this state; any person selling, bartering or transferring any such coupon or part of any ticket, or evidence, in violation of this act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and be punished by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both, in the discretion of the court where such person shall be convicted.

Scalping
tickets a misdemeanor.

3. The owner or person operating any railroad, steamboat or other public conveyance shall provide for the redemption at his or its general office of the whole or such parts of coupons of any ticket sold as the purchaser has not used, and shall redeem the same at a rate which shall be equal to the difference between the price paid for the whole ticket and the cost of a ticket between the points for which the portion of said ticket was actually used.

Redemption
tickets.

4. On application of any railroad company, street railroad company, canal company or steamboat company, the governor of the state may appoint such persons as the company may designate to act as policemen for such company, and shall issue to each person so appointed a commission, a copy of which shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state; every person so appointed and commissioned shall, in the counties traversed by the conveyances or route of such company, possess all the powers of policemen and of constables in criminal cases of the several townships and municipalities in such counties, and shall receive from the company by whom employed, such compensation as shall be agreed between such company and person; when on duty, except when employed as detective, he shall wear in plain view a metallic shield or device with the words "railway police," "canal police" or "steamboat police" as may be appropriate, and the name or style of the company for whom appointed inscribed thereon; when any such company shall file in the office of the secretary of state a notice that it no longer requires the service of such policeman, his power as such shall cease and determine.

receive the same or to pay the costs and expenses of transportation, charges for detention or demurrage, the carrier or its agent may apply in writing to the judge of the common pleas court of the county, or to a judge of a district court of the city where such goods are deliverable, and said judge on proof that such goods have been transported, and are perishable and that the consignee cannot be found or neglects or refuses to receive the same or to pay the costs and expenses of transportation and detention or demurrage charges, shall order the public sale thereof by a constable or sheriff of the county at a time and place named in said order, of which sale such advertisement shall be made and notice given as the judge shall direct.

freight and baggage.

6. When freight, baggage, express or other property transported by any carrier to its destination shall not be called for by the owner or consignee, or when the owner or consignee cannot be found or is unknown or neglects or refuses to receive the same or to pay the costs and expenses of transportation and charges for detention or demurrage, and the same has remained in the possession of the carrier for six months or is perishable, the carrier may sell the same at public auction; public notice shall be given by advertisement in one or more newspapers of the county at least six days before the sale, and by notices set up at least five days before the sale in at least five of the most public places of the neighborhood where such property was directed to be left and where the sale is to take place, naming the articles to be sold, the names of the consignor and consignee, if known, the hour of sale, which shall be after ten in the forenoon, and before four in the afternoon, and the place of sale, which shall be made in some public place; if the residence of the consignee is known, written notice shall be given to him personally or by leaving the same at his residence or by mailing the same to him at his post-office address; where the property is perishable and will depreciate in value by being longer kept, the same may be sold after two days, in which case notice shall be published at least once and posted at least one full day, or in cases of urgency, such as shipments of milk or perishable fruit, the sale may be made at once to the best advantage at public or private sale without advertisement.

7. When a sale shall be made of such unclaimed freight, either by an officer of the court or by the carrier, the fees and expenses of the sale shall be first paid, and next the expenses and charges of the carrier for transportation, detention or demurrage and storage, and the residue shall be paid to the clerk of the county, and the officer or carrier making such sale shall file therewith a report of the sale, containing a list of the articles sold, the price for which, and the person to whom sold, the expenses of advertisement and sale, the expenses and charges paid to the carrier, the name of the consignor and consignee, and the places and dates of consignment and of receipt at destination, of all which the carrier shall keep record; the money so paid to the clerk shall be paid to the owner on the order of the county judge, but if no person shall, within one year after the sale, claim the proceeds, the same shall be paid into the school fund of the state.

of receipts of sale.

8. This act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 29, 1904.

CHAPTER 182.

An Act to protect real property in remainder or reversion when the tenant of the particular estate neglects or fails to take and keep possession thereof, or fails or neglects to pay taxes and municipal liens accruing thereon during the existence of the particular estate.

1. Whenever a particular estate exists in any real estate in this state, and there is a remainderman or reversioner or person entitled to ultimate enjoyment of said real estate, after the expiration of such particular estate, and the tenant of the particular estate or his assigns shall fail or neglect to take possession of said real property and keep possession thereof and maintain the same free from waste, and said real estate shall be depreciating in value by reason of failure of the said tenant to maintain the same as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the remainderman or reversioner or his assigns, or for the person entitled to the ultimate enjoyment of the said real property after the expiration of the said particular estate, to serve upon the said tenant of the particular estate a written demand, requiring said tenant to take and keep possession of said premises, or that he keep possession of the said premises, and maintain the same free from waste, which notice may be served upon said tenant personally, or by leaving it at his usual place of abode with some member of his family, or in case said tenant cannot be found in this state or is a non-resident, by attaching said notice upon some prominent part of said premises, and publishing the same in some newspaper printed and published in said county for not less than four weeks;

upon the neglect or refusal of said tenant to comply with said demand, within two months from the date of the service of said notice upon him, in the manner heretofore provided, it shall be lawful for the said remainderman or reversioner or other person in interest as above mentioned, to apply to the court of chancery of New Jersey for relief in the premises, and it shall be lawful for the said court of chancery, upon reasonable notice to said tenant, by order to show cause or otherwise as the court may direct, and after summary hearing, to appoint a proper person receiver, who shall, upon giving bond with sufficient surety to the chancellor, in such amount as he shall determine, take possession of said premises, and by leasing the same, or otherwise using the said property, according to the circumstances of the case, procure such income therefrom as may be possible; and said receiver shall apply such income to the payment of the expenses of the proceedings, to putting and maintaining the property in as good repair as it was in at the time of the commencement of such particular estate, and to the payment of taxes and other fixed charges on said property; and any surplus said receiver shall pay over to the said tenant of the particular estate upon the order of the court of chancery; at any time after the taking possession of the said premises by the said receiver, the said tenant of the particular estate may apply to the court for an order reinstating him in the possession of said premises, upon such terms as may be equitable and just, having regard to the object of this act, the circumstances of the particular case, and the rights of the remainderman or reversioner or other persons entitled to the ultimate enjoyment of said premises.

2. Whenever any tenant of any particular estate shall neglect or fail to pay any taxes and municipal liens now or hereafter by law chargeable to such tenant, which have accrued during the continuance of said particular estate, it shall be lawful for any remainderman or reversioner, or other person entitled to the ultimate enjoyment of said property, to serve a written notice or demand upon said tenant of the particular estate, requiring said tenant to pay said taxes and municipal liens now or hereafter by law chargeable to such tenant forthwith, which notice may be served in the same manner as is hereinbefore provided for the service of notice; and in case said tenant shall neglect or refuse to pay said taxes and municipal liens now or hereafter by law chargeable to such tenant for the space of three months from the date of service of said notice upon him, it shall be lawful for the court of chancery of New Jersey, upon the application of said remainderman or reversioner, or other persons in interest, as aforesaid, and upon the like practice and proceeding, as hereinbefore defined, to appoint a receiver with like powers, whose duty it shall be to take possession of said premises and who is hereby empowered to lease or use said premises as hereinbefore provided, and out of the income derived therefrom to pay said taxes and municipal liens now or hereafter by law chargeable to such tenant, and to keep the property in repair while in his possession; and any surplus after such payments, the receiver shall pay over to the tenant of the particular estate, upon the order of the court; at any time after the taking possession of said premises by the receiver and after said taxes and municipal liens now or hereafter by law chargeable to such tenant have been paid by him, the said tenant of the particular estate may apply to the court for an order, reinstating him in the possession of said premises, upon such terms as may be equitable and just, having regard to the object of this act, the circumstances of the particular case, and the rights of the remainderman or reversioner, or other persons entitled to the ultimate enjoyment of said premises.

An Act to amend "A further supplement to an act entitled 'An act to authorize the acquisition of real estate and the erection of buildings thereon, for the use of police departments in cities of this state,' " approved April eighth, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, which supplement was approved March ninth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

Section
amended.

1. Section two of the act "A further supplement to an act entitled 'An act to authorize the acquisition of real estate and the erection of buildings thereon, for the use of police departments in cities of this state,' " approved April eighth, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, which supplement was approved March ninth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sum raised annually to pay off bonds.

2. At least the sum of ten thousand dollars shall be raised in each and every year hereafter by the tax levy for such city and applied by the board having charge and control of the finances in such city to the payment of the bonds issued and to be issued under this act, and the acts of which this is a supplement, when the amount of the bonds issued and to be issued, shall exceed in the aggregate the sum of fifty thousand dollars, but when the bonds issued and to be issued shall be less than the sum of fifty thousand dollars, then and in that case, it shall be lawful for the board having charge and control of the finances of such city to fix and determine the amount to be raised in each and every year by the tax levy for such city, and applied to the payment of the bonds issued and to be issued under this act and the act to which this is an amendment.

2. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act be and the same are hereby repealed, and this act shall be deemed to be a public act and shall take effect immediately. Repealer.

Approved March 29, 1904.

CHAPTER 187.

An Act respecting the establishment and enforcement of liens for taxes and assessments upon real estate in cases where the records thereof have been lost or destroyed, and conferring upon the court of chancery jurisdiction to grant relief in such cases.

When records destroyed, court of chancery to determine amount of unpaid taxes, etc.

1. In case of the destruction of public records, by fire or otherwise, or in case of the loss of such records, whereby the ordinary and usual documentary evidence of the levy and assessment of taxes by any city, town, township, borough or other municipality of this state, is incapable of production, and taxes which are unpaid and are a lien upon lands or real estate are liable to be lost by reason of the inability of the city or municipality to which they are due to enforce the same under existing law without further power which will enable them to ascertain in a judicial manner the amount of such taxes and the extent and character of the particular lands and real estate upon which said taxes constitute a lien, the court of chancery shall have authority and jurisdiction to inquire into, and determine and fix the amount of such taxes and the interest and penalties thereon, and to declare and decree the extent and character of the particular lands and real estate upon which said taxes constitute a lien, and to enforce the collection thereof.

Proceedings by petition to court.

2. The proceedings in such cases shall be by petition filed in said court by the city, town, township, borough or other municipality desiring relief, whenever the governing board of the said city, town, township, borough or other municipality shall by resolution determine it proper to proceed; such petition shall state the year or years for which taxes are claimed to be in the lands mentioned therein shall be published in a newspaper printed in the municipality where said lands are situate, once a week for three successive weeks, the first publication to be within five days after the date of such mailing; in cases where service is so made upon a tenant or occupant or upon a defendant personally out of the state, or by mailing and publication, the defendant so served shall file his answer to the petition, and his answers to the interrogatories within thirty days after the date of such service or of such mailing, and shall serve a copy thereof upon the solicitor of the petitioner at his office address.

Proof of service.

3. Proof of service shall be made by affidavit to be filed in the court; upon the filing of the answers of all the defendants or upon the expiration of the period allowed by law for the filing of the answers, provided the defendants or any of them make default, the cause shall be considered at issue and may be brought to a hearing on five days' notice to such defendants as have appeared or filed answers; if no appearances be entered and no answers filed, the case may be set down for hearing ex parte at any time; the trial of cases brought under this act shall be summary, and the chancellor may make such rules and regulations for governing the practice hereunder as in his judgment will facilitate the determination of the cases and secure the rights of the parties; the chancellor may by standing order direct that all such cases arising in any one municipality shall be referred to a designated master in chancery residing therein, and may direct that in the first instance the petition and all other pleadings and papers be filed in the office of such master instead of in the office of the clerk in chancery, and that all orders and proceedings shall be had and taken before the master until the final order or decree which the master shall advise, and thereupon the whole record and papers shall be filed with the clerk of the Court; when a case is referred to a master he shall have and exercise for the control and trial and hearing thereof the same power, authority and jurisdiction possessed by the several vice chancellors in cases referred to them; if it be necessary or expedient in order to despatch the hearing and disposition of such cases arising in any municipality to appoint more than one standing master, the chancellor may designate two or more masters resident in said city for the purpose aforesaid, and the solicitor of the petitioner shall indorse upon the petition the name of the master before whom the case will be heard, but the chancellor may change such reference at any time.

4. It shall be lawful to join in one petition the owners of any or all the lands lying in any one block, in municipalities where lands are so laid out; and the owner or owners or mortgagees of each parcel of land included in the petition may answer and defend without reference to the proceedings against any of the other defendants, and the orders or decrees made in the case may include all or any part of said lands, as may be found advisable or convenient, from time to time; the petitioner may also include in any one petition as many different parcels of lands of the same owner or owners as may be deemed advisable.

5. Any defendant may be required, among other things, to make discovery whether the taxes on his lands have been paid for the years stated in the petition, and to produce and exhibit to the master all vouchers, receipts, tax bills, and other written or printed papers or documents relative thereto, in his possession, or in the possession of any other person under his control; and to account for the absence of any written or printed receipt or receipted tax bill showing that such taxes have been paid; failure to comply with any order of the court or of the master or to make discovery or produce papers, books or documents as required in any petition or order shall be deemed a contempt of court.

6. When it shall be established by the decree of the court in any case that there is a lien for unpaid taxes against any lands or real estate, such lien may be enforced and collected by the municipality to which it is due in the same manner and to the same effect as provided by law in respect to other taxes upon real estate therein, and the decree of the court shall be conclusive of the existence of said lien and the amount due thereon; or, in the discretion of the chancellor, execution may issue out of chancery to a master of said court to enforce the same by sale of said lands as in other cases; no appeal from any final order or decree shall be taken unless notice thereof shall be served within thirty days after the filing of the decree or order appealed from.

As to costs, fees, etc.

7. No costs shall be recovered by either party against the other; no fees shall be charged or paid to the state for any services of the chancellor or clerk except that copies of papers certified by the clerk shall be paid for as in other cases; masters in chancery shall receive compensation at the rate of twenty-five dollars per day while actually engaged in the hearing of cases or of motions, to be paid by the petitioner; no costs shall be taxed on either side for fees of solicitor or counsel.

filed.

8. A certified copy of the final decree in every case wherein a lien for taxes is established shall be filed in the office of the collector or receiver of taxes, or other officer with whom under the law is the custody of the records of unpaid taxes, and an abstract thereof showing the lands affected, the amount of the taxes, the year or years in which assessed, and the names of the defendants in the suit, shall be entered in a suitable book kept for that purposes.

Act applies
sessments.

9. All the provisions of this act shall apply to special assessments for local improvements the records of which have been lost or destroyed.

Legal assistance.

10. The mayor or other chief officer of any city, town, borough or village, and the township committee of any township, and the governing body of any other municipality proceeding under this act may appoint one or more special solicitors and other necessary assistants to aid in the prosecution of suits as aforesaid; but no such solicitor shall be appointed in any city except with the concurrence of the city counsel or other regular legal adviser; and the compensation of such special solicitors and other assistants shall be fixed in cities, boroughs and villages by the mayor or other chief officer, and in all other municipalities by the governing body, and paid by the municipality.

11. This act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 29, 1904.

CHAPTER 188.

An Act to amend an act entitled "An act to establish a thorough and efficient system of free public schools, and to provide for the maintenance, support and management thereof," approved October nineteenth, one thousand nine hundred and three.

BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

1. The one hundred and eighty-fifth section of the act to which this is a supplement be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section
amended.

185. The person designated by law as the custodian of the moneys belonging to the municipality in which the school district shall be situate, or the collector, when designated by such board of education, shall be the custodian of the school moneys of such district, and shall receive such compensation as the township committee, common council or other governing body of such municipality shall determine, which compensation shall be paid by said township committee, common council or other governing body from the funds of the township, incorporated town, borough, city or other municipality, and the bonds given by said collector or other person for the faithful performance of his duty as such officer, shall be held to cover and secure the faithful performance of his duty as custodian of school moneys, and the bondsmen thereon shall be liable therefor; in case the term of office of any such collector or other person shall expire before the close of the school year, he shall remain and continue to be the custodian of school moneys until the close of the then current school year, and his bondsmen shall remain and be legally bound for the faithful performance of his duties as such custodian until the final settlement of his accounts; nothing in this article shall

CHAPTER 222.

A Supplement to an act entitled "An act for the maintenance of bastard children" [Revision of 1898], approved June fourteenth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight.

1. After any bond has been entered into for the performance of any order of filiation, the overseer of the poor of any township or other municipality upon which the bastard child may be or become chargeable may apply to the court of quarter sessions of the county in which such township or other municipality may lie to inquire into the qualifications of the surety or sureties upon said bond, and said court may, upon such notice as it may deem proper, order a new bond with good and sufficient surety and with a condition similar to the one replaced by it to be given whenever the surety or sureties may have died or shall not then be satisfactory to the court.

Qualifications

become able to secure such bond or to comply with such order, the said court may, on application of the overseer of the poor of any township or other municipality which may be interested in the order and upon at least three days' written notice to such person, served upon him personally or left at his place of abode, inquire into the circumstances and ability of the putative father, and if it shall appear that such father shall have become able to secure such bond, or to comply with such order of filiation, may in its discretion commit such father to the common jail or penitentiary of the county, there to remain until he shall secure such bond and comply with such order and pay all costs, or be discharged by said court in the manner provided in the act to which this is a supplement.

Repealer.

4. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed, and this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 30, 1904.

CHAPTER 223.

An Act to enable cities which have no hospitals maintained by the city to enter into contracts for the purpose of supporting, maintaining and caring for indigent patients in any regularly incorporated hospital located in such city.

BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

Support of hospitals by cities having none.

1. It shall be the duty of every city in this state which has no hospital located therein maintained by such city, when the provisions of this act are assented to by a majority of the electors of such city, voting at any municipal election, to make and enter into a contract or agreement with any regularly incorporated hospital supported in whole or in part by private subscription, and located in such city, to pay to such hospital for a period not exceeding ten years in any one term, a sum equal to one-third of a mill on every dollar of assessable property returned by the assessor of said city, for the purpose of supporting, maintaining and caring for such indigent patients as may be sent to such hospital by order of any city physician, overseer of the poor or other proper authority of such city; provided, however, that this act shall not take effect in any city in this state until assented to by a majority of the legal electors thereof voting at any election for municipal officers to be held in such city.

Proviso.

2. The question of the adoption of the provisions of this act shall not be submitted to the electors of any city until after a resolution is passed by the legislative body of such city directing the clerk to give public notice of the submission of such question; that upon the adoption of such a resolution the clerk of such city shall cause notice of the submission of such question to be published in two newspapers circulating in such city; said notice to be published at least ten days before the holding of such election, and the officer charged with the duty of preparing the official ballots for the election of municipal officers of such city at such election, shall cause to be printed on each official ballot beneath the list of candidates thereon, the following words: "For the adoption of the provisions of an act entitled 'An act to enable cities which have no hospitals maintained by the city to enter into contracts for the purpose of supporting, maintaining and caring for indigent patients in any regularly incorporated hospital located in such city;' " that any elector desiring to vote against the adoption of such act shall express his intention by marking off or defacing the proposition to adopt the provisions of said act, and if such question or proposition be marked off or defaced upon a ballot, it shall be counted as a vote against the same; if it be not marked off or defaced it shall be counted as a vote in favor thereof.

Referendum.

3. If a majority of all the ballots cast at such election, shall be in favor of the adoption of the provisions of this act, it shall be the duty of the proper municipal authorities to make and enter into a contract with any regularly incorporated hospital located in such city, for the support, maintenance and care of such indigent patients as may be sent to such hospital by the proper municipal authorities, as provided for in the first section of this act.

If election favorable, contract to be made.

Annual appropriation.

4. Upon the execution of any such contract by any city of this state it shall be the duty of the proper municipal authorities of said city to annually appropriate and raise by tax, in the same manner as other city taxes are assessed, levied and collected in said city, during the existence of such contract, a sum equal to one-third of a mill on every dollar of assessable property returned by the assessor of said city, for the purpose of taxation in such city, during the term of such contract, which sum when so appropriated shall be paid to the treasurer of the board of trustees, governors or directors of the hospital named in the said contract.

If more than one hospital.

5. In case there should be more than one hospital supported in whole or in part by private subscription in any city adopting the provisions of this act, it shall be lawful for the proper municipal authorities of any such city to designate which of said hospitals said contract shall be made with, or to enter into contracts with more than one of them, and apportion the amount so to be raised by taxation among them, in such manner as in the discretion of such municipal authorities may be for the best interest of the public.

Approved March 30, 1904.

CHAPTER 224.

An Act to enable cities of this state to appropriate money for the support of hospitals.

BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

Support of hospitals by cities.

1. It shall be lawful for the common council, or other body having charge of the finances of any city of this state, to appropriate annually for the support of any public hospital or hospitals located within such city, any sum of money not exceeding one mill on every dollar of assessable property in such city, and to raise such amount by taxation, and to pay the same to the proper authorities of such hospital or hospitals for the support thereof.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 30, 1904.

CHAPTER 225.

An Act to provide for a board of commissioners of assessment in each city in this state except cities of the first class and those in which a board or mode of assessment of benefits is provided by the city charter.

1. In each city in this state except cities of the first class and those in which provision is made by the charter for the appointment or election of a commission or board for the assessment of benefits (or no mode of assessment of benefits other than the charging against each property or parcel the cost of making the improvement in the street or highway on which the same abuts or adjoins is prescribed) a board of commissioners of assessment is hereby created and shall consist of the city engineer and two of its members to be appointed to such board by the governing body of such city, the duty of which said board of commissioners of assessment shall be, after such notice to the parties in interest as said governing body shall prescribe, to ascertain and make assessments according to law and in proportion to the benefits received by each lot or parcel of land, for the benefits resulting to the abutting or adjoining lands (in such assessment specifying the amount thereof and the particular lot or parcel of land against which the same is assessed) from all street improvements such as paving, curbing, grading and guttering, and from the laying or relaying of sidewalks and water-pipes and to file a certificate of such assessment with the city clerk of said city, who shall thereupon present the same to the governing body of said city at its next meeting for its approval and confirmation; the amount of such assessments shall, after confirmation of the same by said governing body, be and become a lien upon the said abutting or adjoining lands in front or in the vicinity of which such improvements are made, as said lands are described and designated in said certificate of assessment, to the same extent that taxes and other assessments are liens in such city; and said assessments shall be collected in the manner provided by law provided for the collection of taxes and other assessments, and shall bear interest at the same rate; in addition thereto the city may have an action to recover the amount of any such assessment against the owner or owners of said lands in any court having competent jurisdiction thereof and a certified copy of such assessment shall, in any such action, be prima facie evidence of the existence of the debt due from said owner or owners to such city; in case any assessment for paving, curbing, grading or guttering or for laying or relaying sidewalks or water-pipes against any property in such city, whether made by the board of commissioners created under this act or by any other board, officer or authority in such city previous to the creation of a board under this act, is set aside by any court having competent jurisdiction, as illegal or unjust, said board of commissioners of assessment hereby created, shall be authorized and it shall be their duty to proceed, as soon as possible thereafter, to reassess such benefits against any such property according to law and in proportion to the benefits received from such improvement; provided, however, that nothing in this act shall affect any suit now pending instituted to test the legality of any such assessment heretofore made by any competent city authority.

2. This act shall take effect immediately and that all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith, to the extent of such inconsistency only, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Approved March 30, 1904.

CHAPTER 226.

An Act relating to the passage of ordinances.

BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

1. In any city of this state where, by charter, a specific number of votes are required to pass an ordinance and the number of the members of the governing body thereof has been or hereafter shall be decreased by general legislation since the adoption of such charter, it shall be only necessary to have a majority vote of the members of such governing body to pass any ordinance and a two-thirds vote to pass an ordinance over the mayor's veto, and every such ordinance shall be read three times before its passage.

Votes necessary to pass ordinance.

2. All acts and parts of acts, general or special, inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

Repealer.

3. This act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 30, 1904.

CHAPTER 227.

An Act providing for a new publication of the public acts of the legislature of this state.

BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

1. The governor shall appoint as soon as conveniently may be after the passage of this act a commission of three persons, learned in the law, whose duty it shall be to compile and edit the public acts of the legislature of this state, which work shall be known as the "Revised Statutes of New Jersey," and shall contain (1)

Commission to compile statutes.

Name.

all the public acts of the legislature of this state published in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, and known as the "General Statutes of New Jersey," under and by virtue of the provisions of chapter forty-one of the pamphlet laws of one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, and (2) the session laws passed, or that shall be passed, by the legislature of this state between the first-day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, which are general and permanent in their nature and which shall be in force on the first day of January next; and said work shall contain abstracts from the public decisions of the courts of this state expounding or construing the said statutes, with citations of such decisions; any such commissioner may be removed by the governor; and in case of the death, resignation or removal of any commissioner the governor shall appoint his successor.

Mechanical make-up, index, etc.

2. The said work shall be of compact and convenient size, and shall be published in not more than three volumes; shall be bound in law sheep in a good and substantial manner; shall be furnished with a full and complete general index of its contents, and with a list, alphabetically arranged, of the cases cited in the abstracts of public decisions, and also a list, alphabetically arranged, of legislative acts passed since January first, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, and not published in said work on account of their not being general and permanent in their nature or not being in force January first, one thousand nine hundred and five; the said work shall correspond in arrangement of statutes and mechanical execution to the revision published in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, and known as the "Revision of the Statutes of New Jersey," and amendments, wherever practicable, shall be incorporated in the original acts in their proper places.

3. Six hundred sets of said work shall be printed and bound according to the general directions of this act and pursuant to specifications to be prepared for that purpose by said commissioners, which printing and binding shall be done by contract to be let by said commissioners; and said copies or sets of said work shall be delivered to the state treasurer, who shall distribute the same as follows: To the governor, ten sets; to the secretary of state, comptroller, treasurer, clerk of the supreme court, clerk in chancery, attorney-general, commissioner of banking and insurance, members of the state board of assessors and of the state board of taxation, the chancellor, vice chancellors, justices of the supreme court, judges of the court of errors and appeals, each two sets; to the clerk, surrogate, sheriff, prosecutor of the pleas and board of freeholders of each county, one set; to each member of the present legislature one set, and to the clerk of the house of assembly and to the secretary of the senate of the present legislature, each one set; to the state librarian, ten sets; each county and district court library, two sets; each county and district court judge, one set; each New Jersey senator and representative in congress, one set; each circuit court judge, one set; to the head of each state department and the secretary to the governor, one set; to each registrar of deeds, one set; and the balance shall be distributed among the public officers and citizens of the state by and in the discretion of the governor, treasurer and comptroller.

Distribution.

4. Said work shall declare on its title page that the statute laws of this state therein contained are published under the authority of the legislature, and when so published the same shall be received as evidence of the public laws of this state, in any court in this state.

Title page.

5. The governor, comptroller and treasurer shall fix and determine the compensation to be paid to said commissioners, and said compensation shall be paid by the treasurer at the time of the completion of the work of said commissioners, or from time to time in installments, according to the terms so fixed, out of any moneys in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Compensation.

6. The said work shall be completed as soon as conveniently may be; provided, that if said work is not compiled before January first, one thousand nine hundred and six, then and in that case the laws to be passed by the next legislature shall be comprised in said work, duly indexed and annotated as aforesaid; said commissioners may employ such clerks and assistants as they

CHAPTER 230.

An Act to regulate the practice of the profession of public accountants.

BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

Board of
countants.

1. Within sixty days after the passage of this act the governor of the state of New Jersey shall appoint three persons, who shall be public accountants residing in the state of New Jersey, and who have been engaged in the practice of their profession for at least three years; the said three persons shall constitute the New Jersey state board of public accountants, one of whom shall be appointed to hold office for one year, one shall be appointed to hold office for two years and one shall be appointed to hold office for three years.

Term.

2. Upon the expiration of the term of each member, the governor shall appoint his successor from among the certified public accountants of the state of New Jersey for a term of three years, in like manner as the previous appointments; each member shall hold over after the expiration of his term until his successor shall have been duly appointed and qualified.

Successors.

3. Any vacancy occurring in the membership of the state board of public accountants shall be filled for the balance of the unexpired term in like manner; the members of the board shall serve without compensation for their services, except as hereinafter provided.

Vacancies.

4. The members of the New Jersey state board of public accountants shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, and within thirty days after their appointment, take and subscribe an oath before any officer authorized to administer oaths in the state, for the faithful performance of duty, and file the same with the secretary of state; they shall annually elect from their board a president, a secretary and a treasurer; the offices of secretary and treasurer may, by vote of the board, be consolidated and held by one person; the officers shall receive such compensation for their services as may be determined by the board, as hereinafter provided.

Oath; organization.

5. The board may adopt all necessary rules, regulations and by-laws to govern its proceedings, not inconsistent with the laws of this state or of the United States; the board may adopt a seal, and the secretary shall have the care and custody thereof, and shall keep a record of all the proceedings of the board, which shall be open to public examination.

CHAPTER 243.

An Act to enable street railway companies, or companies owning railroads operated as street railways, to become corporations to be governed and controlled by the provisions of "An act to authorize the formation of traction companies for the construction and operation of street railways or railroads operated as street railways, and to regulate the same," approved March fourteenth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, and to prescribe a method therefor.

BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

Enabling street railway companies to come under traction act.

1. It shall and may be lawful for any street railway company or other company owning a railroad now legally operated as a street railway, incorporated under any law of this state, to become a corporation whose property and franchise shall be governed and controlled, and which shall become possessed of the rights and privileges and subject to the duties prescribed by the provisions of "An act to authorize the formation of traction companies for the construction and operation of street railways or railroads operated as street railways, and to regulate the same," approved March fourteenth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.

2. Whenever the directors of any street railway company, or other company owning a railroad operated as a street railway, shall deem it for the best interest of the company that it become a corporation to be governed, controlled and operated by and under the provisions of "An act to authorize the formation of traction companies for the construction and operation of street railways or railroads operated as street railways, and to regulate the same," approved March fourteenth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, it shall be lawful for such directors to call a meeting of the stockholders for the purpose of submitting such object to them for their consideration; due notice of the time and place of holding such meeting, and the object thereof, shall be delivered to such stockholders respectively, or sent to them by mail when their post-office address is known to the company; and, also, by a general notice published in some newspaper, in the city, town or county where such company has its principal office or place of business; and at said meeting of stockholders, the purpose of changing the government and control of the company from the laws pertaining to street railway companies, to the laws controlling the property, rights, privileges and franchises of companies organized under "An act to authorize the formation of traction companies for the construction and operation of street railways or railroads operated as street railways, and to regulate the same," approved March fourteenth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, shall be considered, and a vote by ballot shall be taken thereon; said ballots shall be cast in person or by proxy, and if two-thirds in value of all the outstanding shares of stock of said company shall be in favor of such change, it shall then be lawful for the directors of such company to make a certificate in writing, under its corporate seal, signed by its president and attested by its secretary, setting forth the action of the company, and that it is the purpose of said company to become a corporation under the provisions of "An act to authorize the formation of traction companies for the construction and operation of street railways or railroads operated as street railways, and to regulate the same," approved March fourteenth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, naming its directors and other officers and the date of their election, and term for which they were elected severally; the number of shares of capital stock, the amount or par value of each share, and how and when directors and officers shall be chosen after the expiration of the term of those in office at the time of making the certificate, with such other details, if any, as they shall deem necessary to perfect such corporation, and bring it within the terms and provisions of "An act to authorize the formation of traction companies for the construction and operation of street railways or railroads operated as street railways, and to regulate the same," approved March fourteenth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.

traction act.

3. Upon the making and filing of the certificate mentioned in the preceding section, in the office of the secretary of state, said company shall from thenceforth cease to be governed, controlled and operated by and under the law under which it was originally incorporated, and shall to all intents and purposes become and be thereafter considered as a corporation organized by and under "An act to authorize the formation of traction companies for the construction and operation of street railways or railroads operated as street railways, and to regulate the same," approved March fourteenth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, and shall be in all things governed and controlled thereby, and shall be authorized and empowered to continue its business, and build, extend, construct, repair and operate its road, and entitled to all the rights, powers, privileges and franchises, as if originally incorporated thereunder; provided, that nothing herein shall operate to grant to any such corporation any franchise or privilege to maintain or build a trolley road in any street or highway, or to revive or renew any such franchise or privilege without the consent of the municipal or other board or boards having control of such streets or highways, granted and approved in the manner required by law at the time of giving such consent.

Proviso.

4. The capital stock of said company shall in no way be affected by such change, unless provision therefor is made in said certificate, and suits may be brought by and against such company for causes arising before as well as after such change.

As to capital stock and suits.

5. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act, to the extent of such inconsistency, be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act shall take effect immediately.

Repealer.

Approved April 5, 1904.

CHAPTER 244.

An Act to amend an act entitled "An act to validate taxes heretofore levied, bonds or obligations issued, contracts made or other acts done for school purposes which may be illegal because of the fact that the law under which they were so levied, issued, made or done has been declared unconstitutional," approved October nineteenth, one thousand nine hundred and three.

JOINT RESOLUTIONS.

Joint Resolutions.

JOINT RESOLUTION No. 1.

Joint Resolution for the better preservation of life and property and securing better facilities for small craft on the coast between Sandy Hook and Barnegat inlet.

WHEREAS, A very large number of small craft, such as torpedo boats, submarine boats, launches, yachts and power fishing boats are constantly plying off the coast of New Jersey; and

Preamble.

WHEREAS, The distance from Sandy Hook to Barnegat inlet is over forty miles, and the Squan inlet, situate midway between is not of sufficient depth on the bar for this class of vessels to make a harbor at all times; and

WHEREAS, It is feasible to connect the head of Barnegat bay with Squan inlet, thereby insuring an inside passage for twenty-two miles and a good inlet for ingress and egress for the aforesaid craft; and

WHEREAS, This would create a harbor for submarine and torpedo craft of great value in time of war with any foreign enemy as well as a safe harbor for other small vessels,

1. Be it resolved, by the Senate and General Assembly of the state of New Jersey, that our senators and representatives in congress be respectfully requested to urge the passage of an act making the necessary appropriation for the better preservation of life and property by establishing a harbor for small vessels that are now exposed to great danger.

Harbor for small vessels.

Congress informed.

2. And be it resolved, that the governor be requested to transmit to each of our senators and representatives in congress assembled a certified copy of these resolutions.

Approved March 7, 1904.

JOINT RESOLUTION No. 2.

Joint Resolution to provide an appropriation for painting the portrait of ex-governor George C. Ludlow.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, The legislature of New Jersey, in the year one thousand nine hundred and two (1902), by joint resolution number three, provided for the portraits of deceased governors of the state, which have become the property of the state and now hang on the walls of the executive chamber, and provisions have not been made for all those who have held that high office, and, being desirable that the list should be completed; and

WHEREAS, To comply with the provisions of section one (1) of said resolution, to wit, "That the cost of said portrait shall not exceed the sum of six hundred dollars, which sum must be first appropriated in the annual appropriation bill," to enable a committee, consisting of the president of the senate, speaker of the house and adjutant-general to act; therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

Appropriation.

1. The sum of four hundred dollars be and is hereby appropriated for the purpose of painting the portrait of ex-governor George C. Ludlow; provided, said moneys shall have been duly appropriated in the annual or supplemental appropriation bill.

Proviso.

2. This resolution shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 22, 1904.

JOINT RESOLUTION No. 3.

Joint Resolution for acquiring by purchase by the state, the portraits of certain signers of the Declaration of Independence and the appointment of a commission for that purpose and providing an appropriation therefor.

WHEREAS, The state has been acquiring the portraits of distinguished men, now deceased, who have been connected with the history of the state and country; and

Preamble.

WHEREAS, Several citizens of this state were signers of the Declaration of Independence, and it being deemed desirable that their portraits should be secured by the state; and

WHEREAS, The portraits of these gentlemen have been painted by Mr. Henry Harrison, the artist who has painted several of the portraits already acquired by the state, and who has offered to sell the same to the state; therefore

BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

1. The governor, the president of the senate and the speaker of the house of assembly, be and they are hereby appointed as a commission, to examine and inspect the portraits of Dr. John Witherspoon, Francis Hopkinson, John Hart, Abraham Clark and Richard Stockton, citizens of the state of New Jersey, who were signers of the Declaration of Independence, and which have been lately painted by Mr. Henry Harrison, and if by the said commission adjudged satisfactory, that such commission, on behalf of the state, purchase the said portraits for the state.

Portraits of signers of declaration of independence.

2. The price to be paid for the said five portraits, properly framed, shall not exceed the sum of twelve hundred and fifty dollars.

Amount.

Appropriation.

3. Should the said commission purchase the said portraits, as aforesaid, and so certify in writing to the comptroller of the state, then in such case, the purchase price, not exceeding said sum of twelve hundred and fifty dollars, is hereby appropriated for such purpose and the committee on appropriations is hereby requested to place such sum so appropriated in the annual appropriation bill.

4. This resolution shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 24, 1904.

JOINT RESOLUTION No. 4.

Joint Resolution providing for the purchase of portraits of the governor and ex-governors of this state.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, The portraits of many of the distinguished men who have held the office of governor of this state under the present constitution, have become the property of the state and now hang on the walls of the executive chamber; and

WHEREAS, Provision has not been made for the portraits of all who have held that high office during the period mentioned, and it is desirable that the list should be completed and so far as possible the portraits shall be painted from sittings given by the subject to the artist selected by the committee and in future during the official term of the governor; therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

Portraits of governors.

I. A committee consisting of the president of the senate and speaker of the house of assembly and the adjutant-general of the state be authorized and requested to procure, as soon as may be, suitable portraits of the governor and all ex-governors under the present constitution not now provided for, in so far as it may be possible to procure them; the said portraits to be painted in oil by reputable artists, and appropriately framed, and not to cost, in any instance, over one thousand dollars each, the same to be paid by the treasurer out of any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, upon a warrant drawn by the comptroller on approval of the aforesaid committee, or a majority thereof, and in the order of their completion and delivery; provided, such sum or sums shall first be appropriated in the annual appropriation bill.

Amount.

Proviso.

2. This joint resolution shall take effect immediately.
Approved March 28, 1904.

JOINT RESOLUTION No. 5.

Joint Resolution authorizing the appointment of a commission to report on the advisability of establishing free bridges across the Delaware river, together with the probable cost thereof, and the expense of maintaining the same.

BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

1. The governor is hereby authorized to appoint three commissioners whose duty it shall be to make investigation as to the advisability of establishing free bridges across the Delaware river between above the westerly end of Burlington island and Port Jervis, including in such investigation an estimate of the probable cost of building, and the expense of maintaining the same; and to make report of the results of their investigation to the next session of the legislature.

Commission
bridges.

2. Said commissioners are hereby empowered to confer with the governor and other officials of the state of Pennsylvania, or any commissioners appointed by the state of Pennsylvania, to ascertain therefrom, if possible, the views of the authorities of the state of Pennsylvania upon this subject.

Powers.

Compensation and expenses.

3. Said commissioners shall serve without compensation, but shall be allowed their reasonable expenses, and that such expenses to a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars shall be paid by the state treasurer upon the warrant of the state comptroller, on bills certified by the commissioners.

4. This resolution shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 28, 1904.

JOINT RESOLUTION No. 6.

Joint Resolution to provide for the granting of a medal to Major Charles S. Barnard, retired, for service in the national guard of the state of New Jersey.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, Major Charles S. Barnard, retired, has heretofore served over fifteen years in the national guard of this state, to wit, from August first, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, to April seventh, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two; and

WHEREAS, The state military board did, on December eighteenth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, adopt a resolution providing for the issuance of a medal to those who have rendered long and faithful service in the militia and national guard of the state of New Jersey; and

WHEREAS, The said Major Charles S. Barnard had resigned from the service prior to the adoption of said resolution, and by reason thereof the said state military board have refused to grant him said medal; therefore, medal.

BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

Service

1. That the state military board and adjutant-general of this state be and they are hereby directed to issue to Major Charles S. Barnard, retired, a fifteen-year service medal, as provided for in the resolution aforesaid.

2. This resolution shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 28, 1904.

JOINT RESOLUTION No. 7.

Joint Resolution for the better improvement of the highways of this state.

WHEREAS, A resolution has been introduced into congress providing for an appropriation by the federal government of twenty-four million dollars to be distributed among the states of the union according to their population, for federal co-operation in road building, on condition that the states, counties and towns raise an equal portion to that which they receive from the federal government; and Preamble.

WHEREAS, Should said bill become a law the state of New Jersey will receive as its share about five hundred and forty-six thousand dollars; and

WHEREAS, There is great need for improving the highways of this state; therefore,

Be it resolved, That the senate and assembly of the state of New Jersey, believing in the principle of national, state, county and town co-operation in the construction of main highways, not only for the benefit of the agriculturist, but for the benefit of the consumers of agricultural products; and also believing in the wisdom of the expenditure of public moneys for the purpose of improving the internal wealth and commerce of the nation;

Approving national aid for roads.

We therefore heartily endorse the provisions of said bill and desire its passage; and further, be it

Endorsement.

Resolved, That we ask our senators and congressmen to use all honorable efforts in passing this bill in order to secure for the state of New Jersey the benefits of national aid in road construction; and be it further Congressmen urged to act.

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be sent to the chairman of the committee on agriculture and each of the senators and congressmen from this state.

Copies furnished.

Approved March 28, 1904.

JOINT RESOLUTION No. 8.

Joint Resolution to provide an appropriation for painting the portrait of the late chief justice Mercer Beasley.

BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

Appropriation.

1. The sum of five hundred and fifty dollars be and is hereby appropriated for the purpose of painting the portrait of the late chief justice Mercer Beasley, and that the committee on appropriations is requested to place that sum in the annual appropriation bill at this session.

2. This resolution shall take effect immediately.
Approved March 28, 1904.

JOINT RESOLUTION No. 9.

Joint Resolution to continue the commission to examine concerning the imprisonment and care of women offenders and to prescribe its duties.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, Number two of the joint resolutions of the senate and general assembly of the state of New Jersey, approved April seventh, one thousand nine hundred and three, provided for a commission of five persons to make a careful examination concerning the present facilities and accommodations of the state for the imprisonment and care of woman offenders and the provisions made and methods employed in other states for their care, and to report as to the necessity or advisability of establishing a state reform for women; and

WHEREAS, The said commission was duly appointed and has rendered to the legislature at this session a report containing the results of their deliberations, after having made an extensive and conscientious examination of the matters entrusted to them;

BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

1. The said commission, as constituted at this time of making said report, do further examine into the present facilities and accommodations of the state for the imprisonment and care of woman offenders, and examine and report as to the number of women confined in houses of correction, refuges, missions or homes of like character for the care of delinquent women in the state, who have been placed in such houses of correction, refuges, missions or homes of like character at the request of any judge of any court of this state or of the probation officer; and shall also ascertain and report the number of women under the care of the probation officer of this state, together with their names and the nature of the offences committed; shall also report upon the character of the work required of women in jails and penal institutions of the state and the average number of hours each during which they are employed.

Continuation of commission on female reformatory.

2. The governor is hereby authorized to fill any vacancy now on said commission or any vacancy which may occur by resignation or otherwise, and he may appoint, if he so desires, a woman to fill any such vacancy so that said commission shall consist of three women instead of two.

Vacancies.

3. Said commissioners shall serve without compensation and shall be allowed the sum of one hundred dollars for expenses, which expenditure shall be paid by the treasurer upon warrant of the comptroller, after receiving an itemized voucher thereof certified to by the governor and the chairman of the commission out of an appropriation which shall be made by the legislature for that purpose.

Compensation and expenses.

4. This resolution shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 28, 1904.

CHAPTER 4.

An Act to provide for the regulation of the flow of torrential rivers, to protect persons and property from damage by floods, and to provide for the maintenance and regulation of river flood districts when established by law.

BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

River flood district.

1. Whenever the legislature by special act shall create and establish a river flood district within this state defining the territory included therein, the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, shall nominate and appoint five persons residents within said district to be commissioners, and the said commissioners and their successors in office shall be a body politic and corporate, with perpetual succession under the name of "_____ River Flood District Commissioners," with power to sue and be sued, to adopt and use a corporate seal, and with the right, power and authority to acquire, hold, use and dispose of all such property, real and personal, as may be proper or necessary for the purposes for which such corporation exists, and with all other powers proper or necessary to carry out and effectuate the purposes for which the said commission is created; said commissioners shall hold office for a term of four years, beginning on the first day of May next following the date of their appointment; any vacancy occurring in the office of commissioner shall be filled by the governor, but for the unexpired term only; the governor shall have power to remove any commissioner for cause, and upon such removal to fill the vacancy thus occasioned for the unexpired term; each of the said commissioners shall receive an annual salary of twenty-five hundred dollars, payable in equal monthly installments.

2. The said commissioners shall, within thirty days after their appointment, meet and organize by the choice of one of their members as president, and they may elect a treasurer and a clerk, both of whom may or may not be a member of the board, and may also from time to time appoint and employ such other officers, attorneys, agents, engineers, assistants and employes as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this act, and may prescribe the duties and fix the compensation of all such officers, attorneys, agents, engineers, assistants and employes; all appointees of said commissioners may be removed at the pleasure of the commission.

Assistants.

3. Every commission appointed under this act for any river flood district is hereby given full power and authority to devise and adopt plans of suitable works for the control and restraint of the flood waters of the river flowing through the district and to make, construct and maintain such dams, reservoirs, sluices, canals, aqueducts and other works as may be appropriate for preventing damage to property in said flood district from the overflow of such river; the said commissioners shall have power and authority to purchase and acquire lands and rights or interests in lands within and without the said flood district which may be deemed necessary for the construction of such works as above mentioned, and for their maintenance and proper operation, and to purchase and acquire water-rights and rights of flowage necessary or appropriate to the establishment and maintenance of the plans adopted.

Powers and duties.

Acquire lands.

4. If in any case the said commissioners shall be unable to agree with the owner or owners of any lands, water-rights or other rights or interests in lands deemed necessary by them in the construction, prosecution and maintenance of the works hereby authorized, or when by reason of legal incapacity or absence of such owner or owners no agreement can be made for the purchase thereof, the lands, water-rights or other rights or interests in lands so deemed necessary for the purposes of this act, shall be acquired by condemnation by the said commissioners, in the manner provided by the general laws of this state relating to the condemnation of lands for public uses; provided, that no private property shall be taken for the purposes of this act without compensation therefor shall have first been made or tendered to the owner or owners thereof, or in lieu thereof paid to the clerk of the county in which the lands or interests therein taken are located, for the use of the person or persons entitled to receive the same; and in case such payment or tender to the owner or owners, or payment into court, is made upon the award of commissioners in condemnation, the said flood district commission shall be entitled to take immediate possession of the property so condemned notwithstanding any appeal.

Construct dams, reservoirs, etc.

5. The said commission shall have power to construct any dams, reservoirs or other works by them undertaken in accordance with this act under or over any water-course, under or over or across or along any street, turnpike or highway and for that purpose are hereby authorized to take lands, real estate, water rights or rights or interests in lands other than those used for railroad or canal purposes, and in the case of public highways to require the same to be abandoned so far as may be necessary for the purpose of said works and to be relaid, if necessary, by some other route or in some other location; damages for the taking of such property, as well as the value of such property taken, to be paid for according to law; the said commissioners shall also have power to alter or change the grade of any highway or public street where necessary for the purpose of carrying out the plans by them adopted; if it shall become necessary to change the location or gradient of any canal or railroad operated under a charter or the appurtenances thereof, the corporation owning and operating the same shall be authorized to relocate and change the same so far as needful and to acquire by condemnation or purchase under its chartered powers the property necessary for such changes, and to agree with said commissioners upon the details of such changes, the cost thereof to be paid by the commissioners as part of the expense of the said works; or such needed property may be acquired by the commissioners by purchase or condemnation under their powers, and the same conveyed by them to such railroad or canal company.

6. The said commissioners may by their officers, agents, servants and employes enter at all times upon any lands or waters within or without the said district for the purpose of exploring, surveying, levelling and laying out the plans of the dams, aqueducts and other works by them to be constructed, doing, however, no unnecessary damage or injury to private property.

7. When the said commissioners shall have adopted a plan of works for the control and restraint of the floodwaters of the district they shall file a copy thereof, together with a map showing the lands to be taken, flowed or otherwise affected by said works, and the area and extent of any reservoir to be constructed, in the office of the county clerk of the county or counties within which said lands lie or said works are to be constructed; they shall also cause to be made a careful estimate of the cost of said works, in which shall be included the cost of the lands, water-rights, and rights and interests in lands to be acquired, and the damages for the taking thereof, together with an estimate of the cost of changing the location of any railroads, canals, or highways which may require to be changed in carrying out said plans, and shall file a copy of said estimate with the said plans in the office of the clerk of the county or counties within which said lands lie or in which said work are to be constructed; the said commissioner shall also at the same time proceed to ascertain and inquire what lands and real estate within said flood district will be specially benefited by the construction and maintenance of said works and the approximate amount of the said benefits; also the amount of such special benefits as will accrue to every city, township, borough and other municipality wholly or partly within said flood district, and to the county or counties within which said works are located, or which are benefited thereby; and as accurately as may be, specify the extent of lands on each side of said river within the flood district that will be benefited by said works; thereupon the said commissioners shall make application to a justice of the supreme court for the appointment of three discreet persons to make an assessment of the costs, damages and expenses to be incurred by the said commissioners for the acquiring of the said lands, water-rights, rights and interests in lands, the construction of said works, and other lawful costs and expenses connected therewith as shown in the said estimate; notice of such application shall be given by publication in one or more newspapers published within said flood district, by at least three publications, the first of which shall be published at least ten days prior to the day on which said application is to be made; such justice of the supreme court, when applied to as aforesaid, on due proof that such notice has been given, is hereby authorized and required to appoint three discreet persons as aforesaid, who shall be denominated assessors; and in case of the death, resignation, disability or refusal to serve of any such assessor, the vacancy shall be filled as soon as may be by the said justice, upon such notice as he shall direct; the assessors so to be appointed shall, before entering upon the duties of their office, take, subscribe and file, in the office of the clerk of the supreme court, an oath faithfully to discharge the duties devolving upon them.

assessors.

8. The said assessors, upon their appointment and qualification, shall forthwith proceed to make a just and equitable assessment of the cost of acquiring the said lands and rights, and of constructing said works as estimated by the said flood commissioners, upon all of the lands of private owners within said district specially benefited by such works, in proportion to the benefits actually acquired by said lands; but in no case shall the assessment upon any lands exceed the special benefits arising from said works to the lands so assessed; the said assessors shall also make a just and equitable assessment upon the cities, townships, boroughs and other municipal corporations lying wholly or partially within said flood district, and upon the county or counties within which said works are located or which are benefited thereby, for the amount of benefits specially received by such counties, cities, townships, boroughs and other municipalities by reason of said works, in proportion to the benefits actually received by each of them; the benefits assessed shall not exceed the total cost of said works as estimated by the commissioners, nor shall any lands, or any county, city, township, borough or other municipality, be assessed a greater sum than the amount of benefits received or to be received from said works.

Hearing.

9. The said assessors shall, before entering upon their duties, give ten days' previous notice, by publication in two of the newspapers published in the district, that they will meet at a convenient time and place named in said notice for the purpose of discharging the duties devolving upon them as such assessors, and at the time and place so appointed they shall meet and proceed to examine the matters referred to them under this act, and shall have power to adjourn from time to time, and shall give full opportunity to all parties interested under such reasonable restrictions as the said assessors may impose, to state their views in regard to the subject-matter before said assessors, and to present their objections to the assessments to be made by the said assessors, and to produce evidence before the said assessors in support of their objections; and any one of the said assessors may administer oaths and take depositions of witnesses who shall be subject to the same pains and penalties for false swearing as if said oaths had been administered in an ordinary legal proceeding before a competent court.

10. Whenever the assessors shall have completed their assessment, they shall cause a map to be made showing the location and boundaries of each parcel of land so assessed, and shall designate on each parcel of land upon said map the name of the owner thereof so far as known to the assessors, and they shall make a certificate showing the whole amount of said assessments, with the amount assessed against each parcel of land, and against each county, city or other municipality, and the names of the owners set opposite thereto, so far as the same may be known to the assessors, which map and certificate shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county or counties in which said flood district is situated; thereupon said assessors shall give ten days' public notice in the manner provided by the sixth section of this act that they have completed the map and certificate required hereby, that the same have been filed, and that they will meet at a certain time and place designated in said notice, to hear and consider objections to said assessments, and to revise, correct and finally confirm the same; at which time and place the said assessors shall meet and give all parties appearing before them an opportunity of being fully and fairly heard concerning the said assessments or the subject-matter thereof; the said assessors shall, after revising their said report, file the same in revised form with the clerk or clerks of the said county or counties as aforesaid and upon the coming in of said final report, signed by said assessors, or any two of them, the said flood commissioners shall cause notice to be given in the same manner as prescribed in the sixth section of this act, of an application to be made to a justice of the supreme court for the confirmation and approval thereof, which notice shall state the time and place at which such application will be made; and, at the time and place appointed, the said justice shall hear any matter that may be alleged against said report, or any part thereof, and shall either confirm the same or refer it back to the same or new assessors, to be appointed by the said justice to reconsider the subject-matter thereof; and the said assessors to whom said report shall be referred shall return the same report, corrected and revised, or a new report, to be by them made in the premises, to the said justice, within such time as he shall by order direct, and the same, on being so returned, shall be confirmed or again referred by such justice in the manner aforesaid, as right and justice shall require, and so from time to time until a report shall be made or returned which the said justice shall confirm, and such report, when so confirmed, shall be final and conclusive, as well upon the said flood commissioners as upon the owners of any lands and real estate affected thereby, and the counties, cities, townships, boroughs and other municipalities affected thereby.

report final.

Assessments a lien.

11. From and after the filing of said map and report as aforesaid, and the final confirmation thereof, said assessment shall be and remain a lien upon each parcel of land so assessed for the amount thereof, with interest thereon, until the same shall be paid and satisfied, notwithstanding any devise, descent or alienation of said lands or any judgment, mortgage or incumbrance thereon, and notwithstanding any mistake in the name or names of the, or omission to name the, owner or owners thereof, and any assessment in which such mistake or omission occurs shall, nevertheless, be a valid and effectual lien upon the lands assessed; and every assessment against any county, city, township, borough or other municipality shall constitute and remain a legal obliga-

12. All assessments made and confirmed under this act shall be paid in three annual equal installments with interest on each sum paid from the date on which the same became a lien or obligation, and shall be paid to and collected by the said flood commissioners through their treasurer or other financial officer; the said flood commissioners may fix the date at which the first annual payment shall be due and payable, which shall be within one year from the date of the confirmation of said report.

assessments.

13. If the total amount of assessments or benefits shall not equal the estimated cost of the said works the residue thereof shall be paid by said commissioners out of funds to be raised by them by the issue and sale of bonds, and for that purpose said commissioners shall be empowered to issue for and on behalf of said district its corporate bonds, which shall be payable at a time not exceeding thirty years from the date thereof, in such place, and either in currency or coin, as the said commissioners may determine; such bonds shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding four per centum per annum, payable semi-annually; all such bonds shall be signed by the president of the said board of commissioners and countersigned by the treasurer, and shall be sealed with its corporate seal, attested by the clerk; in issuing such bonds the said commissioners may, in their discretion, make the same or any part thereof fall due at stated periods, not less than fifteen years from the date of issue and may reserve in said bonds an option to redeem or pay the same, or any part thereof, at stated periods at any time between the date hereof and the date at which they would otherwise fall due; the said bonds may be either coupon or registered bonds, or partly coupon and partly registered bonds, and all such bonds may be negotiated, sold and disposed of at not less than their par value, and the same or the proceeds thereof may be used by the said commissioners for the purposes aforesaid. All sales of bonds shall be made after public notice and advertisement calling for bids and shall be made to the highest responsible bidders.

of taxes.

The said commissioners shall, on or before the twentieth day of June in each year, order and cause a tax to be levied and assessed upon all persons districts lying in whole or in part within said district for the purpose of raising the money necessary to pay interest upon its bonds and for a proper sinking fund, the amount of which shall be determined by them, and on or before the twentieth day of June in each year shall certify to the tax assessor, taxing board or other taxing officer of each of said municipalities or taxing districts lying in whole or in part within said district, the amount of tax required to be levied, assessed and raised in each of their respective municipalities and taxing districts for said purposes, which said amount shall be apportioned to each of said municipalities and taxing districts proportionately in accordance with the assessable property in said municipality or taxing district; and the said assessors, taxing boards and taxing officers shall assess said sums so directed to be assessed (and certified to them) upon all persons and property within their respective municipalities or taxing districts liable to be assessed for state or county taxes, and the said tax shall be levied, assessed and collected by the same officers, at the same time and in the same manner and with the same effect as state or county taxes are required to be levied, assessed and collected within said municipality or taxing district; and the taxes so levied upon real estate in said municipalities and taxing districts shall be and remain a first and paramount lien thereon until paid; the said flood commissioners may also borrow money upon notes or bonds of the said commissioners issued in their corporate capacity in anticipation of the collection of said special assessment against lands, counties, cities, townships, boroughs and other municipalities and may pledge said assessments as security therefor; but no such notes, bonds or other obligations shall be issued that shall run longer than five years, and no rate of interest in excess of five per centum per annum shall be allowed or paid by them upon any money borrowed for such purpose, nor shall the amount of such notes, bonds or other said last mentioned obligations outstanding at any time exceed the total amount of the unpaid assessments.

14. The said flood commission shall at all times keep full and accurate accounts of their receipts, expenditures, disbursements and liabilities, and a copy thereof shall be annually transmitted to the secretary of this state and to the clerk of each city, township, borough or other municipality in the district.

Accounts kept and transmitted.

15. When said works are completed, the same shall be maintained and operated by the said flood commissioners at the expense of the flood district; the said flood commissioners are authorized and empowered to sell and contract for the sale and supply of water out of any reservoir or reservoirs where the same may be by said works impounded to any municipal or other corporation or private individual, either for potable or domestic purposes, or for manufacturing or other business purposes, and to charge and receive therefor reasonable rates and price, the proceeds thereof to be applied to the cost of maintenance of said works, and any surplus to be divided among and paid to the several municipalities and districts in the same proportion, as the taxes herein authorized to be raised, were by said commissioners apportioned between them.

Maintenance of works.

Sale of water.

Receipts.

16. All liens for assessments against lands imposed under this act may, in case of default in the payment thereof, be enforced and the said lands sold in the same manner and with the same force and effect as provided by the laws of this state for the sale of lands for taxes in the respective cities, townships, boroughs and other municipalities in which the same severally are situate, the proceedings for such sales and the deeds of transfer thereunder to be conducted and made by said flood commissioners.

Payment of liens.

17. No contract for work or supplies shall be made by the said flood commissioners for sums in excess of five thousand dollars unless bids for the same be first solicited by public advertisement and the award made to the lowest responsible bidder.

Work by contract.

18. The said commissioners shall have power from time to time to adopt all such reasonable rules and regu-

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY,
CITY OF TRENTON.

I appoint Thursday, November 26th, a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer, and request the people of the State to assemble in their places of public worship and return thanks to Almighty God for the blessings bestowed upon us as individuals and as a State during the year that is passed.

Life and the blessings of life are still ours. Our State is at peace. Our people are prosperous and we still enjoy the blessings of a free government that grows more enlightened and more beneficent as the years go by.

Let us all, young and old, gather together on the day named, and, with humility and thanksgiving, acknowledge the Lord God Almighty as the source from which all our blessings flow.

Given under my hand and privy seal, at the Executive Chambers, in the city of Trenton, on the thirteenth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and three, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and twenty-eighth.

[L. S.]	FRANKLIN MURPHY,
Attest:	Governor.
JOHN L. SWAYZE,
Secretary to the Governor.

PROCLAMATION.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY,

TRENTON, N. J., January 5, 1904.

WHEREAS, the comptroller did, on the fourth day of January, nineteen hundred and four, under the provisions of an act entitled "A further supplement to an act entitled 'An act to provide for the imposition of state taxes upon certain corporations, and for the collection thereof,' approved April 18, 1884," which supplementary act was approved March 23, 1900, report to the governor a list of all corporations coming under said act; and

WHEREAS, The following named corporations so reported have, for the two years preceding such report, failed, neglected or refused to pay the state taxes assessed against them for the year 1901, under the laws of the state of New Jersey, and made payable into the state treasury; and

WHEREAS, Under the provisions of said act, the charters of said corporations are repealed and all powers conferred by law upon such corporations declared inoperative and void, unless the governor gives further time for payment; and

WHEREAS, The governor has not given further time to the corporations so reported and hereinafter named for the payment of such taxes, and the same are still unpaid;

Wherefore, I, Franklin Murphy, governor of the state of New Jersey, pursuant to the provisions of said act of the legislature, do hereby issue this proclamation that the charters of the following named corporations so reported and in default, to wit:

Secretary of State.

PROCLAMATION.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
TRENTON, March 29, 1904.

WHEREAS, The Morris canal commission appointed by me pursuant to a joint resolution of the general assembly and senate of the state of New Jersey, presented their report to me on the fourteenth day of March, nineteen hundred and four, and the same was in due course laid before the legislature too late for its consideration at the regular session which has just ended; and

WHEREAS, The importance of the question involved in such report, and of the recommendations therein made, in my judgment require their immediate and prompt consideration; and

WHEREAS, Also the bill designed to prevent the shooting of pigeons from traps did not receive, as I believe, its due and proper consideration, and in my opinion public necessity requires the convening of the legislature to consider these subjects;

Therefore, I, Franklin Murphy, governor of the state of New Jersey, by virtue of the power vested in me by the constitution, do convene the legislature of this state, hereby requiring the senators and members of the house of assembly to meet in their respective chambers, at the state house, in the city of Trenton, on Tuesday, the twelfth day of April next, at twelve o'clock noon.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the state to [L. S.] be affixed at Trenton this twenty-ninth day of March, nineteen hundred and four.

Governor.

S. D. DICKINSON,
Secretary of State.

ARBOR DAY PROCLAMATION.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

In accordance with established custom and the authority vested in me by joint resolution of the legislature, approved February 21, 1884, I, Franklin Murphy, governor, do hereby designate Friday, the twenty-second day of April as Arbor day in the state of New Jersey, and I hereby recommend that the teachers and pupils of our public and private schools, and the people generally, do devote the day to the planting of trees, shrubs and flowers, and the holding of such exercises as will tend to stimulate our love for nature and broaden our knowledge of the value of trees.

Although it is not specially enjoined by statute it is entirely appropriate that with the study of the trees be coupled lessons on the value of our native birds and the importance of preserving them. I therefore further recommend that exercises relating to the birds as well as to the trees be included in each program.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the state to be [L. s.] affixed, at Trenton, this thirtieth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and four.

FRANKLIN MURPHY.

UNITED TANNERS GLUE COMPANY,
Defendant.

This Court having heretofore, on the eleventh day of January, nineteen hundred and one, and on the eighteenth day of February, nineteen hundred and one, appointed Albert C. Wall and Harry F. Walker Receivers of the United Tanners Glue Company, an insolvent corporation; and the said Receivers having filed their report, in which it appears that they have in their hands the sum of eighteen thousand eighteen dollars and thirty cents, and that the total amount of claims filed and allowed by the said Receivers, exclusive of preferred claims for labor, is eighty thousand six hundred and eighty-four dollars and forty-five cents; and the said Receivers now applying for a decree dissolving the corporation and declaring its charter forfeited and void; and it appearing to the Court that due notice of the application for such decree has been mailed to all of the stockholders and creditors of said defendant company,

IT IS THEREUPON, on this twenty-ninth day of December, nineteen hundred and two, Ordered and Decreed that the defendant corporation, the United Tanners Glue Company, be and the same is hereby dissolved, and that its charter be and the same is hereby declared forfeited and void.

Proof being made by affidavit filed herein that due notice of the order to show cause, made in the above entitled cause on the eighteenth day of May, nineteen hundred and three, and of its terms, has been mailed to all the creditors and stockholders of said insolvent corporation in accordance with the directions of said order; and it appearing by acknowledgment of service endorsed upon said petition that a copy of the petitioner's petition and of said order was served upon the solicitors of Henry W. Bishop, Esquire, the Receiver of said insolvent corporation, as directed in said order; and it further appearing that the petitioner's purchase at public auction of the property and assets of said insolvent corporation included its entire plant, trade marks, good will and business, and no cause being shown or appearing to the contrary,

IT IS THEREUPON, on this twenty-fifth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and three, on motion of Carrick & Wortendyke, solicitors and of counsel with the petitioners, and in presence of Messrs. Brinkerhoff and Fielder, of counsel with said Receiver, Ordered that the defendant corporation, C. A. Woolsey Paint & Color Company, be and the same is hereby dissolved, and that its charter be and the same is hereby declared forfeited and void; but this decree shall not impair or affect the right of said Receiver to collect the property and assets of said insolvent corporation, and to sell the same and distribute the proceeds thereof among the creditors and stockholders thereof, and to enforce the payment of claims due by suit in any court of competent jurisdiction.

AND

ATLANTIC CITY LAUNDRY COMPANY,*Def't.*On Bill for Receiver, &c.Order for Final Dividend and Discharge.

This cause being opened to the Court by William M. Clevenger, of counsel with James B. Adams, Receiver, and in pursuance of an order made by this Court on the first day of June, nineteen hundred and three, it appearing that all the creditors of the defendant corporation had received due notice of an application to this Court to state the account of the Receiver, to confirm his report, to fix his fee, to fix the fee of his counsel and for an order of distribution, and it appearing by the said report that the total receipts of the said Receiver from all sources were five hundred and forty-three dollars and thirteen cents, and that the total disbursements were one hundred and thirty-three dollars and ninety-seven cents, and that there is in the hands of the said Receiver at this time, the sum of four hundred and nine dollars and sixteen cents with which to pay his fees, expenses, costs, counsel fee and the creditors of the said insolvent corporation.

And it further appearing that the said Receiver received for the use and occupation of a portion of the real estate which came to his hands as Receiver the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars, and that the same is claimed by the said Receiver as a part of the assets to be distributed to the creditors of the said insolvent corporation, and also by the Atlantic Safe Deposit and Trust Company, trustees for the bondholders, who held a mortgage against the property so leased as aforesaid, and the said Atlantic Safe Deposit and Trust Company in and by the said order of June first, nineteen hundred and three, having been directed to show cause on this day why the said two hundred and fifty dollars should not be retained by the said Receiver and distributed to the creditors of the said insolvent corporation,

It is, on this twenty-ninth day of June, nineteen hundred and three, on motion of William M. Clevenger, of counsel with James B. Adams, Receiver as aforesaid, Ordered that the said account of the said Receiver be and the same is hereby stated as submitted, and as so stated is confirmed and approved.

It is ordered that the said Receiver pay over to the Atlantic Safe Deposit & Trust Company, or to its solicitor, the sum of two hundred and thirty dollars, and retain for his own use the sum of twenty dollars, which together shall represent the two hundred and fifty dollars collected for rents received from the real estate under a stipulation between the said Receiver and the said Atlantic Safe Deposit & Trust Co.

And it is further ordered that the said James D. Adams retain out of the moneys in his hands the sum of fifty dollars in full for his services and commissions as such Receiver.

And it is further ordered that he also retain out of the money in his hands sufficient to pay to his solicitor his taxed costs in this suit.

And it appearing that a final dividend should be made, it is further ordered that the said Receiver, after deducting from the moneys in his hands the amounts heretofore directed to be paid for costs, counsel fee and Receiver's compensation, he do pay to the State of New Jersey the amount due it for corporation tax, and that, if after the payment of the amount due to the State of New Jersey for the tax aforesaid, there be anything left in his hands, that he do pay a pro rata share to the creditors of the defendant corporation upon their claims before mentioned entitled to a dividend.

And it is further ordered that he be discharged from his office of Receiver, and from all liabilities on account thereof, except so far forth as respects the payments of said dividend and any money or assets that may hereafter come to his hands belonging to the defendant corporation.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the said Atlantic City Laundry Company be and the same is hereby dissolved as a body corporate, and the charter thereof is hereby declared forfeited and void.

And it is further ordered that a copy of this decree be filed forthwith in the office of the Secretary of State of this State, as required by law.
